CRISIS IN FRANCE.

Government Workers Defiant.

Postal, Telegraph and Telephone Workers Form Regular Union.

General Strike Is Expected at First Move on Either Side.

Situation Takes on Serious Aspect With Revolutionary Trend.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

PARIS, May 6.—The famous P.T.T.—that is, the Postal, Telegraph and Telephone Employés' Association—threw down the gage of battle to the government today by transforming itself into a syndicate or union, under the law of 1884. This places the association on the same footing with workmen's unions, with the right to strike.

This defiance, which is nothing short of open revolt, came as a sudden and sensational sequel to Premier Clemenceau's failure today to receive a deputation of postal employés who called to demand the redemption of promises they claim the government made when the recent strike was declared off.

The Premier was ill, but the delegation pretended to believe his indisposition was simulated. Their failure to be received, however, served as a pretext for springing their surprise, and an hour later the transformation of the association into a national syndicate was announced and the statutes of the organization were officially filed in the City Hall.

It was what the French call a coup de theatre, but if it proves successful it will be more like a coup d'etat, as its purpose is to make the employés the masters and not the servants of the state.

REGULAR UNION.

The rules of the organization follow strictly in form those of the workmen's organization. They declare the purpose to defend economic interests and give moral and material support to members having differences with the administration.

A commission is created following the lines of trades unions to act as intermediary in such differences, and members are forbidden, under penalty of losing their membership, to present issues personally to the administration.

The most serious aspect of the situation is the fact that the leaders are undoubtedly hand-in-glove with the moving spirits of the General Federation of Labor, which is now universally recognized as a revolutionary organization, and which has for a long time been preparing for a general strike to "destroy capitalists."

The suppression of this organization has frequently been contemplated by the French government. Fortunately a considerable proportion of the postal employés have had their eyes opened to the revolutionary venture on which the militants propose to embark and have broken away.

There are enough loyal servants to form a nucleus to fight a general strike which is tonight considered a matter of hours.

MAY LOOSE WHIRLWIND.

The government which claims to be prepared for any eventuality, it is conceded, must act vigorously or abdicate. The leaders of the movement have no option but to declare a strike the minute the government makes a hostile turn. The entire country is tremendously excited by the violent agitation

FIND MISSING MAN FROZEN.

Body of Miner Discovered Standing Up Beside Snow Bank; Lost Four Months.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Frozen solid and standing up beside a snow bank, the body of Charles Hall, a miner of Cable Cove, Ore., was found yesterday by J. W. Bell. Hall had been missing since the first of the year and repeated searches had been made for him.

Hall had been working in a tunnel of his mine and had evidently injured himself. He had bandaged his leg, but gave up the attempt to reach his cabin and leaned against the snow bank, freezing to death. Falling snow had covered the body, which explains why it had not been found before.

WOULDN'T COOK FOR ANY MAN.

CONSEQUENTLY HER HUSBAND IS ASKING DIVORCE.

Mrs. Ollie Boyd of St. Louis Replies to Suit That She Did Not Marry to Work in Kitchen—Fine Gas Range Proves Useless Investment.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Ollie Boyd, of No. 516 North Garrison avenue, is the author of a new declaration of independence.

It contains just seven words: "I would not cook for any man." That is her terse verbal answer to the written divorce petition of her husband, William C. Boyd.

Boyd, in effect, says in his petition that in the game of kitchen tag at his house he was always "it." He grew tired of paying for his goose and cooking it, too.

When he and his wife were married he had a fine gas range installed, but she would not use it.

In his petition, Boyd sets forth that Mrs. Boyd was stove shy and that she took no interest in her housework. "One reason why she did not have time for her household duties was that she was too busy as a member of ladies' aid societies, missions and sewing circles," said Boyd.

"That's all I care to say in addition to what is set forth in my petition for a divorce."

"The only society I belong to is the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Christian Church," said Mrs. Boyd. "I am president of that, but it doesn't keep me from cooking. That isn't the reason at all."

Tapping the floor with her neatly shod foot, she added: "I wouldn't cook for any man."

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The difficulties regarding the formation of the last Cabinet and the temporary suspension of the public hangings are due to the following fact:

The Sultan on Tuesday sent for the Grand Vizier Tewfik Pasha and Generalissimo Schefket Pasha and declared to them:

"I am willing to faithfully respect the constitution, but I also desire that my rights and prerogatives be respected.

"My surprise was very great on hearing that no amnesty had been accorded on the occasion of my accession, contrary to all preceding usages, and, that instead fetes had been held and the population had contemplated the spectacle of hanging corpses of those executed without my knowledge, and whose sentences had not been submitted to me for my sanction, forgetful of the fact that I possess the right of pardon.

MINISTERIAL CRISIS.

STOLYPIN'S CABINET UNITES AGAINST CZAR.

Premier Has Long Conference With Emperor in Effort to Force Him to Drop Courtiers and Reactionaries. Hint of Retirement of the Ministry.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

ST. PETERSBURG, May 6.—The outcome of the Russian ministerial crisis is now entirely dependent upon the Emperor, as Premier Stolypin's exhaustive report, based on the Cabinet meeting of May 4, and submitted to the Emperor today, left no doubt in the latter's mind that the Cabinet was a unit in favor of sanctioning the naval bill.

The Premier had a long audience with the Emperor at Tsarskoe-Selo, and while the primary demand was for the Emperor's approval of the bill creating a general staff for the navy, the underlying object was to force the Emperor to disassociate himself from the hostile campaign of the reactionaries and the courtiers close to him.

The necessity of the retirement of the Cabinet, in case of an adverse decision, was delicately [illegible] Emperor announced that he would consider the matter.

A member of the Cabinet said tonight that the resignations of the ministers had not been tendered.

The issue has nothing to do with a bigger navy; it is a mere matter of educational technicality—whether Parliament, which admittedly possesses the right to vote appropriations for the army, should have the power to attach a clause declaring that a naval staff had been established.

Baron Demeyendorf expresses the opinion that M. Stolypin's most dangerous enemies are high officials who have been mixed in scandals, the Moscow and St. Petersburg police and the commissary department of the army, into which an investigation was begun recently at the Premier's orders.

An examination into the accounts of the late war has uncovered robberies which the high clique is [illegible]

JAIL FOR EVELYN THAW.

Sheriff Is Ordered to Arrest and Confine Her Until Milliner's Bill Is Paid.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, May 6.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw may herself soon have to go to jail.

An order directing the Sheriff to arrest her for contempt of court, in failing to pay a fine of $250 imposed last week, was signed in the city court late today, following an announcement that the appellate division had refused to stay the proceedings. The order will be indorsed as soon as the Sheriff's office opens tomorrow, and a detective will be sent to escort Mrs. Thaw to the Ludlow-street jail.

The order directs that she shall be kept in close confinement until the settlement of her account.

The fine was imposed upon Mrs. Thaw for her failure to appear in supplementary proceedings on a judgment of $253 obtained against her by Elsie Hartwig, a milliner.

DE BROGLIE'S WIFE SATISFIED WITH SIXTY DOLLARS.

Twice Married to Wealthy Husbands American Girl Shows Her Independence by Scorning Assistance and Falls Back on Her Talents as a Singer.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PARIS, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Though she is accustomed to wealth and luxury, Princess Robert de Broglie expresses satisfaction over an allowance of $60 a month alimony, granted her when she received a decree of divorce yesterday.

The Prince's family will pay the alimony, and the Princess is said to have spurned an offer of a larger amount.

The Princess was Estelle Alexander, a singer of California and Chicago, and she had just divorced her first husband, Sidney V. Veit, a wealthy New York importer, when she met Prince Robert, in 1906, and just after the Prince himself had been divorced from his first wife, the former Baroness Des Landes. That marriage had shocked all Europe, for the Baroness herself had just been divorced when she eloped with Prince Robert to Rome. The Broglies, staunch Catholics for centuries, started out in hot pursuit, but Prince Robert and the Baroness outwitted them and were married within sight of the Vatican.

They lived together a few months, when quarrels came, and then another divorce, and the Broglie family forgave the son, settled an allowance on the woman and took Robert back to the family castle.

But he stayed there only until he met Miss Alexander. He followed her to Chicago and married her there.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] From 82 degs. at 7 o'clock Wednesday night the mercury descended in Chicago today to 65 at 5 o'clock p.m., and continued to drop after that until at midnight it stood at 52. The result of the relief from the heat wave was a diminution in the number of prostrations and only one of a severe nature was reported.

Several freakish demonstrations occurred, one being the expansion of the steel rails on the Logan Square and Humboldt Park branch of the Metropolitan "L" at Robey street, which caused a cessation of traffic for nearly half an hour after 2 o'clock. Lightning flashes also were frequent in the morning and in one instance an occupied house was partly destroyed.

Henry Hanson, 30 years old, was the victim of the heat prostration. He fell from a wagon when overcome and suffered severe lacerations of the scalp.

The house struck by lightning was that occupied by W. H. Lieber, Winnetka.

THE WHITLA CASE.

MRS. BOYLE MOBBED

Husband Convicted of Kidnaping.

Crowd Follows the Accused Woman from Courthouse to Mercer Jail.

Kept from Doing Her Harm by Deputies, Ministers and Merchants.

"Get the Rope," Is Cry from Followers and Prisoner Retorts.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MERCER (Pa.) May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Helen Boyle, alleged kidnaper of Willie Whitla, was attacked on the streets of Mercer this evening by a mob of nearly a thousand women while she was en route from the Courthouse to the jail. By the combined efforts of several ministers and scores of business men assisting Sheriff William Chess and his deputies, the mob was kept from doing the woman bodily harm. As it was, she was jostled, but defiant and wanted to mix with the crowd, which many were armed with clubs and stones. The woman was being brought from the Courthouse with her husband, James H. Boyle, who had earlier in the afternoon, been convicted of kidnaping by a jury that had been out a few minutes.

Mrs. Boyle was immediately placed on trial, and it was after the court had closed for the day that the demonstration outside the Courthouse occurred. Mrs. Boyle had been brought to the jail about 2:30 p.m., and news scattered over the town that she was in the Courthouse, and a mob began to gather.

By the time Deputy Sheriff William Stuart slipped a steel handcuff on the woman's right hand, and, allowing her to conceal her hand in the left pocket of his coat, came out of the Courthouse, the mob had reached about 1000, and more than half of it was composed of women.

"There's the dirty hussy. They won't need a jury if they'll let me at her," shouted a big woman, trying to get to Mrs. Boyle.

"Hussy, yourself; go home and wash your dirty face," snorted Mrs. Boyle, slipping her hand out of Stuart's pocket and starting for the angry Amazon, handcuffed though she was. Then the mob's rage burst all bounds. The women screamed and jostled the deputy and Mrs. Boyle off the sidewalk, many trying to hit her with broom and sticks.

CALL FOR ROPE.

"Let us hang her—get the rope—get the rope," screamed some of the mob, while some one threw an egg, which broke on a tree box near the woman.

The Rev. J. S. Duncan, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, did his best to pacify the angry women.

Badly flushed and angry, Mrs. Boyle was finally brought to the jail door. Turning, she said, loud enough to be heard by any who had been worrying her:

"If they would let me, I'd make you all climb trees in two minutes."

Boyle was convicted today after a trial lasting a few hours.

No defense was made, and the jury was out only a few minutes.

Mrs. Boyle was placed immediately on trial, charged with having aided in the kidnaping.

Hardly had the jury been sworn in the woman's case, when the lawyers became engaged in an argument regarding the admission of certain testimony and the case was adjourned until tomorrow.

Mrs. Boyle took a prominent part in the selection of her jury, prompting her attorneys in numerous cases and showing a preference for young, unmarried jurors.

The penalty awaiting Boyle is from one year to a life sentence in the penitentiary.

"BILLY" AS WITNESS.

"Billy" Whitla, who was on the witness stand today pointed his finger at the defendant as the latter sat in the prisoner's box and said with a positiveness that could not be doubted:

"That is the man."

Hundreds crowded the frail building serving as temporary courthouse when court convened and the doors were ordered locked to prevent a possible disaster from overcrowding. Boyle entered a formal plea of not guilty, the jury was sworn and the opening address to the jury was made by T. C. Cockran, in charge of the prosecution.

"Billy" Whitla was the first witness and before being sworn caused a ripple of laughter when he answered the question as to where boys go who do not tell the truth by saying, "They go to hell." In his boyish way he told the story of the kidnaping.

Numerous witnesses at the morning session testified to having seen Boyle and the kidnaped boy in each other's company. Mr. Whitla, the father, told of the abduction, and the three letters he received demanding a ransom. He told of his compliance with all the conditions imposed.

Shooting Affray of Harold Sanborne and Gang of Rubber Thieves Leaves Perturbed Condition—The Trouble Started Over Gambling Game—Seven Dead, Two Wounded.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

(VERA CRUZ (Mex.) May 6.—Reports reaching here say that all passenger trains passing the station at Sanborne, on the Vera Cruz and Pacific ers are running through that town with windows and blinds closed and with Doors locked, as the result of the shoot- g affray at Sanborne between a gang rubber thieves and Harold Sanborne, an American, formerly of Chi- cago, and a son of the owner of the Sanborne ranch.

Seven men were killed. Reports are that Sanborne is now in the hospital Roncon Antonio, under arrest. It is understood his condition is serious.

Accounts of the fight recite that the rubber thieves had sold their rubber to the owner of the Sanborne ranch and spent their time in gambling away their money.

Harold Sanborne was sitting in the game. A dispute arose and one of the thieves sprang to his feet and opened fire with a magazine rifle. Sanborne made his way home and returned with a shotgun. The rifleman had killed five of them, all of whom were brothers, and wounded a woman, their sister.

The rifleman and his companion opened fire when the American approached. Sanborne, replying, killed one of the two. The rifleman wounded Sanborne, gathered all rifles and ammunition he could find, took the best horses and rode off.

YOUNGSTOWN (O.) May 6.—A bullet which lodged in the head of Miss Elisabeth Farragher fourteen years ago, has been found in one of her feet. The bullet has never caused her the least pain in its travels. She discovered the projectile near the surface of the skin by accident. An operation will be performed on the foot and the bullet removed. The bullet lodged in Miss Farragher's head when a man accidentally discharged a revolver at a Fourth of July celebration in 1895. Physicians were unable to locate the bullet at the time of the accident.

BARBER QUITS AS PRESIDENT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, May 6.—O. C. Barber has relinquished the presidency of the Diamond Match Company, and has been succeeded in that office by Edward R. Stettinius, formerly vice-president. Mr. Barber was made chairman of the board of directors. The changes are in accordance with a programme agreed upon some time ago.

PREACHERS DISAGREE ON HATS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

ELGIN, (Ill.,) May 6.—Rev. Mr. Beal, rector of the Episcopal church, has asked the women of his congregation to wear hats during service, and if they remove the same to cover their heads with a veil. Rev. Mr. Purkiss, Baptist minister, demands that hats be removed.

WOMAN LEADS PLAGUE FIGHT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, May 6.—A woman is to be in charge of the real fight against the white plague which is to be waged by the Chicago Tuberculosis Institute. She is Miss Edna L. Foley, of Boston, and she has already taken up her preliminary duties. The institute has seven dispensaries in different parts of the city, and nine graduated nurses, who assist in treating the tuberculosis patients. Over these dispensaries and nurses, Miss Foley will have full charge, and responsibility for the treatment of the afflicted will rest with her. Miss Foley is a young woman, graduated from Smith college in 1901. When she left college she decided to become a nurse. She resigned a position in the Boston Consumptive hospital to come to Chicago.

COLD JOB FOR "SKINNY."

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, May 6.—Nine of Chicago's thinnest citizens, in search of a government job, have announced their desire to take examination for the vacancy at present existing in the department of agriculture. This department for months has been in search of a real thin mechanic assistant to aid the operation of refrigerating cars for the experimental pre-cooling of fruits. Because of the amount of machinery in the car and the limited space in which the assistant must work, a man of slender physique is necessary. In the announcements sent out for the examination the government carefully warned all stout men not to apply. Only thin men would be considered, said the announcement, and also they must engage to stay thin.

PROSECUTION.

ARMY OFFICERS SAY HAINS WAS RATIONAL.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

FLUSHING (L. I.) May 6.—The defense had rested its case and the prosecution was well along in examining witnesses in rebuttal when court adjourned today in the trial of Capt. Peter C. Hains, Jr., for the killing of William E. Annis.

The witnesses for the State were principally army officers who had been stationed at Fort Hamilton and Fort Hancock during June, July and August, 1903, and had met Capt. Hains at that time.

Their testimony tended to controvert that of the army witnesses for the defense in that they all said Capt. Hains spoke and acted rationally a short time before the shooting, while the defense contends that he was suffering from insanity.

They admitted, however, under cross-examination that Capt. Hains had acted in a nervous and excited manner and looked pale and worried.

At the opening of court today Dist.-Atty. DeWitt resumed his cross-examination of Dr. L. S. Manson, the alienist, who testified yesterday that Capt. Hains was suffering from maniac depressive insanity at the time of the killing of Annis. Dr. Manson was asked if any form of mental disease would be called insanity. The physician thought it would. Asked if a man suffering from maniac depressive insanity would be able at all to plan and carry out his acts, Dr. Manson said he would during periods of quiescence.

"When Capt. Hains stood on the yacht club float at Bayside with folded arms, looking out over the water and then grabbed the boom of Annis's boat and shot Annis to death, what kind of insanity was he suffering from?" asked Mr. DeWitt.

"With impulsive insanity," was the reply.

"Were the defendant's mental functions in operation up to the time of the shooting?"

"Yes."

The fact that the defendant went through Annapolis and Johns Hopkins University was certainly not a symptom of insanity, the witness admitted.

RESTAURANT SHORT-LIVED.

Splendid San Francisco Cafe Closed in Less Than Month After Opening.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Thompson Jaulus Café, which opened April 15, with great splendor, under the James Flood building, has come to grief and creditors are trying to see what they can save out of the wreckage. Thompson made money in a restaurant on O'Farrell street near Fillmore after the fire, and Jaulus is a musician who led a fine orchestra. But the place was too big, the expenses too heavy and competition too keen.

There are more restaurants open today downtown, than before the fire, and the result is that those which survive will have to figure very close.

The wine and liquor men among the creditors are wondering what has become of their wares. They say they sold goods to the amount of $27,000. Of these $21,000 worth were sold, but the receipts on this $21,000 of wholesale liquors were but $23,000, even at restaurant retail prices. More than that, there is little of the stuff left.

JAPANESE TALK PEACE.

Believe Visit of Squadron Here and Admiral Harber's Stay at Yokohama Augur Well.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TOKIO, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Five American warships, under Rear-Admiral Harber, arrived in Yokohama today for a stay of one month. The Kokumin Shimbun, commenting on this visit which is the first by an American squadron since the sixteen battleships were here, says that Japan appreciates the reception given to its training ships now on the Pacific Coast, and hopes that these two naval visits, in conjunction with the forthcoming trip of Japanese business men to the United States, will strengthen still further the American-Japanese friendship.

The Asahi says the Japanese men of war are acting as messengers of peace to California, and it heartily welcomes Rear-Admiral Harber's squadron to Japan. It believes Admiral Uriu, who left for America yesterday, will also be instrumental in furthering the friendship of the two nations.

Federal Court Restrains St. Louis Circuit Attorney from Prosecuting His Suit—Purpose to Relitigate Settled Questions Basis of Decision. Major's Proceedings Not Involved.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

KANSAS CITY, May 6.—Judge Smith McPherson in the Federal court here today continued in force the temporary injunction granted recently by Judge John F. Philips restraining Siebert Jones, circuit attorney of St. Louis, from prosecuting the suit filed by him in the Circuit Court of that city, seeking to restrain the railroads of Missouri from charging three-cent passenger rate.

No other State officers are included in the injunctive order which is to remain in force "until differently ordered by the court." The order contained the reservation, however, that supplemental orders might be issued against other persons, should subsequent events demand such action.

Judge McPherson said that he did not include Atty.-Gen. Major and the members of the State Railroad and Warehouse Commission in the injunction because they had stated under oath that they had not inspired or encouraged the St. Louis suit and did not intend to have anything to do with it in the future.

Judge McPherson based his decision today upon the belief that the purpose of the St. Louis suit was to relitigate the questions settled by him in his final decree upon the Morate cases, issued March 4, 1905. "That decree is the law until it is reversed," said he, "and it must stand until it is reversed by an appellate court. It must not be trampled upon, either."

Judge McPherson referred to the quo warranto suit filed in the State Supreme Court asking that the railroads be ousted from the State and said: "This court is entirely willing to allow the Supreme Court to dispose of that case."

G.A.R. MAN NEVER ENLISTED.

Prominent in Veteran Organization and Receiving Pension He Says Pride Caused Fraud.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, May 6.—One of the strangest cases of pension frauds on record was revealed in the Federal Court when James Cunningham, for years a prominent G.A.R. man, offered to plead guilty to the charge of wrongfully accepting money from the government as a Civil War veteran.

The odd feature is that Cunningham, who is well-to-do, sought a small pension out of pride and not because he wanted the money. Proud of his reputation as a Grand Army man, his theory was that, with a pension, he would obtain certain recognition as one who had fought for the union.

According to statements by the attorneys, Cunningham was 17 years old when the Civil War started. He was unable to enlist, but was so eager to get into the fighting that he followed the One Hundred and Sixth New York Volunteers to the front. While not regularly enrolled, he actually fought with the regiment, and also saw some service as a follower of other commands.

Returning home at the end of the war, young Cunningham told of his experiences in battle. In time, he became a Grand Army man, and year after year on Memorial Day, marched with the veterans in Brooklyn. Several years ago he was elected commander of Devin Post, G.A.R.

PRESIDENT'S COAST PLANS.

Will Not Go Into Interior of Alaska But Wants to Visit Every Seaport.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SEATTLE, May 6.—Unless President Taft's plans are changed, his trip to Alaska will not take him into the interior. As now contemplated, the President's tour will be arranged to enable him to visit all the towns in Southwestern Alaska, including Sitka, and then the Executive will go by special boat to Valdez.

Probably the President will visit Cordova also, for Cordova is the tidewater terminus of the Morgan-Guggenheim road building in the Copper River country, with the intention of ultimately reaching Fairbanks and other Yukon River points.

President Taft may return to Seattle after his visit to Alaska and make the trip to California by rail. The latter question is not yet determined though the general statement is made that the President desires to visit every Pacific Coast city between Seattle and Los Angeles. If he adheres to this plan he will come here after visiting Alaska. An alternative plan of going by steamboat direct to San Francisco is under consideration. Whether or not the President will make the Alaskan trip on a steamship owned by one of the corporations operating in the north, or will be taken on one of the government boats, is not yet announced.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, May 6.—John D. Rockefeller has a rainbow lake. This is one of the unusual features of his new mansion on the hill.

The lake is situated on the west side of his stone castle and it is paved with colored stones, and the fountain which plays from the center of it throws out a mist which shows rainbows at every point of view.

This is one of the unique features planned by Mr. Rockefeller, and he expects to take much pleasure in viewing the thousands of rainbows which will be visible every day.

SMUGGLING OPIUM.

PLOT DISCOVERED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Details of a plot to outwit the Federal officials at this port and to evade the new statutes, which forbids the importation of opium into this country, have come to the knowledge of the local surveyor. As a result more elaborate precautions have been taken against smuggling than have been used here in years.

Under the cover of the general impression that there would be no attempts made to smuggle opium into this country as long as the present plentiful supply of the drug held out, a well-organized and generously financed ring, according to the customs officials, was formed with agents in San Francisco and the Orient to convert an illicit trade in the contraband.

It is generally admitted, however, that the headquarters of the ring is in Japan, with agents throughout the United States.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SALT LAKE CITY, May 6.—Weary and footsore from an 800-mile journey on foot, Daniel Eisenhowser, a veteran of the Civil War and a resident of Portland, Or., walked into the Police station here last night, and asked for food and shelter.

Eisenhowser, 72 years of age, started on his long journey overland for the Lake, February 23, and has made the trip in a little over two months. With the exception of about 100 miles, he said, he walked the distance.

"I wanted to attend the G.A.R. encampment in Salt Lake this summer," said the old soldier, "but as I could not afford to pay my way, I started to do the journey on foot."

He will be a guest of the city prison here until his monthly pension arrives from Washington.

CALHOUN TRIAL IS PROGRESSING.

Nine Witnesses Examined for the Prosecution.

Testimony Relates to Money Alleged Paid Ruef.

Former Supervisor Rea Goes on Stand at Last.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Good progress was made today in the trial of Patrick Calhoun. Nine witnesses for the prosecution were examined before court adjourned for the day. The testimony offered related to the money alleged to have been paid to Ruef by Tirey L. Ford, general counsel for the railroad company, acting as the agent of Mr. Calhoun.

From the testimony of William M. Abbott, general attorney for the company, who went with Ford to the mint and helped carry $50,000 in currency drawn by telegraphic order of Calhoun, to Ford's office and then to that of L. A. Rea, former Supervisor and a member of the board alleged to have received the money for its votes, the prosecution worked its way step by step.

Rea, one of the four members of the board who have not been accused of selling votes and over whom no indictment or immunity contract is held, told of having received $3500, from Ruef's sister, Mrs. Sittenfeld, in connection with a business deal entirely outside the graft cases. This payment was made June 2, 1906, and, according to the statement of Heney, the people expect to prove that the $35,000 given Rea were part of the $50,000 drawn from the mint by Ford.

Toward the close of the day, three employés of Ford's office were called to the stand and related what they knew of a visit made to Ford's office by Ruef, in 1907, it being the claim of the prosecution that it was on this occasion that money was paid to him. None of the men could fix the date of the visit within several months nor say whether or not Ruef had seen Ford on that occasion.

From the first question asked when cross-examination of Abbott was resumed this morning, the prosecution tried to get before the jury testimony tending to show that the defendant was not in a measure to surround himself by safeguards and protection even when any charges were brought against him.

CALHOUN EARLY GOT COUNSEL.

Asst. Dist.-Atty. John O'Gara elicited from Abbott a statement that he was the personal attorney of the syndicate, associated with A. A. Moore, Calvin Stanley Moore, Garrett McEnerney, Tirey L. Ford, Judge John Hunt and others, at the time of the appointment of the Oliver grand jury, which began the bribery-graft investigations.

Abbott was followed on the stand by United States Senator George B. Keane, who was clerk of the Board of Supervisors at the time of the alleged bribery. He testified to the introduction of the trolley ordinance at the board meeting, May 14, 1906, the date of its passage. The testimony corresponded in the main to that given on previous days.

Keane was followed by Charles J. Laporty, Ruef's office boy. From Assistant O'Gara's questions drew out the fact, already told in previous trials of the visit to Ruef's office, immediately after the arrest of Tirey L. Ford and Thornwell Mullally of the United Railroads, and a conference in the bathroom of the latter's office suite. Haggerty would not know what occurred during the conference and did not see the visitors go out.

Questioned as to seeing Ruef come out of the Pine-street office with a shirt box under his arm on a day in May, 1907, which, according to the theory of the prosecution, contained some of the alleged bribery money, Haggerty said that he had frequently seen Ruef come out with some such box; he could not recall this particular occasion. He said Ruef's memory might be refreshed, and that he was temporarily excused, to be recalled later.

Charles C. Sharp, manager of the San Francisco National Safe Deposit vaults, testified to Ruef renting boxes there in April and May, 1906.

SMUGGLING OPIUM.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Details of a plot to outwit the Federal officials at this port and to evade the new statutes which forbids the importation of opium into this country, have come to the knowledge of the local surveyor. As a result more elaborate precautions will be taken against smuggling than have been used here in years. Under the cover of the general impression that there would be no attempt made to smuggle opium into the country as long as the present large supply of the drug held out, a well-organized and generously financed ring, according to the customs officials, was formed with agents in San Francisco and the Orient to carry on an illicit trade in the contraband.

It is generally admitted, however, that the headquarters of the ring is in Japan with agents throughout the United States.

BAPTISTRY RUINS WEIR.

Evangelist Destroys Work of Engineer to Immerse Converts.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA (Wash.) May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Evangelist McInturff ruined a specially constructed device for measuring the flow of artesian wells at North Yakima, in Moxee Valley, by removing the weir and using it for a baptistry.

Rev. McInturff had several converts whom he wished to baptize. There is no baptistry in his church and water in the Yakima and Naches rivers is too cold. The warm water from the Moxee wells is just the right temperature and the box the engineer had provided was just the right size for baptising.

The evangelist performed the ceremony all right, but he did not replace the weir and when the engineer went for his data he found he would have to do his work all over again.

CRIME OF IMPULSE.

BOY GRABBED FROM MOTHER.

Seized by Friends Who Were Attached to Him.

Hustled on Train Departing from Helena.

Taken Into Custody Again at Missoula.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HELENA (Mont.) May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One of the most dramatic events in the history of Helena occurred today when, by sheer force of strength, a 6-year-old boy was wrested from his mother and taken aboard a passenger train.

When Mrs. Charles Peabody, wife of a prominent Marysville merchant, gave birth to a son six years ago, her enfeebled condition compelled her to leave it with a neighbor, Mrs. James Lee, for several months. This temporary visit caused marked affection to spring up, not only with Mrs. Lee, but the entire family, and since that time it has continued to grow.

Last week Lee was ordered from Marysville to another position by his employer, and Mrs. Peabody was induced to bring the child to Helena to say farewell. This was done at the Union Depot this afternoon, and the mother and another woman started for a street car, both holding the child by the hand.

Without warning the Lee family rushed upon them, seized the child and boarded the train. The mother capitulated and before the bewildered spectators realized what had happened the train pulled out with the child in possession of the Lee family. The frantic mother hurried up town, swore out warrants and the head of the Lee family and the Peabody child were taken into custody at Missoula.

PEABODY'S DEFENSE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

MISSOULA (Mont.) May 6.—Six-year-old Charles Peabody was not kidnaped, but was brought to Missoula with the full consent of the boy's parents, according to a statement by James Lee, who, with his wife and the child, were placed under nominal arrest here today, under advices from Helena.

Mr. Lee declares that the boy was to have accompanied him and Mrs. Lee to St. Regis, pursuant to an agreement between the latter and Mr. and Mrs. Peabody of Marysville, the child's parents.

It was arranged before leaving Helena, Lee says, that Mrs. Peabody was to visit the Lees at St. Regis during the summer months, and that on her departure the boy was to accompany her.

"This morning," said Lee, "Mrs. Peabody became so excited at parting from the boy, and to prevent a scene I gathered him in my arms and went inside the car. Our arrest here was the first intimation I had that we were suspected of kidnaping the boy."

The Sheriff's office here communicated by telephone tonight with Mr. Peabody at Marysville, who was greatly surprised at what had taken place, and promised to stop further action on the part of the Helena officers.

The Sheriff of Lewis and Clark county arrived here tonight, but pending further advices from Helena, the matter is in abeyance.

DINNER TO JAPANESE.

San Francisco's Official Banquet to Naval Visitors Is Given at Fairmont.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Brilliant was the official dinner given tonight at the Fairmont Hotel by the Citizens' Reception Committee, representing the commercial and civic bodies, in honor of Rear-Admiral Ijichi and the commissioned officers of the Japanese training cruisers Aso and Soya.

Upward of 400 persons were present, including Rear-Admiral Ijichi, Rear-Admiral Swinburne of the Pacific fleet, Col. W. A. Simpson, Adjutant-General of the Department of California; Col. John A. Lundeen, commandant of the Presidio; Gov. Gillett, Mayor Taylor, Japanese Consul-General Nagai, members of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors, and representative business and professional men from among both the American and Japanese residents of the city.

Thirty-five of Rear-Admiral Ijichi's officers, including the captains of the two visiting vessels, and the members of the admiral's staff, attended the dinner, while from the four United States cruisers now at anchor in the bay came almost an equal number of Uncle Sam's embryo admirals. The army was represented by five officers in addition to Cols. Simpson and Lundeen.

BIG ROBBERY PLANNED.

Tunnels Started to Reach Bank Vaults, Jewelry Store and Loan Office.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—By the vigilance of Special Officer Herringer, a well-devised plan to rob the Swiss-American Bank on Fillmore street, the Golden West Loan Office, and the Fane Jewelry Company, occupying an adjoining building, by effecting entrance through a tunnel, has been frustrated.

More than half a million dollars might have been taken, but for the timely discovery of the plot.

Noticing that the door of a vacant store on O'Farrell street, around the corner from the bank, was open, Herringer entered, finding a hole in the floor and a pile of sand in the room. It was found that the hole was the entrance to a tunnel, which passed under an alley and led to within eight feet of the bank vaults. Two branch tunnels had been started, one toward the loan office, the other in the direction of the jewelry store.

A grocer's scoop and a bricklayer's trowel, lying at the mouth of the tunnel, showed how the work had been done. An empty valise near by evidently had been used in carrying away the sand from the excavation. Apparently the would-be crackmen had but recently abandoned the tunnel when it was discovered. There is no clew to their identity.

TREASURE.

FIFTY MILLIONS NEW COIN GOES TO DENVER.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Owing to the overcrowded condition of the vaults of the United States Mint here, and for the further reason that this is a seaport and therefore a more exposed place at which to store the government's wealth than an interior town, the government has just completed the transfer of $50,000,000 in newly-minted gold and silver to the vaults of the Denver mint.

...and guarded by messengers sworn in as deputy United States marshals.

The transfer was made in several shipments which went east during the last month.

The last previous shipment of coin to Denver was made in August, 1908, and reached the enormous total of $210,000,000.

Many millions still remain in the vaults of the San Francisco mint, but will not be moved, as a large sum is...

COLLEGE DEGREES FOR SALE.

Investigation Shows Many Are Bought Without Study.

Diplomas Issued by Correspondence Schools.

Some Colleges Have Only Nominal Existence.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Investigation by the Chicago Record-Herald has developed the fact that many college degrees are sold by correspondence schools and by colleges which have only a nominal existence.

Many of the degrees are sold to persons who have not even studied the subjects in which they receive degrees, and in some cases the degrees are sold to persons who have not even passed the preliminary examinations.

The Record-Herald has found that the degrees are sold by correspondence schools and by colleges which have only a nominal existence.

Many of the degrees are sold to persons who have not even studied the subjects in which they receive degrees, and in some cases the degrees are sold to persons who have not even passed the preliminary examinations.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Holding Old Prunes.

SAN JOSE, May 6.—The prune growers of this valley who still have their 1908 prunes on hand, after meeting this week, today determined to hold the fruit at a 3-cent base up to July 1. The opinion prevailed that after that date prices would materially advance.

No Foreigner Saloonists.

REDDING, May 6.—Only American citizens, native-born or naturalized, may conduct saloons in Shasta county. This ruling was adopted today by the Board of Supervisors. An application for a liquor license, made by a Keswick firm of Italians, was rejected solely on the ground that the members of the firm were not citizens. One of them has conducted a saloon in Keswick for five years.

Requisitions Issued.

SACRAMENTO, May 6.—Requisitions were issued from the Governor's office today for the return to this State of D. L. Miller, now under arrest in Unionville, Mo., and wanted in Fresno for alleged forgery, and H. S. Robinson, held in New York and demanded in Santa Clara for selling Marconi Telegraph stock he did not own, for $575.

May Fete at San Jose.

SAN JOSE, May 6.—Elaborate preparations are being made for the annual May fete of the State Normal School, which will be held May 21, and the coming celebration promises to eclipse anything of the kind ever attempted before in the State. A special chorus of 600 young ladies will be one of the features.

Sawmill Burns.

VANCOUVER (B. C.) May 6.—Fire early this morning wiped out the larger buildings of the sawmill of the North Pacific Lumber Company at Barnet, twelve miles up Burrard inlet from Vancouver, causing a loss of $350,000. Fire engines were sent from the city on Canadian Pacific cars, but they could render little assistance except to save dry kilns and a large stock of lumber. The mill was owned by the McLarens, millionaire lumbermen of Ottawa.

Gasoline Explosion Fatal.

SEATTLE, May 6.—Richard Nash, aged 40, one of the proprietors of the Ranier Valley Record, at Columbia, a suburb of Seattle, died last night from burns received in a gasoline explosion in the plant yesterday afternoon. Mrs. E. S. Gill, wife of the president of the company, and C. L. Pierce, a linotype operator, were badly burned while assisting the dying man and securing the company's books. The damage to the plant was slight.

CO-EDS OBJECT TO KILTIES.

Knee Length Skirts Designed for Senior Extravaganza Will Have to Be Lengthened.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

BERKELEY, May 6.—Although one of their own number wrote the senior extravaganza which will be produced by the graduating class of the University of California this month, the girls who will appear in the chorus have risen in rebellion against wearing the knee-length dresses planned for them.

When their ultimatum was carried to Stage Manager Elmer Breckenfeld, he said: "We are simply following the suggestions made by the writer, Miss Christina Krysto, who wrote the show, and she is one of our most popular co-eds. Surely her taste is judicious."

Then Prof. William Dallam Ames of the faculty Committee of Dramatics, was called to the aid of the distressed co-eds, and the result was a compromise whereby the girls are to wear dresses which will permit the bottom fringe of the skirts to appear twelve inches above the floor.

DISCARDS SHEEP'S CLOTHING.

Minister Called Wolf Turns Upon Clerk of Church With Suit for $26,000.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Angered at being called a wolf in sheep's clothing, Rev. J. G. Slick, pastor of the Christian Church at Tekoa, Wash., has brought suit against Ernest Hufmann, clerk of the church, for $26,000 damages. Defamation of character is the charge brought against Hufmann. Rev. Slick was chosen pastor of the Tekoa church in March, 1908, for one year. He alleges a letter written by Clerk Hufmann prevented him getting the position of shepherd of the flock at Starbuck Christian Church the following year.

The following letter is given in the complaint, and was addressed by Clerk Hufmann to A. O. Hammer of the Starbuck Christian Church:

"We understand that J. G. Slick is holding a meeting with the intention of becoming pastor of the Starbuck church. Have nothing to do with him, as he is a wolf in sheep's clothing."

Rev. Slick declares he will push the case to the limit, and will not allow his reputation to be torn to tatters.

NO ONE TO BLAME.

FIRE WIPED SLATE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Characterizing the earthquake and fire of 1906 as "unforseen" events, not blamable to either party, the District Court of Appeals, in a decision handed down today, holds that tenants paying their rent in advance, prior to the disaster, have no ground for action to recover that rental because the premises rented were destroyed.

The decision was rendered in reversing the case of Harvey & Daroux against Welshbaum Brothers, the trial court having ordered the defendants to return the sum paid as rent in advance just before the great fire by the plaintiffs. The Appellate Court held that the law had no right to aid a lessee who had not protected himself in the wording of his lease.

TEN UNIVERSITY ENGAGEMENTS.

Epidemic of Love Affairs at Berkeley Starts Discussion of Wisdom of Coeducation.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

BERKELEY, May 6.—Startled by the announcement during the past week of ten engagements among the students of the University of California, the faculty of the institution has decided to add a course in household economy to the curriculum of the coming summer session.

Several years ago there was an epidemic of engagements and secret marriages among the students of the university, and so serious was the matter considered that President Benjamin Ide Wheeler made a special address to the co-eds, advising them against encouraging marriage until the met. students had become wage earners. This talk put an end to the secret marriages, but the engagements have gone serenely on until the record of this week was made.

The announcements have revived the

SHE QUIT

But It Was a Hard Pull.

It is hard to believe that coffee will put a person in such a condition as it did an Ohio woman. She tells her own story.

"I did not believe coffee caused my trouble, and frequently said I liked it so well I would not, nor could not quit drinking it, even if it took my life, but I was a miserable sufferer from heart trouble and nervous prostration for four years.

"I was scarcely able to be around at all. Had no energy and did not care for anything. Was emaciated and had a constant pain around my heart until I thought I could not endure it. For months I never went to bed expecting to get up in the morning. I felt as though I was liable to die any time during the night.

"Frequently I had nervous chills and the least excitement would drive sleep away, and any little noise would upset me terribly. I was gradually getting worse until finally one time it came over me, and I asked myself what is the use of being sick all the time and buying medicine so that I could indulge myself in coffee?

"So I thought I would see if I could quit drinking coffee and got some Postum to help me quit. I made it strictly according to directions and I want to tell you that change was the greatest step in my life. It was easy to quit coffee because I had the Postum, which I like better than I like the old coffee.

"One by one the old troubles left, until now I am in splendid health, nerves steady, heart all right and the pain all gone. Never have any more nervous chills, don't take any medicine, can do all my housework and have done a great deal beside.

"My sister-in-law, who visited me this summer, had been an invalid for some time, much as I was. I got her to quit coffee and drink Postum. She gained five pounds in three weeks, and I never saw such a change in anyone's health."

MURPHY FOR IMPEACHMENT.

Missouri Congressman Makes Bitter Speech.

Philips and McPherson Both Profess Readiness.

Representative Rucker Backs Up Charges.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Formal charges of impeachment against Federal Judges Philips and McPherson will be filed by Representative Murphy of Missouri, who made announcement of that fact immediately after the House adjourned today.

Incensed over a telegram to Atty.-Gen. Wickersham by Frank Hagerman, attorney for eighteen railroads, in which Mr. Hagerman characterized Mr. Murphy's resolution of inquiry into the official conduct of the two judges as "an outrageous tissue of misrepresentation," Mr. Murphy, today, held the attention of the House with a repetition of the charges which he had made in his original resolution.

His colleague, Mr. Rucker, corroborated all that he said in denunciation of the action of the two judges in connection with Missouri's two-cent passenger rate law and the maximum freight law. Incidentally Mr. Rucker remarked that Judge Philips ought to have been impeached twenty years ago.

Mr. Murphy brought the matter up as a question of personal privilege. He had read some newspaper dispatches to the effect that Hagerman, had telegraphed the Attorney General.

Mr. Murphy had not proceeded far when Mr. Henry, of Texas, a member of the Judiciary Committee, stopped him with an inquiry as to whether he did not intend formally to bring in charges of impeachment.

The Missouri member, however, did not give a direct answer but continued with his recital of the charges contained in his resolution. He called on Mr. Rucker, his colleague, to substantiate what he was saying.

Mr. Murphy denied that the State of Missouri had been accorded every courtesy in the rate cases as was stated in Mr. Hagerman's telegram. The State, he declared, had no knowledge or notice whatever of the first injunction in those cases.

After adjournment, Mr. Murphy notified members of the Judiciary Committee that he would at once present formal charges of impeachment against the two judges.

JUDGES REFUSE REPLY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

KANSAS CITY, May 6.—"I have nothing to say at this time and will make no statement until Representative Murphy formally presents his charge of impeachment," said Judge Philips, when shown the Washington dispatch. Judge McPherson also declined to make a statement.

Later Judge Philips said:

"If impeachment proceedings are inaugurated, I shall answer those imputations against me in a legal manner. I shall welcome the investigation of a Congressional Committee, should impeachment charges be made."

COMMODITIES AMENDMENT.

INTRODUCED BY BAILEY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Close upon the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the "commodities clause" case, Senator Bailey today introduced a bill amending the interstate commerce act so as to apply the provisions for the commodities clause to "any corporation or joint stock company which owns or controls directly or indirectly," such subsidiary corporations.

In presenting the bill, Mr. Bailey said he had not read the opinion of the court in this case, but he had read enough to see that it "sustained the principles upon which the commodity clause was based," and the decision showed that the act did not cover all those cases that he knew the author intended it to cover.

Mr. Culberson saying he had the commodities clause decision and intended to have it printed as a document, Mr. Bailey withdrew his bill, so that before introducing it he might read the full opinion. Representative Wanger of Pennsylvania today presented a bill in the House making it illegal for a railroad company to transport a commodity for any corporation in which it holds stock or where it is a creditor.

to which it has been subjected for months, and fears are entertained that a whirlwind will be unchained.

There are even intimations that the moralists and other reactionaries are furnishing funds to stir up a revolution in the hope of imposing a new régime.

No level-headed observer, however, seriously thinks the republic is in danger.

Employés of the central postoffice voted in favor of a principle of a general strike at a meeting tonight at which the speakers were for the most part suspended, or dismissed, postal employés.

M. Simyan, under-secretary of posts and telegraph, made the following statement tonight:

"I declare in my own name and the name of the government that were the syndicate formed today a thousand times as powerful as it will ever be, we will never recognise its existence, never recognise its delegates nor enter into relation for discussions with its officers, members or persons connected with it."

He said the law was very clear and that the new syndicate did not comply with its conditions. The Attorney-General therefore, would obtain a decree before the Seine tribunal dissolving the syndicate. If it persisted in holding meetings, its officers would be prosecuted under the law of association, of 1901.

The Government's preparations for the strike were completed ten days ago, when thirty confidential messengers were dispatched with secret instructions to the prefect of every department in France.

HARRIMAN LINE FIRST.

Files Articles of Incorporation to Build Through Lolo Pass Into Montana.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HELENA (Mont.) May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Harriman line has scored at the expense of the Northern Pacific in the struggle for the control of the Lolo Pass into this State, at least so far as the filing of articles of incorporation are concerned. The Montana, Idaho and Pacific, with a capital of $16,000,000, was incorporated today by J. H. Richards and C. E. Chrisman of Boise, and James G. Wilson of Portland. J. L. Wines, the Montana attorney for the Oregon Short Line, is named as State agent.

The articles state it is the purpose of the company to construct a railroad from Lapwai Junction, a station on the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company, through the so-called Clear Water section of Idaho, through the Lolo Pass of the Bitter Root Mountains into Missoula and thence to Butte by way of Granite, Powell and Deer Lodge counties, where it will connect with the Montana terminus of the only Harriman line in Montana.

The road will have a total length of 350 miles, but because of the mountainous sections it will penetrate, will prove an expensive undertaking in many sections. It will open up a splendid agricultural, timber and mineral territory, however. Both the Northern Pacific and Harriman interests have, according to reports from Western Montana, outfitted surveying parties and they are now operating in this section of the State, seeking to secure the better route.

TURKEY.

ereign produced a great impression on the few persons who had knowledge of them, for they prove the Padishah does not desire to remain a man of straw. It is, nevertheless, probable that the sailors who assassinated their officers will be hanged on Saturday, but this time with the imperial sanction and without the public exhibition of their corpses during the entire day.

A small part of the personnel, some servants and the majority of the late Sultan's wives are still in their apartments at Yildiz Kiosk, and none will be allowed to leave the palace until a decision regarding them has been taken.

According to certain reports all the archives of the palace were destroyed on the night of Saturday and Sunday, but those in the telegraphic service were intact and in perfect order and filled three immense rooms. The archives are of the greatest interest, for, as was well known, Abdul Hamid transacted nearly all his business by telegraph.

BRITISH OFFICIALS FIND TOWNS CHARNEL HOUSES

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BEIRUT (Turkey) May 6.—The situation at Suadia, where a number of Armenians have been massacred, has been relieved as a result of the presence and exertions of the captain of the British battleship Triumph and the British consul at Alexandretta, who went down the coast on the Triumph.

The two officials visited Caladoran and Kessab and found these two towns indescribable charnel houses. There are more than one hundred helpless and destitute women in a village on the sea coast near Kessab.

MASSACRES PLOT OF EXTERMINATION.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

ADANA (Asiatic Turkey, Wednesday, April 28, via Constantinople,) May 6.—The Rev. Stephen R. Trowbridge, a missionary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, estimates the number of Armenians killed in the province of Adana since the outbreak of the anti-Christian rioting, at 23,000. The missionary said today:

"A conservative estimate of the Christians killed in the city of Adana is 3000. This calculation is made up from the list prepared by the priests and other officials who give permits for burials. Not less than 9000 perished in the towns and villages of the province. This figure is based upon the full information sent forward by the British consul.

"Surviving Armenians in the entire province are largely women and children. They amount to about 25,000 souls and are today without homes, shops, tools, clothing or bread. A most pitiable and wretched multitude is passing up and down the streets of Adana like a lost people. They throng the big factory yards, where a dole of flour is given out by the relief committee. Crowds of broken-hearted women and children are coming in from the country to even greater misery in the city."

Mr. Trowbridge has written a further account of the events at Adana, especially with reference to the attitude of the Turkish authorities. In this recital he says:

"We understand from consular telegrams that the sublime potentate assured the ambassadors at Constantinople that a slight outbreak had occurred at Adana with about fifty casualties and the burning of a few houses; and the porte declared further that the Americans were amply protected.

"We do not know the exact origin of the struggle. I say a struggle because this has not been a massacre in the sense that the Armenians died without resisting. They fought desperately in self defense and the fury of the Turks increased in proportion as the Armenians succeeded in slaying Mohammedans. For two days preceeding the outbreak, there had been a bitter feud between Moslems and Christians. In one vineyard shooting was begun and hatred was aroused on April 12. An Armenian who had been beaten, shot one of his opponents dead and wounded two others. This man escaped to Mersina and took passage on a vessel.

"The Turks in Adana then assumed a menacing attitude which greatly alarms the Armenians. The body of the Moslem killed in the vineyard, was purposely dragged to an open sqaure and left there exposed by the Turks as a fanatical challenge.

"A rumor spread among the Armenians on April 14, that massacre by the Turks already had been begun, and as a demonstration of self-defense, a volley of shots was fired from the roofs of Christian houses. This in turn was interpreted in the Moslem quarters as an attack and the word spread like wild fire that the Armenians were in revolt and must be crushed.

"Subsequent events have shown clearly that the Adana government acquiesced, if it did not actually participate in indiscriminate attacks made with fire and ride and sword upon the entire Armenian colony, including our Protestant congregation, which, as a body, has been loyal to the government. Two Christian prisoners, who escaped from government headquarters, declared horsemen came in at intervals from outlying towns and villages and reported to the military authorities as follows:

"'Hamidieh is finished,' or 'Osmyneh is finished,' meaning of course, that the Armenian populations of these villages had been put to the sword. The military officers received this information as a matter of course.

"The further occupation of Mohammedan minarets by regular soldiers began shortly after noon of April 14, at the very outset of the struggle. These soldiers kept up a cruel fusillade into all parts of the Christian quarter. They were shielded by the parapets of the minarets. There were no patrols of soldiers or police all day Wednesday, the 14th, none on Thursday, and none on Friday, at the real crisis, when a Moslem mob filled the streets from here to the river, surging against the walls of the girls' school. The government furnished us no protection whatever."

Continuing, Mr. Trowbridge related how he had reached the Governor of Adana by a dash across the city, carrying a Turkish flag and accompanied by two Turks.

"The Governor was running about in dismay," Mr. Trowbridge said, "and he could scarcely give a coherent answer to my questions and demands. I told him of the murder of Henry Maurer and D. M. Rogers, American missionaries. He turned pale at my statement, although he had already heard of the killings. His answer was:

"'I cannot be responsible.' To this I replied: 'You must be responsible; we have no other force to rely on except the government. You have completely abandoned us through this crisis.'

"The Governor was so alarmed and confused that I saw clearly that he had no mastery of the situation. Prisoners and soldiers, common Turks, were running in and out of the Governor's audience chamber. The Governor finally conferred with his commandant, who ordered 150 troops under Osman Bey to be dispatched to the American school."

On his way back to the mission house, Mr. Trowbridge observed that all the shops on the central square of Adana, both Christian and Moslem, had been looted. He related various examples of the revolutionists' indifference to the safety of the Armenians or participation in their killing. Armenians begging refuge at government headquarters were killed in the market place. Villagers who brought prisoners to the government headquarters were asked:

"Why did you not finish those giaours in the villages? Why have you brought them here?"

Fifty Armenians were thrown into the river above Adana. Throughout the fighting, railroad, postal and telegraphic communications were cut off.

It is Mr. Trowbridge's conviction that a plot existed to destroy the 50,000 Armenians in Adana province, and that of the total number 23,000 were slain.

The accident occurred at the close of the meet. The balcony was crowded with spectators, and the crowd was pressing against the rail in eagerness to see the finish, when a section of the railing in the center of the east balcony gave way, throwing the spectators head foremost to the floor, fifteen feet below.

BITTER FIGHT FOR TWO BOYS.

FATHER ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF CRUELTY.

San Bernardino Police Place no Credence in Accusation Against Redlands Man, However, Thinking Is Conspiracy to Separate Him from His Children.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SAN BERNARDINO, May 6.—J. I. Alexander of Redlands, whose twelve-year-old son, Bryan, was spirited aboard a Salt Lake train, ticketed for Morton, Tenn., was arrested today on a charge of cruelty to his two sons, preferred by Redlands people, who are alleged to be implicated in the conspiracy to separate him from his boys. He secured his liberty under bonds. The charge is given no credence by the authorities, who are interested in prosecuting those connected with the alleged kidnaping of the child.

After borrowing a revolver from a Victorville saloon man, two highwaymen last night stuck up a guest at the Victorville Hotel, relieving him of $35. The footpads boarded a Santa Fé freight, and were given battle by the train crew, who disarmed them at Hesperia. Two suspects are under arrest, both having registered at the Westminster Hotel here at 2:30 this morning. They registered as J. W. Baker and P. M. Conway of Chicago. The latter resembles closely a photograph sent out by the Salt Lake authorities of a prison escape.

MONTE ATTELL WINS.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Monte Attell was mighty lucky to get the decision over Jockey Bennett at the end of their six-round fight which was the main event of the Oakland Wheelmen's Club tonight. Possibly it was the fact that Attell is soon to fight the bantamweight champion of the world that influenced Referee Frank Schuler, and perhaps it was the fact that the San Francisco lad landed the cleaner punches. Whatever the course of reasoning by which the verdict was reached, Attell certainly had no more than a slight shade over his opponent. As for the crowd, it was in favor of Bennett, and figured him a winner.

It is also reported the independents have increased prices on light rails, but confirmation from Jones & Laughlin Co., Limited, the largest of the independents, cannot be had.

ARMY OFFICER IS ACCUSE

CAPT. FRANKLIN ORDERED BE FORE COURT-MARTIAL.

Accused of Maladministration While Treasurer at West Point—Most Important Trial Since Oberlin M. Carter Was Convicted Is Promised. Defendant Declares Innocence.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

EL PASO (Tex.) May 6.—A special dispatch from Washington to the El Paso Morning Times says:

Capt. Thomas A. Franklin, U.S.A., has been ordered to report to Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood at Governor's Isl and, N. Y., to face court-martial on charges growing out of his administration of affairs in the quartermaster's and commissary departments at West Point from 1902 to 1908.

The nature of the charges and specifications, it is said, will make this the most important army court-martial since Oberlin M. Carter was tried.

Capt. Franklin was treasurer of the United States Military Academy at West Point from 1902 to 1908, and during that period $2,000,000 in government funds passed through his hands.

He was known as the "army's best business man," and until recently was at work perfecting plans for the Army and Navy Club at Manila.

The exact amount which it is alleged Capt. Franklin is short is not known, but it is said it will run into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Franklin is 38 years old, and a native of Maryland. His wife is an El Paso woman, a daughter of J. A. Smith, postmaster at El Paso, and a Republican leader in Texas.

Mr. Smith received a letter today from Franklin, in which he says he will be able to prove his innocence.

CLERGYMAN SUICIDE.

CANON OF BOYS' SCHOOL.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GALESBURG (Ill.) May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rev. Arthur W. Behrens, aged 35, canon of the St. Albans boys school here, native of Indiana, and a British army officer's son, committed suicide early this morning. His wife was awakened about 4:30 a.m. by high words, and noticed he was not in the room, but did not hunt for him.

A few minutes later he staggered into their bedroom and said: "I have drunk carbolic acid. I want to go." He died at 5 this morning. Ill health is given out as cause of his suicide. Behrens and his wife brought the boys of the school to a theatrical performance here last night, and when returning he went to his apartments in the school building he seemed happy. It developed at the inquest that he had resigned his St. Albans school position because of ill-health, and was to meet Bishop Anderson in Chicago tomorrow to arrange to take up parish work.

Nothing was brought out at the inquest showing any trouble at the school, and the family doctor testified that for two years Rev. Behrens had suffered at times from intense depression.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Mexican Man Held to Answer to Superior Court at San Bernardino. Self-defense Plea.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

COLTON, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Philipe Garcia, accused of the murder of Nicacio Esparsa, was brought into Justice Hanna's court today for preliminary examination. He was now held to answer to the Superior Court of San Bernardino on the charge of murder in the first degree.

Garcia, along with several others, was arrested after a fight among the peasants of South Colton on the night of April 20, when Nicacio Esparsa received a gunshot wound, from which he died the next evening. Garcia admits having shot Esparsa, but claims he did it in self-defense. He says he received a severe knife wound which kept him in the County Hospital for several days. These wounds, Esparsa, the murdered man's friends claims he himself inflicted after Garcia had fired the fatal shot.

Great interest is being shown in the case of the trial, as Garcia has been a resident of Colton for several years and is well known among business men as a reliable worker.

CHARGE FALLS FLAT.

HUTTON SQUELCHES DISBARRED ATTORNEY.

THAT attempt of William J. Danford to break in behind the bar by branding Superior Judge Hutton off the bench has been foiled. The disbarred attorney is out and likely to stay out. Judge Hutton has had something to say and it leaves Danford reduced.

The representation of the erstwhile lawyer that George H. Hutton, judge of Department Four of the Superior Court, who disbarred Danford, is not a naturalized citizen of the United States falls before the showing made by the jurist.

When the motion is made before Judge Hervey a week from today to set aside the judgment relating to the disbarment of Danford, the affidavit of Judge Hutton will be submitted, together with an official copy of the naturalization certificate. Then there will be nothing for the complainant of many tricks to do but vanish.

An affidavit relating to the matter was made by Judge Hutton yesterday. He declares that he was on October 15, 1897, admitted to full citizenship. He further declares that he was at the time of his election as judge and ever since that time has been a duly qualified elector of this county.

To the official entry relating to his naturalization is affixed the seal of the clerk of the court at Shakopee, Minn., attested by William F. Witt, clerk. This document shows that before Francis Caldwell, judge of the District Court of the county of Scott, in the Eighth Judicial District, personally appeared George H. Hutton, an alien born, free, white male person, above the age of 21 years, and applied to be admitted to become a naturalized citizen of the United States. The official entry recites the further proceedings and concludes with an order that George H. Hutton be admitted to citizenship.

Sousa, an electrician and aëronaut of this place, wrenched the weapon with which he had just been shot tonight, from the hands of his assailant, Charles Lawrence, foreman of a lumber mill, and before officers could intervene, beat Lawrence until he was in nearly as bad condition as Sousa himself.

FIRE THREATENS TOWN.

Started by Incendiaries in Church the Blaze Spreads to Surrounding Dwellings.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NORFOLK (Neb.) May 6.—Fire started by an incendiary early today threatened to destroy the town of Plainview, near here, and it was necessary to call upon surrounding towns for aid.

A gale of wind carried burning brands over the entire town. Men and women fought the flames for nearly five hours and in the excitement many of the fire fighters fainted.

The Methodist church, the floor of which had been saturated with gasoline, the parsonage and a number of dwellings were burned. The town recently went "dry" and enemies of the prohibitionists are accused of having started the blaze.

ALL PARALYSIS NOT HOPELESS

This Man Had a Form That Was Curable and There Are Hundreds of Cases Like His.

There are still people who say that no form of partial paralysis can be cured.

If you have partial paralysis or some other severe nervous disorder, do you think it is better to be treated by someone who insists that you are incurable, or to take a treatment that grateful patients throughout the United States testify has cured them?

There are several forms of paralysis that are curable by the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and remarkable proof of the fact that the disease can be cured is found in the case of Mr. J. B. Stinson of No. 1740 Madison avenue, Kansas City, Mo. He thus describes what he considers a miraculous cure:

"In November, 1903, I was taken sick with severe pains through my chest and in the region of my heart. The pains became gradually worse. One morning, while working in the field, I was taken with worse pains than ever and before I could get back to the house, my legs seemed to be paralyzed and I could just hobble along and had to be helped up the steps. I was in bed for over two years and so helpless that I had to be turned over. I was completely paralyzed from just below my heart down. I had not a particle of feeling in this part of my body. I wasted away until I was just skin and bones. My appetite was good. My kidneys were affected and I had no control over them. During the time I was in bed, two years, I was a nervous wreck and perfectly helpless.

"I was living at Lees Summit, Mo., during my sickness and was treated by two doctors. Both said that my case was paralysis. Their medicine did not seem to help me and they said I could not live. A friend sent me a clipping from a paper giving a cure of a case similar to mine by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I began their use soon after. I took the pills for some time before I was satisfied that they were helping me. I then began to have some control of my kidneys and bowels. I was finally able to get around in a wheel-chair and continued to gain until I was able to walk with a cane. Like a child, I had to learn to walk again. I can walk now without any effort and no one would ever know what my condition had been. I feel as well as I ever did before the stroke, with one exception. I am not strong enough to do heavy work or lifting. I consider my cure a miracle as does everyone who knows of it."

There is absolutely no way in reaching the nerves with medicine except through the blood. The nerves receive all of their nourishment and support from the blood which, under healthful conditions, carries the elements needed to rebuild wasted nerve tissue. It is through the blood that all functional nerve troubles must be cured.

Those who are interested in the treatment which cured this case can obtain further information by writing for the booklet, "Nervous Disorders," which we send free on request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

LIFE'S SEAMY SIDE.

PRIEST'S LIFE TWICE SOUGHT.

Father Scrippo Calmly Defies Would-Be Assassins.

Says He Is Ready for Death When It Comes.

Declares Enemies Are With Saloon Element.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DANVILLE (Ill.) May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Declaring that he is not afraid of death, Father Scrippo, a Westville Catholic priest, whom would-be assassins have twice attempted to kill during the last week, calmly goes about his way. The attempts were made to shoot the priest through his study window. Almost miraculously he escaped death both times. Scrippo declares that he knows who his enemies are and that they are friends of the saloon element in Westville.

For several months trouble has been brewing between two factions of the Westville Catholic church and so violent have the different divisions become that it is probable that a second church will have to be erected. Scrippo is a Russian and is 30 years of age.

"I am ready to die and am all prepared to go. I am not afraid of death. I have a duty to perform and will be spared, I am confident," says the man.

Bishop O'Reilly of Peoria, this diocese, has been appealed to in the matter and probably will take action during the coming week. Citizens of Westville assert that the priest has ruled his church with an iron hand and has really been the cause of the disruption.

Anty Drudge Prescribes for a Cold.

Mrs. Neverlearn—"My head feels like a steamed pudding, my cold is worse, I'm sick all over and all this washing yet to do."

Anty Drudge—"Yes, I saw the doctor's buggy here last Monday evening and that's the reason I came this morning. Here is a cake of Fels-Naptha. Throw away that washboiler, let your fire go out, and do your washing the Fels-Naptha way. It will give your cold a chance to get well and you'll forget what the doctor looks like for a change."

"A cold in the Spring is a cold all Summer" says an old proverb. A fine way to catch cold in the Spring and keep it for months is to boil your clothes on washday and bend over steaming suds. The steam heats you up and opens the pores in your skin, and cooling off gives you a cold.

The way to avoid colds is to wash your clothes with Fels-Naptha soap in cold or lukewarm water. Saves you hard work, fuel and bother, and your clothes are cleaner, fresher and sweeter than when washed in the old-fashioned, wash-boiler way. A million women use Fels-Naptha every week. Washday has no terrors for them. Be sure to follow directions on the red and green wrapper.

Fels-Naptha has no equal for scrubbing and housecleaning. It whitens floors, takes dirt off woodwork without dulling the varnish and does lots of other things impossible with other soaps.

WHALE LANCED TO A FRAZZLE.

Chimmie Handed Harpoon Hard and Often.

Delmas Hits Two-Bagger as Far as First Base.

Shinn and Smith Show Fine Fielding Stunts.

Los Angeles, 7; Sacramento, 0.

Fresh from their season's one-day outing in the peaceful woods of Pasadena's Tournament Park, the locals returned to the Chutes grounds yesterday, and catching the whale asleep and spouting, harpooned him to a frazzle in one of the snappiest and most interesting battles of the season, and the 1200 or more fans who looked on got the worth of their money alone in seeing the Whale macerated.

Just why the bugs should glory in his defeat is hard to guess, for Chimmie is a good fellow, and a good heaver. There is no vicious exultation over his beating, however, and it is only a long-range kidding they hand him, but they do like to lassoo his goat and make it walk the clothes line, and when he trotted out yesterday to mix up the pills for the Senators, they razzed him from the first inning to the last, or until the end of the sixth, when the Whale staggered into the bay and ran up on the beach, as the Irishman says. Corkscrew Ehman took his place, but failed to do more than put the brakes on.

Of course, with Toser almost running his race, the Senators had no chance, while the Whale got along just perfectly lovely until the third inning, when he commenced to blow, and after Delmas made at two-bagger on a bunt that did not reach first base, Whalen seemed to lose heart. This two-bagger by Delmas was a scream, and certainly makes Del famous as the champion long-distance bunter of the league for all time.

Daley opened the third with a single to left field and Godwin sacrificed. Beall singled to center and Howard hit to right, scoring Daley and sending Beall to third. Smith bounced the ball to Gandil at first and he tried to catch Beall at the plate but failed. Howard ran to third on the attempt. Delmas then bunted toward first base. The ball bounced slowly along just inside the line for about half the distance to the bag and then bounced out on the foul line, and Umpire McGreevy yelled foul. The word had hardly died on his lips when the ball struck a little rock and bounded back inside the line on fair ground. Delmas had reached first by this time and seeing no one at second, ran leisurely to that bag. Gandil came from first base toward the ball and picked it up on fair ground on what was its last bounce, and seeing no baseman at second to take the ball, kept it in his hand. Several of the Senators rushed up to argue with McGreevy about allowing base runners to run on a ball that had been called a foul, but McGreevy could do nothing but allow the hit, for the ball was finally picked up on fair ground.

As Delmas is entitled to a hit, the only thing that can be given him is a two-bagger, for he reached second base, and there was no error made in handling the ball. Gandil cannot be given an error for holding the ball, for there was no one near second base to take the throw, both Raymer and Shinn having walked toward the pitcher's box to talk to the umpire about his "foul" decision. Neither of these can be given an error because the ball was not thrown to either of them, and if some one must be given an error, who should have it?

The next man at bat was Dillon and he also tried the bunting trick and made it work. He tapped the ball toward first base, and although Whalen ran over to the foul line and anxiously followed the ball along the ground within three inches of the line, it would not roll into foul ground, and Dillon got a hit on his nerve, that scored Smith. Delmas jogged to third on this, was caught napping a moment later, and then Dillon was run down between first and second. The inning produced four runs and five hits, and only three of the swats were hard enough to make a baby cry.

In the sixth, with two out, Toser walked, went to second on a wild pitch, and scored on Daley's Texas leaguer back of third base. When Godwin hit a fly to center Daley ran the bases and scored when Zamlock muffed the fly. The final run came from Smith's double to left and Jimmy Byrnes's low throw to third to keep Smith from stealing.

Only two of the Senators reached third base, Gandil in the seventh on a fielder's choice, a single, and a pass, and Shinn in the eighth on a hit-by-pitcher, steal and a wild pitch.

The score:

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Beall seems to have struck his batting form, for he hit three singles in four times at bat. In the last three games he has been to bat fourteen times, and has made nine hits for an average of .643. Cravath never did this much in three games.

After a week's absence, Jud Smith went back to third base yesterday and celebrated his return by hitting two doubles.

Ehman, who relieved the Whale in the seventh inning, is a big fellow, with a fast, straight ball, and he appears strong enough to be a good heavier some day. He may be that now, and should be a bear for long games.

Smith gave the fans a taste of his quality in the second inning that they should not forget for "many a day." With Gandil on second, Zamlock hit a bouncer that went high over Smith's head, but he jumped up for the ball, and half-turning in the air, stabbed the sphere with his right hand, and by a long reach, managed to touch Gandil just before he got to the bag.

When it comes to corkscrew movements, Ehman has it on any heaver ever seen here, and from the way he acted yesterday some of the fans were afraid he would unkink some of his joints every time he pitched a ball.

No one could have beaten Shinn in the way he played his place, and eight assists and one out show that he was very busy a large part of the time, many of his assists being hard ones behind second base.

The large crowd at the game seemed to indicate that the day's rest the fans had while the teams were playing at Pasadena on Wednesday, did some good. However, there will probably not be any more transferred games, for Pasadena does not seem to be ready for much ball and there will certainly be no more league games in Tournament Park until there are much better accommodations for all concerned. Tournament Park was not laid out with baseball in view, and there will be few, if any more, Coast League games there this season. The conditions are far from being ripe.

SOMETHING DOING.

FIGHT CARD PROMISES REAL SLUGGING BEE.

THE fight bugs have some "promising-looking" scraps in sight tonight in the weekly show at the Naud Junction pavilion, in which the main event of ten rounds will be between Memsic and Picato, who fought a draw here recently. The friends of both boys were so much at variance as to which one was the victor that Manager McCarey has carded them again to try and settle the points of superiority.

Both boys have been training long enough to get into shape and the loser should have no excuses to make on the score of not being in condition. Memsic is the stronger and Picato the more scientific, and for these reasons it is expected the fight will be a fairly even thing, with a knockout possible in any round. Each pug is anxious to go higher in his chosen profession, and the chance to do it is to win in a decisive manner tonight.

The preliminaries are really better than the ordinary kind, and Secretary Hancock seems to have been fortunate in getting together a lot of boys of about the same caliber. O'Connell and Cleveland, who fought a draw in their recent meeting, will try again to settle their differences in six rounds, and if they go as they did before, every minute in each round will be a busy one. Many of the bugs are anxious to see what the Jap Oyama will do against a boy like Herb White, for the Jap is very aggressive and never stops until he is stopped. Joe Reilly and Al Rogers will furnish the slugging end of the card.

The programme will consist of five bouts and is scheduled to start at 8 o'clock. The order of the fights will be as follows:

Mike Dalton and Kid Barnes, six rounds.

Herb White and Jap Oyama, six rounds, 130 pounds at 3 o'clock.

Curley O'Connell and Kid Cleveland, six rounds.

Joe Reilly and Al Rogers, six rounds.

George Memsic and Frank Picato, ten rounds, 133 pounds at 5 o'clock.

AUTO CLUB DOWN ON SPEEDSTERS.

SANTA BARBARA, May 6.—At a meeting of the Automobile Club of Santa Barbara, held last night, resolutions were adopted condemning the use of the roads for speeding purposes. The club will take vigorous steps to stop the practice of scorching in this county. The club has done all in its power to prosecute autoists arrested for speeding.

Stewart Edward White, the author, was made a member of a committee which will take action against the speedsters and will place the aims of the association before the public. The club members desire that their attitude shall be distinctly understood by automobile men throughout the State. Autoists who break the speed laws of Santa Barbara county cannot hope for protection from the Channel City Auto Club.

Several Los Angeles autoists who have been "stung" by the drastic speed laws which are being enforced so rigidly at Santa Barbara are planning to fight the ordinance when the case of Frank Siefert, driver of the Stoddard-Dayton roadster which smashed the record Sunday, comes up before Judge Risor. Until the case is heard and settled there will be no more re-

PORTLAND, May 6.—Portland won a twelve-inning game from San Francisco today. The game was ragged throughout and was marked by a succession of wrangles.

Graney virtually won his own game when his two-bagger in the fourth netted the locals two runs. Again in the twelfth Graney was equal to the occasion, when his grounder scored Breen, who opened up with a three-bagger. Score:

This was the third shut-out for Oakland this week. At no time during the game were the suburbanites in a position to score, clean fielding by Vernon keeping the bases cleared most of the time. Score:

WISE TALKS
BY THE "OFFICE BOY"

I pity Freddy Grabhall; his lot is very sad,
As nearly everybody knows, he has a wealthy dad;
While I am gladly toiling hard or must sadly sit at rest,
Or hunt around for things that seem to please his fancy best,
His father is a millionaire—no matter why nor how—
Poor Freddy never has a care, no wrinkles mar his brow.
I pity him, indeed I do! Think of the life he leads!
Condemned to never have to earn a single thing he needs!

I said to a friend one day, "Do you keep a second girl?"

"No," replied he, "My wife isn't strong enough to wait on more than one."

I often think money is the most efficient substitute for brains and that it's an awful good thing for a lot of young fellows that they have wealthy fathers—there is one consolation, however, some one has to distribute the congested wealth of the country. You'll be surprised when you visit our new clothing store at what wonderful suit values we give. Have you bought your straw hat yet? Straws show which way the wind blows. We don't want to do too much blowing about ours. They're ready, the styles are right and the values better than ever. Either store.

TO "LINER" ADVERTISERS:
Dating from June 1, classified advertising in The Times will be charged by the word at the present established rate of 1c per word in the daily issue and 1½c Sunday.
Close calculations, covering a period of several months, develop the fact that the average number of words to the line are a fraction over seven. This basis for charge, therefore, will prevail after June 1.
Cash want advertising has always been calculated by the word, and this regulation will not change the manner of handling it. The present "want" ad. rate has been in effect for many years, though the circulation of the paper, now more than 50,000 daily and 80,000 Sundays, has trebled during this period. RESIDENCE LOTS
WHERE YOU CAN SEE AND BE SEEN.
ONLY ONES IN THEIR CLASS.

Crestmont has been pleasantly referred to as the "Smiley Heights of Los Angeles." It ought to be called the "Smiling Heights," for it smiles down on a vista of city and sea impossible in equal beauty from any other residence place in Los Angeles. It is within the 5-cent limit, in the popular northwest, only one block from car line. Hollywood lies at its feet. The ocean, with Catalina Islands, presents a beautiful marine view. Yet Crestmont is only a short distance from Broadway and when the Hill st. tunnel, now nearing completion, is finished, it will be within 20 minutes from downtown. The improvements are above the average, befitting the beautiful situation and the cultivated character of the surroundings, curving streets, broad cement walks, handsome terraces, sloping lawns, ornamental corner pillars and electroliers, shady trees, glowing flowers and all the accessories, both natural and cultivated, that go to create a refined, dignified and exclusive neighborhood, including gas and electricity, are here, and grow more pleasing daily.

TOUR OF THE COUNTY CAPITALS.

BY HARRY C. CARR.

I.

Ana, the Gretna Green of the South.

SANTA ANA, May 5.—The 'eloping season has set in rather early this year. The adventurous June brides are starting in May.

Some one in New York wrote an opera called "The Honeymoon Trail," and the scene of it in California. But when you consider the map closely the "Honeymoon Trail" begins at Los Angeles, a city named for the Queen, and ends at Santa Ana, a city named for a saint.

Now, Mr. Huntington a man of romance would fix up his trolley line on the part. Rightly, he ought to have conductors in frock coats and veils, and all Santa Ana cars should start in a procession at exactly

Since this Gretna Green first began Santa Ana didn't like it much; but they have become reconciled.

Even the clerks in the Courthouse stop coming with that perfectly conscious air, one of them takes up the telephone and says, briefly: "Come on up." At which Judge Smith, whose office is in the basement upstairs, and it's all over.

The lovers on the Honeymoon Trail from Los Angeles are of four kinds.

There is the bride 15 years older than the groom and ashamed to have it published in the city papers.

Then the bridegroom of 17 finds it necessary to swear he is 21 in Santa Ana, while his fond mamma does not realize.

Then the elopers who contrive to save the bride by a runaway wedding—with father pursuing.

Then the tragic wedding, with a father looking murderously at the scared bridegroom throughout the ceremony.

This spring there are more than ever of all four kinds.

As the office of Justice of the Peace in Santa Ana is worth about $3 per elopement, Judge Smithwick will probably have to fight for his job next election.

Although it is nearly nineteen months until another election, Orange county politicians are already putting on war bonnets and feathers.

Under the new primary law, no one seems able to find out whether there is such a thing as a County Central Committee; but if there is, then one part of Santa Ana is "agin" it.

About the time that Robin Hood and his merry men romped in Sherwood Forest, a man named Lacy was elected Sheriff. And he has held the job with more or less regularity in Santa Ana ever since.

This year wishful politicians have sprung up in the hope that maybe, under the new primary law, they can pry Lacy out of his job.

As before remarked, no one pretends to understand the direct primary, but all the long-discouraged politicians are waiting for it with the hope and longing with which a chronic invalid orders a new patent medicine.

Our old friend, Sandy McPhee, who believes in Lincoln-Roosevelt politics at long range and straight push politics at home, has come near closing up shop in disgust.

There are in Santa Ana two newspapers. One is the Blade, edited by Sandy—the other is the Register, edited by Baumgartner.

It seems that the Santa Ana merchants objected to the necessity of paying double advertising bills. The result of their meditations was an informal suggestion that one of the two papers cancel itself, leaving one paper and one advertising bill.

It is said that the merchants agreed to sign a contract to advertise in no other paper that might be started in Santa Ana for a period of five years.

After much dickering McPhee was on the point of selling out to the Register for $22,000 when he remembered how Baumgartner, on arriving in Santa Ana to start the Register, had been his guest and slept in his bed.

"He slept in my bed—then he started a rival paper, and I'll not sell out," cried Sandy. So there are still two papers.

The Orange county Board of Supervisors seems about to try a curious experiment in taxation.

They want to levy a special poll tax—not a property tax—to build a County Hospital and poor farm.

Singularly enough, the county has never had either.

There have been so few poor that it has never seemed necessary.

The conditions now are shocking. Almost in the center of town is a private residence, surrounded by a chicken yard.

In this house, are gathered the indigents of the county in charge of a caretaker. In the chicken yard are the tents of some tubercular victims. You could almost touch their tents from the sidewalk.

Scattered here and there through the county are indigents in private families, supported by small allowances from the county treasury. It is said that a convincing-looking invalid is the grandest asset that some of the Mexican families in Orange county can boast.

Today, however, the chairman of the Chamber of Commerce went before the Supervisors with a peremptory request that some definite arrangement be made for starting a poor farm. He presented the protests of the Anti-Tuberculosis League also.

The position of the Supervisors is somewhat embarrassing. Last November the question of voting bonds for a poor farm was put on the ballots and did not receive the necessary two-thirds.

One of the Supervisors suggested, as a way out, levying a 32 extra poll tax to raise the money.

Land is increasing in value so rapidly that a site ought to be selected as soon as possible.

Santa Ana business men are considerably elated over Mr. Huntington's promise to have that city connected with the sea by July.

Although the most charming natural resorts of the south coast lie along the sea front of Orange county, there has been no trolley connection. When Santa Ana people wanted to go to Balboa or Huntington Beach or Newport, they had to take the trolley back to Watts and there change cars.

The projected trolley line was originally meant to open up the beet sugar lands near Santa Ana.

Backed by the Santa Ana owners of the Southern California Sugar Factory, this line will now be extended through Talbot to Huntington Beach. It is expected that much of the summer trade of the beaches will be diverted to Santa Ana.

An auto line will also be put on this summer from Santa Ana to Laguna. This lovely beach will, no doubt, in time, be able to live down the fierce water color works of art, painted by the artist colony that there abides.

Santa Ana has a chance to do a very gracious thing.

Up in the foothills back of the town is a bit of wild woods—some 160 acres presented by Mr. Irvine, the owner of San Joaquin rancho.

They never have been able to find a name for it. They wanted to call it Irvine Park, but the donor modestly declined. Then they wanted to name it after the chairman of the Board of Supervisors, but the sovereign people raised a roar and the gentleman's virtues must remain his chief monument.

At present the place bears the insufferably ugly name of "County Park."

Why not name it for Modjeska? Her will is now being probated at Santa Ana.

Readers of The Times will no doubt remember the state of affairs at Mojave, when a big band of sure-thing gamblers who were robbing aqueduct laborers were driven out.

They hung forlornly around Los Angeles for a few days, dodging detectives. It seems that they have now drifted into the small towns.

Today a delegation from Garden Grove complained to the Santa Ana authorities.

Oddly enough, the next downfall of these crooks is due to come because they refused to attend a Y.M.C.A. convention.

"I don't know one card from another," said the spokesman from Garden Grove, 'But when I went to the poolroom to invite them to the Y.M.C.A. convention, one of them looked up and said: 'Oh, hell; we are gambling.'"

CHALMERS AT LAS VEGAS.

Pathfinder for Flag-to-Fag Automobile Tour Is in New Mexico Sagebrush.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LAS VEGAS (N. M.) May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Chalmers-Detroit "Thirty," pathfinder for the "flag to flag" automobile endurance run, reached the Plicata rancho at East Las Vegas last night after a hard drive. Billy Knipper was at the wheel. Knipper and party were met by a dozen automobiles a few miles from Las Vegas and escorted into the town.

While crossing a railroad on the plains at a high speed a rear spring snapped. In spite of this handicap the car made 146 miles during the day. A tire iron was inserted in place of the broken leaf. This is the longest run of the trip.

During the Fun Raton Mountain, 9500 feet high, was crossed and an elevation of 3000 feet was attained in the last fourteen miles of going. Once the route was lost and the car wandered about in the sage brush for several hours. The Chalmers-Detroit party expects to reach Santa Fé tomorrow.

Wheeler May Go.

Henry Berry of the Los Angeles team, received a letter from President Walters of the Oakland team yesterday in regard to Berry giving up Wheeler but nothing was written by Walters as to the terms he expected to make with Wheeler. Berry will not consent to the transfer unless Wheeler is satisfied and George wants a two-years' contract and the entire management of the team. Walters admits, however, that he is very anxious to get Wheeler and Berry stated yesterday that the chances are that George will go to Oakland.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Palms for the North.

A carload of orange trees, palms and rare tropical plants will be shipped to the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition by the Chamber of Commerce. Secretary Wiggins, who is now at Seattle, is planning a beautiful garden close to the California building in order that visitors may see the character of trees and shrubs which thrive well in Southern California.

Young Owen Coming Home.

E. H. Owen, clerk of the United States District Court, received a letter yesterday from his son, Virgil Owen, who is on a scientific expedition in Mexico and the islands of the Gulf of California. Young Owen and his two companions are in good health and report much success in their researches. The party will leave for Los Angeles on the 17th inst.

Funeral of C. B. Yaw.

The funeral of the late Charles Bell Yaw was held yesterday afternoon at the chapel of Bresee Bros., the service being conducted by Rev. Dr. Warren F. Day of the First Congregational Church. It was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased, and a large funeral cortege accompanied the remains to Rosedale Cemetery.

"Tag Day" Funds.

The Associated Charities will start at hard work on the details of ascertaining just how much money was received from the sale of tags on last Saturday. Something over $10,000 has been taken in, but there are yet many outside sections to be heard from, and the exact amount may not be determined for several days. It is not thought at headquarters that the total will go much beyond what is now in hand.

Unique Oratorical Contest.

A unique contest in oratory will be held this evening at 8 o'clock, in the Woodlawn Methodist Church, Woodlawn and Santa Barbara avenues. The prize will be a gold medal valued at $10. The orations will be delivered by Mrs. G. Herron, Mrs. Lulu Wright, Mrs. Ella Howard, Mrs. Ella Nagenbaugh, Mrs. J. B. Longuevan and Mrs. H. V. Wheeler. Each of these contestants has already won a silver medal and a small gold medal. The affair is under the auspices of the Woodlawn W.C.T.U.

Colored Minister Resigns.

Rev. G. R. Bryant, pastor of the colored Methodist Episcopal Church in this city, known as Wesley Chapel, has at his own request been transferred to Paris, Ky., by Bishop Warren, and will leave for his new field next week. Mr. Bryant came here from San Antonio, Tex., six years ago, and has been pastor of the same church since that time. He took it with a membership of 140, and with a property valued at $13,000; he leaves it with a membership of 550 and a splendid modern church property valued at $45,000. He has maintained a fine standing among the church people of the city, and has received the same recognition in many ways as that accorded to white ministers. He is modest and unassuming; a good preacher and a good business man. The congregation to which he goes has over 500 members, and a fine brick church.

BREVITIES.

To "Liner" Advertisers: Dating from June 1st, classified advertising in the Times will be charged by the word at the present established rate of 1c per word in the daily issue and 1½c Sunday. Close calculations covering a period of several months develop the fact that the average number of words to the line are a fraction over seven. This basis for charges, therefore, will prevail after June 1st. Cash "want" advertising has always been calculated by the word, and this regulation will not change the manner of handling it. The present "want" ad rate has been in effect, for many years, though the circulation of the paper, now more than 50,000 daily and 80,000 Sundays, has trebled during this period. No paper in the United States, rate considered, compares with The Times in "want" ad service. The Times-Mirror Company.

Remember the slogan: "Buy and Boost Home Products." For daily references, see page 11, part II, of The Times, containing list of wide-awake manufacturers, under the heading "Made in Southern California." You will find there are manufacturers of necessities and luxuries here—manufacturers of things to eat and drink—things for the home, the factory, the office and the farm. Buy them! Try them! There are none better. Buy and Boost, and keep your money at home where it will do you and yours the most good!

JAIL JOY RIDERS.

Negro Accused of Having Passed a Bad Check on Garage Man, Is Placed Under Arrest.

Love for automobile "joy rides," combined with the most abject distaste for paying real money for pastime, has landed Charles Moore, colored, in the Police Station for the third time in several months, this time facing a probable penitentiary sentence.

Moore is somewhat of a leader in the younger colored set. Occasionally he takes an auto load of companions on long rides about the city or to nearby towns. Invariably after the ride the owner could whistle for his pay. Once a chauffeur took a shot at Moore, but the bullet went wild. On another occasion Moore narrowly escaped prosecution for forgery when he signed the name of Fred Maier to instructing the proprietors to furnish Moore with a machine.

Several days ago Moore went to L. H. Haney's garage, ordered a machine and drove around town with several friends until the bill ran up to $37.50. When the jolly crowd was surfeited with spinning about the streets Moore paid Haney with a check drawn on the Security Savings Bank. Yesterday the check came back to Haney, marked "No funds." On complaint of Haney, Moore was arrested last night by police detectives. He will be arraigned in Police Court this morning.

BONE BURNER ARRESTED.

Cremation on Buena Vista Street Is Cause of General Holding of Neighborhood Noses.

When Henry Pavid attempted to burn a lot of old bones in the rear yard at his home on Buena Vista street, last evening, residents for several blocks held fingers to their noses while they rushed to telephones to inform the police.

Several neighbors protested vehemently in person to Pavid, but with no effect except the piling of more bones into the iron can utilized as a crematory. When police officers arrived Pavid was still on the job. Neighbors had taken to the windward.

Pavid was arrested, taken to Central Station and desposited $50 cash bail for his appearance in the Police Court today.

LIQUOR SELLING CHARGED.

Frank Sohn, a druggist at No. 1924 East Ninth street, was arrested last night on a charge of selling liquor and morphine. He furnished $200 cash bail for appearance in the Police Court this morning.

AVALON.

AVALON, May 6.—The first black sea bass of the season was caught here today by Mrs. O. I. Danielson while fishing from the launch Rival. It was brought to gaff in ten minutes after the strike was made, and weighed 114 pounds.

A. C. Chambers of Anderson, Ind., while fishing from the launch Vera, Capt. H. Nichols, captured a yellow-tail weighing thirty-four pounds. It was taken with heavy tackle, and the angler was not successful in securing a membership into the Light Tackle Club.

A report was brought in today by a party of fishermen that off San Clemente they had seen a large school of blue-fin tuna heading for San Nicolas Island.

Among those recently registered at the Metropole are: Prof. J. Griffin of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Griffin of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Dr. J. H. Hooper of San Francisco, Mrs. C. W. Simpson and son of Chicago, and Dr. E. D. Borden and wife of Denver.

The Cecilian Piano is the only complete instrument. Not only does it play every note on the piano, but it can be played by any one. The expression devices are simple, there are no arbitrary methods to follow, and it can be played when you want it and as you want it.

The $850 Cecilian is the only piano with the player action made of metal—doing away with all the trouble and annoyance of leaks caused by climatic changes. The $750 and $850 styles contain the wood action. All Cecilian Pianos, both metal and wood actions, are the only players containing thematic buttons for bringing out the theme or melody of a composition. It is the only player containing the accent bellows, for accenting single notes or chords.

Anyone Can Play Cecilian-Pianos.

SEEK TO SHOW BIAS OF JURY.

Broadhead and Schenck Rely on This to Aid Them.

Many Technicalities Raised at Opening of Fight.

Hot Contest Over Indictments May Last Days.

If Thomas H. Broadhead and Sam Schenck finally come to trial on the indictments returned by the recent grand jury, charging each with bribery, it will be because their lawyers exhaust the supply of legal technicalities without impressing the court. If any of these quibbling niceties were overlooked yesterday, in support of the motion to set aside the indictments, there yet may be time to trot them out. Only a fair start had been made in the matter when court adjourned last evening until 9 o'clock this morning.

For the purpose of saving time, a joint motion was made by Attorney Horace H. Appel, on behalf of Broadhead, and by Attorney Paul Schenck, for his brother, the former police commissioner. The lawyers then acted together in conducting the case for the defendants. Dist.-Atty. Fredericks and Deputies Horton and Ford appeared for the prosecution, the hearing being before Judge George R. Davis in Department Eleven of the Superior Court.

Two of the main points on which the defense depends to have the indictments set aside are that the names of material witnesses were not shown on the instruments and that the state of mind of the individual members of the grand jury at the time of its impanelment was prejudicial to the defendants.

PROSECUTION UNYIELDING.

An effort was made by the defense yesterday to show that the name of E. T. Earl and several other witnesses should have appeared on the Broadhead and Schenck indictments, together with those noted thereon, but this contention was fought by the prosecution, which indicated its intention to yield nothing.

Also the defense tried to show that there was prejudice against Broadhead and Schenck before the investigation was instituted.

Broadhead, who is under suspension as captain of police pending the trial of his case, sat at the attorneys' table with his counsel. An occasional pinch of snuff seemed to afford him much satisfaction. Sam Schenck occupied a seat a few feet distant from his lawyer-brother. Several members of the recent grand jury were present as witnesses, and Nick Oswald held down a chair in an obscure corner of the courtroom.

D. E. Wellcome, secretary of the special grand jury, was the first witness called. He was on the stand all afternoon, but the number of questions he answered was limited because of the running fire of objections on the part of the District Attorney and his staff.

SECRECY GUARDED.

In response to a question by Appel, Wellcome said Earl was a witness before the grand jury.

"Did twelve grand jurors concur in the indictment of Broadhead?" asked Appel.

"Yes, sir."

"Were you one of the twelve?"

Deputy Ford objected to this question as in violation of the secrecy of the grand juryroom. This objection was sustained by the court, and Appel noted an exception.

Appel then asked Wellcome to produce the minutes of the grand jury. He was told they had been delivered at the District Attorney's office. Ford announced that they were on file with the clerk of the court.

"Accompanying the grand jury exhibits was there an affidavit purporting to have been signed by one N. D. Oswald?" asked Appel.

To this, Ford also objected, whereupon Appel explained, framing a suppositional case, that the box containing the grand jury records might have been broken into and the contents molested. He hastened to say that he had no idea that such a thing could have been done, but he said it was within the range of possibility, and he simply wished to ascertain whether the document referred to had been properly before the grand jury.

"The only question," insisted Ford, following up his objection, "is whether the names of the witnesses were indorsed on the instruments, and whether they appear on the indictments."

"RECALL" BOBS UP.

To many other questions along the same line the prosecution objected, and the defense took exceptions. It went this way all the afternoon, until the record was honeycombed with objections and exceptions.

"Were you a signer of the recall petition?" asked Appel.

"I was," replied Wellcome.

"I intend to show," continued Appel, "that this witness signed a printed statement which reflected upon A. C. Harper and members of his administration, including the defendants, Broadhead and Schenck. By this means we expect to prove he was biased."

The witness said he did not recall having expressed any opinion as to the possible guilt of Broadhead or Schenck before the impaneiment of the grand jury.

"Do you know a man named Franklin, a broker?"

"I don't know that I do."

"Before the grand jury was impaneled did you not have an argument with him, in which you expressed an opinion as to the defendants' guilt or innocence?"

"I don't remember any such person," replied the witness, who said he had discussed the matter with many persons; that he might have said it looked as if something was wrong, and that the matter ought to be investigated.

ANOTHER STONE WALL.

Appel then tried to show that E. J. Fleming, E. T. Earl, Joseph Durand, H. T. Clotworthy, W. F. Parker and others had given testimony that influenced the grand jury in returning the indictments against Broadhead and Schenck, but the objections by the prosecution were generally sustained.

Attorney Schenck asked the witness if Joseph Durand had not given testimony pertaining to the subject matter of the Sam Schenck indictment.

"I believe he simply was asked if he knew Schenck," replied Wellcome. The situation was the same as to the

NOW FOR EXPOSITION.

Sixth District Agricultural Association Elects Officers—Plans for Improvement.

Horace M. Dobbins of Pasadena was elected president of the Sixth District Agricultural Association at the annual meeting yesterday. This is believed to be the first step in the direction of the improvement of Agricultural Park under the bill, recently signed by Gov. Gillett, appropriating $250,000 for a State exposition building.

William M. Bowen was chosen again to act as secretary, and Joseph F. Sartori was elected treasurer, succeeding John A. Pirtle. Mr. Dobbins succeeds Maj. John T. Jones as head of the association.

It was voted that in the future all meetings of the association be held in the Chamber of Commerce building.

There are eight members of the body, all of whom attended yesterday's meeting. They are Horace M. Dobbins, George R. Murdock, John T. Jones, Gen. M. H. Sherman, Senator N. W. Thompson, A. T. Currier, Dr. Le Moyne Wills and John H. Reynolds. Gen. Sherman and Senator Thompson were appointed to the board last February by Gov. Gillett.

No action was taken yesterday looking toward the great improvement of the big park, control of which rests with the association, though the project was discussed informally. The probability is that a meeting will be called in the near future, at which the matter will be taken up.

Initiation of the scheme for the show building rests with the directors and they are keen to get it under away. The first installment of the State appropriation will be available by July 1 and it is hoped by that time, with the assistance of the State engineering department, to have plans in readiness for a start on the work.

FROM FLORIDA TO CALIFORNIA.

W. B. Powell of St. Petersburg, Fla., is located at No. 615 South Figueroa street with his family. Mr. Powell formerly edited the Evening Independent at St. Petersburg, and was secretary of the Board of Trade there. He has disposed of his holdings and will make his residence in Southern California.

INTO THE DEPTHS.

"I'D GET HIM" FATHER SAID.

Parent's Last Word Before Boy Shot Thayer.

Mitchell, Senior, Tells of His Wronged Daughter.

Bogus Law Students Cleared from Courtroom.

"If I was able I'd get him in an hour."

This was the last remark Ansel J. Mitchell made to his son, William C. Mitchell, on trial before Judge Willis for the murder of Cecil Thayer, as his boy started out into the night on January 1 with his revolver. A few minutes later Thayer was dead, with three bullet holes in him, and young Mitchell was a prisoner.

The attorneys for the defense spent yesterday in court building up, in a thousand pages of testimony, the evidence to save their client from the penalty of the law on the ground of temporary insanity, while on the other hand the prosecution strove, with the crowbars of cross-examination, to demolish the carefully-constructed "unwritten law" defenses.

Once more a throng of men and women and boys tried to get into the courtroom to hear the testimony. It was supposed that Ethel Mitchell, the 16-year-old girl for whose sake her brother killed Thayer, would tell the story of her wrong. The courtroom is large and airy, but Judge Willis would permit only those who could find seats to stay, although he made an exception in favor of the senior class of the College of Law.

This exception became known, and in the middle of the trial Judge Willis stopped proceedings of court, took a recess and had the entire courtroom cleared. Nearly 100 young men had squeezed in by representing themselves as law students.

A committee of real law students was appointed by the class, and they had to identify all who entered the courtroom after that as members of the class. Once the room was cleared and the committee appointed, the public was given a small chance to get back, under the rule of "ladies first."

Coroner Hartwell, the first witness of the day, told of the tattoolngs on the body of young Thayer, of the nude woman figure, the devil on a toadstool and the initials of Ethel. The latter were in different ink from that of the figures.

The cross-examination of Mrs. Martha M. Mitchell was continued by Deputy District Attorney North, and it was brought out that Ethel visited and spent the night at the home of the Thayers several times, and only once did Mrs. Mitchell object, although she knew of the relations between Cecil

FISH FLOOD ON MARKET.

Enormous Catches and Shipments Bring Price to a Few Cents a Pound.

A great run of barracuda and enormous catches off San Pedro, Redondo and other places has resulted in a flood of fish on the local market. Fish has not been so plentiful in years. Yesterday prices went as low as 2 cents a pound, wholesale, and 5 cents, retail. Wednesday one dealer received six tons, and five tons yesterday. Wells, Fargo & Co. report exceedingly heavy shipments.

One of the extensive Central-avenue dealers yesterday found a new way to dispose of the surplus. He cleans and salts it down in barrels, in which it will keep practically fresh a long time. It will be shipped to interior points, and it is understood all that can be supplied has already been contracted for. This means that there will be no more dumping of the fine food, as has been the custom when all the fish could not be marketed.

UNDER THE SANDSPIT.

SKY SKATERS WANT RIGHTS.

Ask for Law to Regulate Air Navigation.

Ownership to Welkin's End Warmly Disputed.

Balloonatic Streets Planned for Heavens.

The City Attorney's office is engaged in a search for aërial jurisprudence because the captive balloon at Fiesta Park, after the manner of all balloons, veers with the wind over divers and sundry lands and lots owned by park neighbors. They object to sand ballast, on the ground that it is a nuisance. They also protest against it on their roofs. The manager of the Aëro Club of California believes the time has come for regulating traffic between earth and heaven.

To define the rights of balloons and airships and to protect aërial navigation, property owners and citizens from possible dangers, is the purpose of a proposed ordinance which the club is preparing for presentation to the City Council. It will probably be the first in the world.

The subject was brought to the attention of the City Attorney yesterday afternoon, and referred by him to Assistant Wilson. A conference was held between Wilson and the Aëro Club management, and it was agreed that it is not untimely to have such an ordinance framed and presented for passage. Wilson suggested that members of the club formulate articles and then hold another conference with him.

The Aëro Club members contend that the time is near when aërial craft will be common in Southern California, and that some provision must be made for their legal operation. Already Knabenshue has flown all over the city in his dirigible; other airships are about to be constructed; a number of flights have been made with the balloons American and United States; several flying machines of the heavier than air" variety have been completed and await success to insure local use, many models of other machines have been made and several are under process of construction. With all this going on, the aëro people believe that aërial navigation in Southern California will be extensive very soon.

LOS ANGELES TO THE FORE?

Therefore, they hold, the rights of citizens and property owners and those of air craft and aëronauts should be clearly defined. It is asserted that if Los Angeles acts now it will have established a precedent which is bound to be followed by other cities. St. Louis, Indianapolis, St. Paul, Chicago, Columbus and other places have ballooning interests, and flying machines are expected to come before the public soon.

"Aëro Club, Aëro Club? Er—I don't understand—Oh, yes, gas, hot air," exclaimed City Attorney Hewitt, when approached, but when he fully understood the import of the matter he appeared interested and agreed that some action is necessary.

"I am afraid you are up against it," said he, "when you throw out sand or other things from a balloon."

When it was explained to him that on occasions it is imperative to throw out sand to keep the balloon above the house tops, he remarked that in that case possibly the balloon would have to be done away with.

However, members of the Aëro Club say the air should be considered a public highway because balloons have come to stay and must be provided for.

"SCIENCE OF FUTURE."

"I believe that the court ruling giving property owners rights far in the air above their land can be knocked out the first time a determined effort is made, and that will come right soon if aërial navigation is interfered with," said Prof. H. LaV. Twining, secretary of the Aëro Club and instructor at Polytechnic High School. "If such a law holds it would create chaos in a few years, and all sorts of actions could be brought. Even now our instruments at Polytechnic are interfered with by the wireless waves, but we do not intend to interfere with the march of progress, and I do not believe an effort will be made to interfere with ballooning, for aërial navigation is the science of the future, and

Opening of the Attack on "Redlight" Indictments.

Scene in Judge Davis's courtroom yesterday, when lawyers for Thomas H. Broadhead and Sam Schenck began battle to ward off trial of accused men. Attorney Appel is addressing the court; in front of him, seated, is Broadhead; at left end of table, Dist.-Atty. Fredericks, and at extreme right, Attorney Paul Schenck.

ON LAST FLIGHT.

AIR NAVIGATOR PUTS BULLET TO HEART.

"SEND my body back East." With the words still on his lips, Frank Woods, pleading with his childish sweetheart not to go to a party at which beer was to be served, shot himself through the left breast, immediately above the heart, and was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where he was pronounced fatally wounded.

The shooting was done at the entrance to Chutes Park at 7:55 o'clock yesterday evening. Woods, who is better known in Los Angeles as F. R. Leroyxes, had been despondent for some time. He obtained a divorce from his wife in Chicago last year, and the divorced wife has the custody of their son. A sister living at Lima, O., is critically ill and Woods received a letter a few days ago telling him that the patient would have to undergo a serious surgical operation. The news preyed on his mind and he anxiously awaited another letter.

The last straw came yesterday evening, when pretty little Annie Lyons turned a deaf ear to his remonstrances and insisted on going to a party given by the younger employés of the park. The girl's brother, Billie Lyons, a ticket seller at the park, sided with his sister in the controversy, and Woods sought to give up his life with the argument.

Frank Woods came to Los Angeles a little more than two years ago and obtained employment as ahimal keeper at the Chutes Park zoo, succeeding Mike Belaski. His first day in the zoo showed Woods to be a man of reckless courage. He entered without the least hesitation the cages of all the animals in the zoo, beating back those which seemed to resent the intrusion. Always sober and cool-headed, he won the full confidence of the management, and when he said that he had had considerable experience as a parachute jumper, he was given many opportunities of presenting this form of entertainment. He had been making hot-air balloon ascensions and parachute jumps for seventeen years, and his experience and presence of mind often saved him from accidents in a park that was almost covered with live wires and buildings.

HIT BY HARD LUCK.

But misfortune overtook the daring young performer. The big zebu at the zoo knocked him down a few weeks ago and nearly trampled him to death. A hitch in a parachute caused him a heavy fall about a month ago, and he was painfully hurt. He had other falls and other hurts in the past few months, some of them entailing serious injuries.

Still Woods kept the parachute leaps—possibly it was the cheers and plaudits of the crowds, and he continued.

Soon after his arrival here, Woods went to board with Mrs. Margaret Lyons at No. 1823 South Main street, and there he met Annie Lyons, a child who is now no more than 15. Woods learned to love her baby face and childish ways; the girl looked upon him as on a big brother—love was still an unopened book to her. But she "liked" Woods, as she said last night, and when he enthusiastically told of his leaps from dizzy heights when the cheering crowds could scarce see him on the trapeze hanging below the parachute, her big blue eyes shone first with admiration, then with envy.

The girl resolved to become a performer, too.

With Woods as a teacher, she soon learned to balance herself on the swaying trapeze and to look with composure upon the swiftly approaching earth when she pulled the parachute loose and felt the air whistling past her pretty head. Annie Lyons made a parachute leap successfully at Santa Ana some time ago, and again at Pomona. Next Sunday, she was to go up in a balloon with Woods at Chutes Park, for the man had built two balloons of his own. He made a flight from Fiesta Park to Schuetzen Park last Sunday, and then went to Chutes Park and made a parachute leap from a hot air balloon.

The girl was as enthusiastic as he.

Then came the party of the young employés of the park last night. Woods was invited, but he would not go. The girl said she was going.

Woods and Annie met yesterday evening in front of the box office. The man pleaded hard; the girl was insistent. Her brother, Billie, left the box office where he was selling tickets to take sides with his sister, assuring Woods that he would accompany the girl and that there could be no impropriety in their conduct. But Woods had heard that beer would be served with other refreshments, and he was obstinate.

"Tell Lehigh to send my body back East," he said to Billy Lyons.

"Oh, pshaw, I won't do it," replied Lyons, half laughing at what he thought was a joke.

TRIGGER PULL—FLASH—GASP.

But the boy's speech was not finished when there was a loud report and Woods fell back to the sidewalk gasping. He had flourished the revolver, a 38-caliber weapon, as though he meant to point it at the girl, and then, like a flash of lightning, turned it against his breast and pulled the trigger.

SAYS COL. RANDOLPH.

LOST OPPORTUNITY IN THE RIVER BED.

"A REMEDY for the congested traffic in Los Angeles depends upon two things—the advisability of corporations to invest $15,000,000 and the foresight of a city which will make possible such an expenditure."

This statement was made yesterday by Col. Epes Randolph, whose private car is side-tracked in the Southern Pacific yards in Pasadena in order, as the colonel states, that he may avoid the fog. Col. Randolph is accompanied by Mrs. Randolph and his private secretary, Edward Hayes.

"I make this statement because the interurban traffic can only be handled in trains," continued Col. Randolph; "not that these trains will be run more frequently, but that they will be longer—as long as the traffic demands.

"But in order to operate such trains it is absolutely necessary from the standpoint of utility and safety that the common carrier should have an elevated outlet from the congested center of Los Angeles.

"We attempted to close a franchise for the river-bed frontage and had all our plans made to construct a retaining wall for the Los Angeles River that would have cost $5,000,000. The minute that investments of such magnitude are talked of somebody—a city council or civic organization—invariably yells 'steal.' The improvement was turned down.

"I do not hesitate to say that Los Angeles cut its own corners in holding up the river-bed franchise; that it retarded the development of its metropolis five years, and the upbuilding of its outlying districts.

the ability of Los Angeles to cope with the great march of humanity to this wonderful country. If facilities are not found here, these people will settle in other portions of California, and I tell you that it will not be long until the tide will be turned into the western shores of Mexico, where a strong competition for settlers is developing."

Asked what method will be adopted to secure an outlet for the needed elevated system and how soon it will be undertaken, Col. Randolph said:

"That is the point. Los Angeles lost its opportunity. It is foolhardy to talk of an expenditure of $15,000,000 at this time, and no method will be undertaken unless it is considered safe to negotiate such an expenditure.

"The Pacific Electric Railway Company is doing all in its power to cope with existing conditions, but, until better conditions are made possible, the public will have to try a little Christian Science in the discomfiture of crowded cars.

"But I am not taking up the matter of railway conditions here. Mr. McMillan is handling that and is better able to answer questions in regard to it than I am. I am building a mile and a half a day of track down in Mexico, working 600 miles below Guaymas, and 200 miles in another direction. I am spending most of my time on those interests."

Mrs. Randolph was happy in her expression of pleasure over Pasadena. "I only wish that I could persuade my husband to come here to live and forget about all this conquering of wild countries by railroad," she said, smilingly. "Perhaps we will

GAMEWELL'S REPORT.

INDICATIONS OF ITS COMING.

When all other signs fail intimations that Gamewell report reverberate rough the City Hall. This report s been overdue for a year and is membered chiefly because it has ver been made. It is supposed to nsist of one thousand separate and stinct bombshells, which are to ex- lode simultaneously, and, perhaps, atter the hall itself.

When the Fire Commission, new to s business, wondered why the Coun- l will not buy fire alarm boxes the ity Auditor told the members that was because the Gamewell Company as been charging excessive prices nd that a report would soon be made the Council, showing what the inance Committee had found out a ear or more ago. The Auditor has eld up bills amounting to $14,000 pre- ented by the Gamewell Company and e wants the commission to advertise or new proposals so that competition nay be had and cheaper boxes ob- ained. The commission took the sub- ect under advisement.

Because of the dispute over the prices of fire alarm equipment the ity has bought no boxes for two ears and the need of them has con- stantly increased. A hundred new ones would about catch up with the need.

NO MORE BADGES.

WILL REPEAL ORDINANCE.

Ordinance No. 17409 is to be repealed if Councilman Dromgold has his way. This law provides for police badges for all members of the Council, city officers, employés and others, and is regarded by him and others as a mere means of giving free street car rides and occasionally admission privileges to those who are not entitled to them. As the badges are numbered as police badges the numbers are now so high that regular patrolmen, whose numbers are at the top, are refused recognition because they are beyond the limit. Dromgold talked to Chief Diekman and they agreed that no one but police force members should have badges. Hence the repealing ordinance that will divest many a City Hall employé of his police authority and free street-car rides.

Reaches the Limit.

"Insane, idiotic and hideous ravings" is the way a petition describes the work of a "spieler" for a moving pic- ture show at 355 South Main street. The petitioners, business people in the block where the show is maintained, ask the Police Commission to do something to restore peace and quiet

CAUGHT.

LOTTERY SYNDICATE BAITING RANCHMEN.

THAT Los Angeles dealers are flood- ing the rural districts of Southern California with lottery tickets, selling thousands of them to farmers and small merchants, and conducting regular distributing stations in the small towns, is the belief of police of- ficials who are making a thorough in- vestigation with a quantity of evidence already in their possession.

The crusade which has been started against the lottery sale is based upon the arrest and conviction yesterday of William H. Young, who lives in Boyle Heights. Young was arrested on East First street. He had a number of lot- tery tickets in his possession. He also had a note, written on a small scrap of paper and intended as a voucher for some prospective sucker at the lottery game.

"Mr. Young—Give bearer one whole lottery ticket each month and charge to my account." This note was signed "J. Greenewald."

Al Greenewald, a local cigar dealer and prize-fight promoter, was arrested several months ago on a charge of handling lottery tickets. He had been raided several times before on the same charge and his fines the last time aggregated about $800. A great quan- tity of lottery tickets was destroyed. Greenewald was put under a suspended sentence on his promise to be good, and according to the police he has kept away from the game ever since. J. Greenewald is a member of the same family and the police are investigating his alleged connection with the lottery sales. The note signed with his name is held at the Police Station as evi- dence.

When Young was arrested he had a bundle of tickets in his possession from the Little Louisiana Lottery Company of San Francisco. This is the concern with which Al Greenewald was con- nected at the time of his arrest and conviction.

Young was taken before Justice Frederickson and pleaded guilty. He refused to make any statement as to how he came into possession of the tickets and the note signed with Greenewald's name.

The justice lectured him severely for handling the tickets and fined him $75. Young paid without a murmur. He was then taken to the office of Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Seymour. There he finally confessed that he secured the tickets from Santa Ana. The lo- cal police have kept such a sharp look- out for the tickets that they believe it is practically impossible to distribute them from any agencies here.

It was also learned yesterday that many ranchers of the Santa Ana neigh- borhood were regular patrons of the lottery game. They are lured on by the promises of great rewards and imagine that the San Francisco com- pany will pay them anywhere up to $10,000 in case they hold the lucky ticket.

Preliminary reports from other rural districts show that the lottery canker has wormed its way into the homes of famers in many sections and that many ranchmen spend every cent they can rake together to play the game in a fever-mad effort to get something for nothing.

To stop this form of gambling and put the distributing stations out of commission, the police are securing ev- idence against dealers and distributors, and Los Angeles men who are sup- posed to be interested will be arrested as soon as the chain of evidence is completed.

Young admitted that he has been working up a big trade among the Japanese, has been handling the lot- tery tickets for several years and making good money, and that there are others hereabouts doing the same thing. The Japanese and Chinese truck and vegetable gardeners are easy prey. They are born gamblers, and as the Chinese lotteries are held in check by the local police, the outside orientals find a chance in the American lottery to put their money out on chance.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

NAME OF YOUNG WOMAN CLEARED.

JURY DECIDES AGAINST SANITY OF THE ACCUSER.

Covina People Throng Courtroom to Hear Testimony in the Case of Mrs. Dewlaney—Son Makes Long Journey to Respond to Call of Mother in Distress.

The question that has divided the people of Covina for some time—the mental condition of Ida M. Dewlaney, wife of William Dewlaney, a wealthy rancher at that place—was deter- mined by a jury in Judge Wilbur's court yesterday.

At 5:30 o'clock the twelve men re- turned to court with the following ver- dict: "We, the jury, do find the de- fendant, Ida M. Dewlaney, so disor- dered in her mind as to endanger the health, life and property of herself and other persons." The report was unani- mous, and signed by George C. Rice, foreman.

The accused woman sat gazing at the jury like one transfixed, but no sound escaped her lips, neither did she indicate that she was in any way dis- tressed by the announcement of the jury. Her son, Earl Brown, who had traveled almost across the continent to testify in behalf of his mother, burst into tears, and had to be assisted to the chambers of the court.

There was a note of tragedy in the appearance of the boy. He is 19 years of age. For a long time he made his home in Granville, Licking county, O., where he is a regular attendant at High School. He is a son of Mrs. Dewlaney by Adam L. Brown, a for- mer husband. When the call of his mother in distress reached him he hurried to Los Angeles to assist her. He was a witness in her behalf, but he had been with his mother so little that he knew nothing about her men- tal condition. He wept during most of the day, and the mother, when the people's attorneys were declaring that she ought to be put away so as to not be a menace to the Covina community, patted him upon the cheeks and begged that he should not give way to his feelings.

The aged husband of the woman, who could not remember his age, which was figured out at about 85, was also a witness. He declared that in his opinion she is insane. He said that he still loved her, but that they had lived apart for more than a year on her suggestion. Mr. Dewlaney is one of the forty-niners. He is estimated to be worth not less than $50,000, and Mrs. Dewlaney is well off in her own right. The marriage with Mrs. Dew- laney was his third venture into matri- monial fields and her second. They were married about six years ago.

A considerable part of the population of Covina tried to crowd into the courtroom. The idiosyncracies of the accused woman had been neighbor- hood talk since her return from the State Hospital at Patton in 1903, and her gossip involving the name of John Funk and his wife and his daughter, Miss Ida Funk, added zest to the pro- ceedings.

Miss Ida Funk, who, according to the disordered mind of Mrs. Dewlaney, had been one of the actors in a mock marriage with John Funk, with Rev. Harry White, pastor of the M. E. Church of Covina, as the officiating clergyman, was the target of the testi- mony for the defense all day, and was on the stand in rebuttal. There was not a particle of evidence offered in- dicating that any of the charges made by Mrs. Dewlaney were true. These charges went further than to declare that the old gentleman and the girl had been married. Other charges af- fecting her chastity that had been bandied about the Covina community, with Mrs. Dewlaney as sponsor, were exploded.

Mrs. Dewlaney created a breeze as soon as she went on the witness stand. Asked as to her marriage with Wil- liam Dewlaney, she declared that she knew she was his third wife, but she had been told by some of the neigh- bors that she was the fourth. She had not lived with him since Febru- ary, 1908. The questioning of the wit- ness was largely along the lines of the charges she had made affecting the Funks.

Judge Wilbur put a number of quer- ies to her with a view to ascertaining her mental poise, and she became con- fused, and her charges against the per- sons mentioned simmered down to in- nuendoes and allegations for which she offered no proof.

With the retirement of the jury, a crowd of Covina people remained in the courtroom and waited until a ver- they were not a unit in favor of the proposition that Mrs. Dewlaney is mentally unbalanced.

EMBRACES SHOCK WIFE.

MUSICIAN IS SET APART.

The troubles of the Ford family were aired in Judges James' court, yesterday, in the divorce action brought by Enoch Ford, a music mas- ter of this city, against Catharine Ford, his wife. Ford alleged in his complaint that his wife had deserted him. As he was the only witness, with no corroboration of his testimony, there was no relief for him. This was followed by the hearing of the cross- complaint of his wife, who alleged cruelty and neglect.

Ford had testified that one day while he was giving a young woman pupil a violin lesson, his wife burst into the room, and, being of a jealous disposition, created a scene and order- ed him to leave the house. This was more than two years ago, and he had remained away ever since. All he carried away was his violin, two chairs and a trunk.

In the hearing of the cross com- plaint the story was different. The testimony was furnished by Mrs. Ford, their two married daughters, Lola Galeb and Edith Edmondson, and son, Lorenzo Ford. The testimony of the family was a unit against the hus- band. Mrs. Ford said they had been married twenty-four years, and the incident that ended their marital ex- istence so far as she was concerned was the one to which her husband had referred, but with different de- tails.

She said she had suspected her hus- band for some time of undue fa- miliarity with his music pupils, but could never get the evidence. On the day referred to she peeped through a partly open door, and saw Ford on his knees in front of the young woman who had come to attend his instruc- tion. The musician was picking his violin with one hand and the other was around the waist of the woman, whom he kissed at intervals and em- braced. This was too much for Mrs. Ford, and she burst into the room, and ordered him away from the house.

"He was talking low to the woman, and she was slowly shaking her head about something, but I could not un- derstand what they were saying," she said. Several others of the family saw the performance, so they tes- tified. The daughters furnished evi- dence against the father, who sat in the rear of the courtroom after his case had been disposed of, and, chuckl- ing immoderately, seemed to enjoy the developments. The court granted Mrs. Ford a decree on her showing.

"She was a Tennesse girl, and always wanted to go back to that State," said Fred Sidney Lino, in his action against his wife, Carrie Lino, heard in Judge James's court, desertion be- ing the charge. Just before Christ- mas, 1904, the wife was found one night softly singing to herself, "In Sunny Tennessee," and the next day she went to Memphis on a visit. "And she never came back," said the plain- tiff, Lino, laughing heartily as if it was a joke on somebody. He got a decree.

Clyde L. Bond was separated from Gertrude L. Bond, on a charge of de- sertion. On January 4, 1908, the wife departed with Randolph Allen; ac- cording to the testimony furnished by the deserted husband and when last heard from were in Arizona. A chubby little boy, aged 5 is left with Bond. The aged mother of Bond wept un- restrainedly as she gave her testimony. She said that Allen was a boarder at the house, and a cousin of the witness. "We thought so much of them both," she said, "and it almost broke my heart when I found that they had gone away together."

CHILD WIFE'S SORROW.

TOLD IN DIVORCE COURT.

A midnight marriage, a letter be- neath a pillow apprising parents that a runaway match had been consum- mated, a "forgive-you-my-children" episode that followed, a baby, a de- sertion—these made up the warp and woof of a narrative in Judge James's court yesterday in an action to annul the marriage of Vivian O. Woehlert and Albert Woehlert. A divorce was asked on the ground that neither party was of marriageable age when the act was consummated.

Vivian Kohn was one of the prettiest girls in Elgin, Ill., and she is still ra- diant in spite of her troubles. For some time she was a student at St. Agnes Convent in Chicago, but she was a chum of Albert C. Woehlert in the town, where the watches come from, and one day when she was visiting at home he proposed that they get mar- ried. At that time she was but 15 years old and he 19. He was accepted, but how to outwit the old folks was the question. Mrs. Kohn, mother of the young woman, tells the story:

"We knew that the young folks were August 21, 1906. Albert came to our house, and he was all dressed up; he said he was going to California, and had come to bid us good-by. At that time he had the marriage license in his pocket. Vivian went to bed that night as usual, but in the morning when I went to call her she was not to be seen. We were much alarmed, but soon discovered under her pillow a letter, informing us that she and Al- bert would be man and wife when this note was received by us. They had run off, and I was afterward informed that they were made man and wife at the stroke of midnight that night. Of course, we made the best of it. We knew they would wake up, and they have."

The young wife, who is the mother of a pretty little baby, confirmed what her mother had said, and the court an- nulled the marriage on the grounds stated.

NIEBEL TROUBLES.

TWO CASES TO BE HEARD.

In Justice Ling's court yesterday two of the Niebel complaints were dis- missed. One of these charged that W. M. Niebel of Long Beach gave false testimony in the Superior Court on his application for divorce from his first wife, Mrs. Talma C. Niebel; the other was against his second wife, Mrs. Frances Niebel, alleging perjury. It was represented that the latter had sworn falsely when she testified that she had served on the first Mrs. Nie- bel a summons in the divorce action. The other charges against Niebel will be heard later. One alleges miscon- duct for living with his present wife before securing a final decree of di- vorce from his first wife; the other al- leges a misdemeanor on the ground that he falsely acknowledged an in- strument while acting as a notary pub- lic.

ASKS FOR DAMAGES.

SIMILARITY OF NAMES.

The Diamond Coal Company is plain- tiff in a case filed in the Superior Court yesterday against the Black Dia- mond Supply Company, in which the claim is made that a busines firm name is an asset, and should be protected by law. It is alleged that the Diamond Coal Company was organized in 1894, and that on March 14, 1907, plaintiff secured an injunction restraining W. A. Oder and W. T. Oder, from using the firm names of Black Diamond Coal and Supply Company, and Black Dia- mond Coal Company. It is further rep- resented that after the action was com- menced the defendants organized the defendant corporation that was not a party to said action, with the result that there has been a loss of trade on the part of the Diamond Coal Company by reason of a similarity of names. Damages amounting to $5000 are asked, and it is also prayed that the defend- ants be enjoined from doing business under the name of the Diamond Coal Company.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

ARGUMENT POSTPONED. The ar- guments in the case of the Robert Crawford Smith contested will matter were to have begun in Judge Rives's court yesterday, but by agreement a postponement was ordered until the 18th inst. There is a mass of evidence with which the attorneys wish to fa- miliarize themselves.

CONDEMNATION SUIT. The city of Los Angeles brought an action yester- day in the Superior Court against Hanorah Crowley, Augustia A. Hell- man and others, asking that the de- fendants be required to set forth their interests in the property proposed to be used in the opening of East Buena Vista street.

JURY DISAGREED. The jury in the case of William Coleman, accused of embezzlement, returned to Judge Da- vis's court yesterday afternoon with the announcement that it was unable to agree, and was discharged. The ju- rors had deliberated on the case since the afternoon before. The complaint against Coleman was filed by J. P. La- brucherie in connection with the dis- position of the proceeds from the sale of furniture in the Ramona rooming house, No. 330½ South Spring street, March 25, 1908.

PINCHOT COMING.

Gifford Pinchot of the United States Forestry Service will visit this city next July. He has always taken a deep interest in the reserves of this State, and his efforts to conserve the waters of the mountain ranges are much appreciated by the fruit growers. In a communication to R. H. Charlton of the local bureau, Mr. Pinchot de- nies that President Taft is preparing to overturn the Roosevelt conservation policies. He states: "I am authorized by the President to say that he is in entire sympathy with the forest policy and plan of conservation as already developed."

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

UNMENTIONABLES HALED TO COURT.

MANAGERS OF ROOMING-HOUSES OUT ON HEAVY BAIL.

Two of Them Plead Not Guilty to Charge of Running Disorderly Es- tablishments and Demand Jury Trial—Woman Shoplifter Faints When Arraigned in Prisoner's Desk.

Charged with violating the retail liquor ordinances and keeping disorderly houses, C. C. Colyear, manager of the Edison Annex, a rooming-house at Fourth and Los Angeles streets, John Foster of the Hotel Bacon, No. 325 East Second street; W. H. Salway of the no- torious Manhatten, No. 115 East Third street, and Bessie Hale of the tough Boston rooming-house, No. 307½ West Second street, were arraigned in Jus- tice Freedrickson's Police Court yes- terday morning.

Kimi Kasada and Harry Sake, Jap- anese waiters, employed at the Man- hatten, were also arraigned. They were placed under $50 bail each, and will enter pleas on Monday morning. The proprietors are at liberty under $200 bail each. Salway will plead Mon- day. Foster and Mrs. Hale pleaded not guilty, and demanded jury trials. They will appear in court on May 11 and May 12.

The defendants were arrested in a raid by the police Wednesday night, in which fifty inmates of the various places were taken to the Police Station and registered. Chief Dishman stated yesterday that the notorious places would have to get out of business and keep out, and that raids against other houses of like reputation would be made unless the proprietors conducted their establishments in a decent man- ner.

At the Edison Annex the police found no inmates, but the arrest of Colyear resulted from evidence secured earlier in the week.

The Manhatten is alleged to be the most notorious place of its kind on the Coast. It is a six-story building, ele- gantly furnished, and has been used as an assignation house for several years. The Bacon has been raided on numer- ous occasions, and the Boston's reputa- tion is unsavory.

The police are prepared with a quan- tity of evidence and exhibits, and will push the prosecution to the limit.

SHOPLIFTER FAINTS.

Mrs. A. Turner of No. 122 North Flower street fainted in Justice Fred- erickson's Police Court, yesterday, when arraigned on a charge of shop- lifting. She was arrested Wednesday night, and when taken to court yester- day morning, fainted soon after being placed in the prisoner's dock.

When she was taken to court in the afternoon to enter a plea she again fainted. She was taken to the Receiv- ing Hospital, where she was quickly revived.

Justice Frederickson fined her $25, which she paid. She was then per- mitted to return to her home.

GOVERNMENT MAY APPEAL.

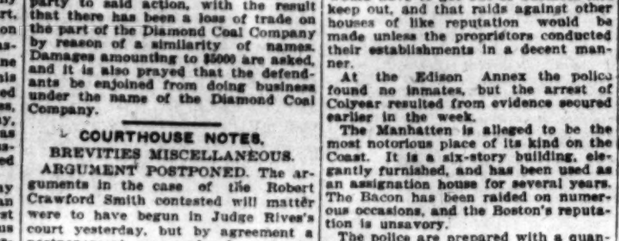
United States District Attorney Says Such Action Is Prospective If Re- hearing Is Denied.

United States District Attorney Mc- Cormick stated yesterday that the re- versal of the decision in the Santa Fé rebate case may be appealed to the Supreme Court, if a petition for re- hearing is denied. He said, however, that he is not prepared to make any definite statement as to the future course of the government until the text of the decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals is carefully studied.

The prosecution has thirty days in which to prepare a petition for rehear- ing. If that were denied, the usual porcedure would be to appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

VOLUNTARY BANKRUPTCY.

Louis T. Stern of San Luis Obispo, filed a voluntary bankruptcy petition in the United States District Court yesterday. His scheduled liabilities are $1800, and assets $3000.



A Question

If you own a player piano we want to ask you a question.

If your player is not an APOLLO, set the tempo at "moderato" (medium) and vary the degree of pressure on the pedals, that is, pump hard and then lightly to get the loud and soft expression; is it not a fact that your tempo accelerates and retards?

This is a defect that is a mechanical impossibility to overcome with an air motor. The APOLLO piano contains a patented automatic spring motor that will run an entire roll of music through and rewind it without pumping. And most important of all, the speed of the spring motor is not controlled by the pressure on the pedals.

This motor is used exclusively in the APOLLO and you cannot expect the salesman who can of- fer you nothing but the old style air motor to tell you that the new motor is the best.

THE OIL INDUSTRY.

ORGANIZATION TALK REVIVED.

Santa Marians See Need for Selling Union.

Big Wells Sighted for Cat Canyon a Problem.

Agencies Should Get Men in Line Quickly.

(STAFF CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

SANTA MARIA, May 5.—The organization movement in this field is showing renewed signs of life with the approach of the time to contract anew for sales. As long as practically all the production was tied up for over a year, so long was interest slack. The fact that there was little immediate production in certain sight last December, also allowed interest to lag.

Now, however, there is something of a change in sentiment noticed. Quite a number of contracts with the Standard expire next year and that time is five months nearer. Fifty cents is the ruling price under all these, notwithstanding that it is a light, high gravity product, including some of the best refining petroleum on the Pacific Coast, and in the ordinary course of events should be worth much more than Kern River's heavy fuel. It is no kind that the Standard is seeking with feverish efforts and for this it has become "the wildest wild cat" on the Pacific Coast. Yet it is sold, except some of the Union's, for 15 cents less than Kern fuel. The law of supply and demand is nullified by the organization of the fuel men and the disorganization of the others. Studying this over, the idea of an agency begins to look pretty good.

Then too, the next sixty days will witness the coming in of several wells in Cat Cañon around the Palmer. The Standard is in oil sand; so are two of the Union's Bell lease; so are the Anderson and Brooks. The New Pennsylvania, Dome and several others are drilling and later are almost certain to yield good wells. Cat Cañon oil is a heavy fuel product. It is without any rail transportation or proximity of any. The Union and Associated have such a pipe line, but should the wells come anywhere within approach of the Palmer, these will be inadequate to move the oil. Result, a chance to sell at all hazards, with competition sure to beat prices from 35 at present, to 25 or 25 cents or less. The remedy is prompt organization to that end has been started in the last ten days, especially among Cat Cañon operators. The New Pennsylvania, Dome, Brooks, Henderson, Palmer and others are known to be favorable. The Palmer has large contracts with the Associated and Union, but these are unable to handle its output, so it should have enough oil and above to put into an agency to form a nucleus for a contract. The proximity of the ocean may give the valley an advantage over the valley. The valley is said to be friendly.

PALMER'S DELIVERIES.

The Palmer gusher has been shut in for the last ten days. It has more oil in hand than the two pipe lines can take. A cement block has had to be put in to prevent the loss hitherto experienced at such times through leakage. The pressure is between 300 and 400 pounds. Earthern reservoir storage is not what it is in Kern River fields and tankage is necessary. Simple methods are used when gushers like the Palmer are brought in and it is impossible altogether to control the flow without provide other immediate storage. The Palmer's output is rapidly decreasing and is now 30,000 barrels at this writing. The Palmer's deliveries, since January 1, have been as follows: January, [illegible] barrels; February, 16,000; March, [illegible]; April, 150,000; total for four months, 253,000; increase for April over March, 80,000; daily average in January, 1200; in April, 4000. This represents actual shipments. In January there was constant trouble with the pipe line and delay in getting all the oil away. In February pumping was delayed for half the month on account of accidents. The opening of new wells near by will, of course, tend to reduce the flow in the Palmer. The Union's Hartnell gusher, [illegible], in the old field, flowed for [illegible] months, and there were others not far away, too. It produced [illegible] in 2,000,000 barrels in this time, and is prophet enough to dare attempt to foretell the Palmer's life as a gusher.

THE OLD FIELD.

The old field's output has declined greatly within the last fifteen months. At one time it was 900,000 a month for a short period. Two years ago the average of twelve months was close to 600,000; last year it was around 5,000,000, but for the Palmer and Cat Cañon it would be below 4,000,000 for the Western Union's returns in the south end of its field continues to make up. This would not be likely to raise the total above 7,000,000.

The Palmer's own output is short of what it was this year, but the difference is made up from the Palmer.

The labor problem is a serious one in the old field although it is easy to say when looked after from the standpoint. The operators are giving it careful consideration and the fear of legislation that would introduce outside influence led to their effective protest at Sacramento that blocked the eight hour law.

CAT CANYON PROBLEM.

The Palmer and the valley agencies will have to watch Cat Cañon. Let two wells, each with a quarter of the Palmer's full capacity—9000 to 10,000 barrels a day unquestionably—or even a much greater proportion of the 4000 now coming in, and the over-production will straightway become a very serious matter. The new markets must be found quickly or prices will tumble. Talk about the probable permanency is quite beside the point. It is a condition to face, not a theory. Organization will be a vital necessity.

APPEALS TO PRESIDENT.

Chamber of Commerce Sends Telegram to Washington Regarding Warships for Elks' Reunion.

For several months the Chamber of Commerce has been making every effort to obtain the consent of the Navy Department to have the Pacific fleet in [illegible]-by waters during the visit of the Elks next July. The Secretary of the Navy stated that this will be impossible, as the warships will be in dry dock undergoing repairs at that time.

As last resort, the chamber has sent a telegram to President Taft, asking his aid. It reads: "The Elks hold their annual reunion here next July. Many thousand loyal citizens from interior States who have never seen any warships will attend the convention. We believe a great opportunity for a grand patriotic demonstration will be lost if the ships are not here.

MINES AND MINING.

ANGELENOS IN MEXICAN MINE.

OPERATING "ANTIGUA" WITH SUCCESS.

Will Build Cyanide Plant in Sonora—Denver Parties Take Over Smelter—Haynes Copper Company Shaft at Jerome Still in Porphyry Schist—Old Mine Again Active.

The Maria Consolidated (in which many Los Angeles people are interested,) operating the Yeso and the Gloria, two old silver producers, forty miles east of Hermosillo, Mex., is to build a 200-ton cyanide plant, fifty tons of which will be in operation July 1, according to W. L. Bell, general manager, now in Los Angeles buying machinery.

Development since October shows the property in good shape, the company having 60,000 tons blocked running about twenty ounces silver.

There are several ledges carrying good values and averaging five feet across, some of which have been followed continuously for over 6000 feet.

A shaft down 300 feet is to be continued to 500. The ore bodies are large and asserted to be permanent, and the company expects to make a good showing when the plant is in full operation.

A Chicago crowd, headed by Burdick brothers, is installing machinery to unwater the old San Antone mine, preparatory to extensive development. The San Antone is one of the famous old producers of the Galvan district, its silver of high value, and one of the best known of the old Sonora mines.

The Sonora Mining and Smelting Company is reported ready to resume after an extended idleness. It owns a good property, equipped with a 100-ton smelter and full surface machinery, and is capable of large production. Denver parties have recently secured this mine, and will start the smelter on customs work in a short time, it is asserted.

Forty miles southwest of Hermosillo, the Lluvia de Cobre, another old silver producer with a good record, has started work, and is making a good showing. Tom Lake, an old-time Arizona mining man, is in charge of the new work.

The Sierra Plata mine has been sold by Capt. J. C. Besley to a Lexington, Ky., crowd for $40,000, and work is to be carried on on a big scale by the new owners, who have retained Capt. Besley to manage the property.

This mine is located in the Magdalena district, Sonora, and is regarded as one of the promising mines of the district, with the best surface showing of any in the State. It contains large bodies of good silver, and only needs development to bring into profitable production.

Giroux Mexican Mines.

The Cole Ryan Syndicate, which recently took over the Giroux properties at Ely, Nev., and Carbo, Mex., plans important improvements at the last named. The Sultana, thirty miles east of Carbo, has shown up so favorably with recent development that the Cole people are quietly acquiring options on all likely-looking claims in the neighborhood, and, according to reliable information, will overhaul and remodel the present smelter, leaching and concentrating works, transforming these experimental plants into modern mills. The Sultana is said to be one of the best mines in Sonora, but its development has been seriously retarded by the Yaqui troubles, it being located in the heart of the Yaqui country, and having had four of five superintendents killed by these hostiles. Many cars have been shipped from this property that netted better than $1000.

Its ore is peculiar, running to good values in gold, silver and copper, and will be developed for all three. A large force is blocking out ore, and additional men will be put to work as soon as the alterations are completed. The present smelter is 100 tons capacity, but this, it is understood, is to be greatly enlarged.

The improvements comprise a standard gauge railroad from Carbo to Ures, sixty miles distant, to afford an outlet for the mines and incidentally to tap a rich section of Sonora River bottom agricultural lands.

Still in Ore.

The Haynes Copper Company shaft at Jerome is still in the porphyry schist, the best ore indication of the Jerome (Ariz.) district, but progress is slow, as timbering is necessary. Mining men are awaiting the outcome of this sinking with interest on account of the continuance of the schist to the depth, it being the opinion that the sulphide will be soon struck.

The shaft is in this schist for thirty-five feet.

United Verde operation has proven that copper will be found below this strata which overlies the big ore bodies of the district. The Haynes will sink to the 700 level and even if the porphyry is not penetrated at that depth will drift to the ledge, known to be over 900 feet wide. Mining men assert that the ore body should be cut at any moment.

Shipping Lead Ore.

The old San Barnabe mine at Zacatecas, Mex., is shipping lead and copper ore again. This old mine was the first to be discovered in Zacatecas in 1546 and was a big producer under the Spanish régime. Some time ago it was optioned to a British syndicate, but was dropped after thousands had been spent in an attempt to unwater the shaft. Lately it has been rehabilitated and placed in the producing class.

High-Grade Streak.

The Marigold Lease on Rawhide Coalition ground yesterday opened a high-grade ten-inch streak, according to word received last night, in the south drift on the 160-foot level, that assays nearly $1200 to the ton.

The south drift is now producing the same grade of ore as the north, averaging $400 a ton.

The Grutt Mining Company, on Coalition estate, is sinking on a two-foot shoot of ore that goes better than $350. In the new shaft some 150 feet [illegible] Grutt Mine [illegible]

You don't have to scour and scrape and polish—add a heaping tablespoonful of Gold Dust to a pail of hot water. It will make your floors milky white, and save your strength.

Gold Dust cuts grease and dirt, and asks so little aid from you that it's really a pleasure to keep your home dirtless and dainty.

It searches out dirt, germs and impurities in every crack and cranny, cleanses and purifies wherever and whatever it touches—and injures nothing.

An ounce of Gold Dust is worth a pound of elbow grease.

and expects to make a shipment next week. Values appear to be improving with depth, according to reports. The Dayton-Toledo has opened a rich shoot of shipping ore in the south drift on the 350-foot level, four-foot samples assaying high.

The Miners' lease is also said to be showing up some good assays, having been obtained across four feet in the bottom of the new shaft.

Never Before Such Bargains in Second Hand and Slightly Damaged

PIANOS

Since commencing this memorable sale we have had daily occasion to augment the bargain numbers by the addition of extra pianos as fast as they can be put through the shop. We had a number of new pianos damaged in transit and some few more injured by workmen in fitting out the upper floors of the Fitzgerald Building. About twenty of these instruments will come down from the shop this morning. All will be spick and span and many cannot be distinguished from new pianos. One beautiful new Gabler, with case broken on one corner, has been entirely restored, and, though every bit as good as new, it is not up to our standard of a new piano. A substantial reduction is made on it, treating it just the same as a second-hand piano. Others similarly damaged will be treated the same. All these will be placed on sale this morning with others already offered, constituting a choice of over half a hundred handsome instruments at a fraction of their value and with the first payment already provided for in the coupon below.

What matters it that skies are gray?
There are seads of roses on the way.

If this fog business keeps up we don't see but a man might as well live in San Francisco.

Let us change the song a little on Mothers' Day and sing: "Everybody works but mother."

If it be true that the people of Mars can see us, we hope they turn the other way on certain occasions.

It seems that every time a Christian turns the other cheek to a Turk, the Turk takes another slash at it.

"Counterfeit $100 bills are plentiful," says a report. That's more than can be said for genuine $100 bills.

You may have noticed that a whisky drummer now skips a great many towns that he used to call at regularly.

The use of a navy is really to do away with war. Gen. Sherman said war is hell. But let us not get too gay.

As the truth of what the Turks did to Christians gradually leaks through, we see what a damnable beast the Turk is.

We trust you are preparing for Mothers' Day by preparing to do all mother's work and let her have the day entirely off.

THE REIGN OF ABDUL THE DAMNED.

The reign of that wily old fox, Abdul Hamid, was disastrous for Turkey. He came to the throne in 1876 upon the deposition of his brother, adjudged insane. At that time the Turkish empire spread north and northwest to the Danube. The empire also exercised suzerainty on the north bank of the river as far as Roumania. To the extreme northwest Bosnia and Herzegovina were effectively a part of Turkey. So was Servia, also Bulgaria, and the Montenegrins were subject to Turkish rule. Southward the Turkish frontier extended much farther than at the present time, while in Asia the Caucasus Mountains were the boundary. Among the islands of the Levant Turkish sway extended over Cyprus and Crete, and the Sultan ruled all Egypt down into the Soudan.

In the thirty years of the reign of Abdul Hamid the Turks lost all control over Roumania, Servia, Bulgaria, Montenegro, and the other day Bosnia and Herzegovina were turned over to Austria. The Grecian frontier crept far northward. Crete and Cyprus slipped out of the hands of the Turks. All influence of the Porte in Africa went where the woodbine twineth, followed by the provinces in the Caucasus. That is a bad record for even a Turkish Sultan to leave behind him as he is deposed by violence from his throne.

His successor steps into his place at the age of 65 years, gray with the lapse of time, but still little more than a child in experience of the ways of the world and particularly in the duties that devolve upon the ruler of an empire. His days have been spent in idleness and a seclusion that has shut him out from participation in the affairs of his own country and from intimate knowledge of what was going on in the world outside. If he came to the throne under ordinary circumstances and with normal conditions prevailing in the empire he is to rule over, his task would be onerous. To grasp the strenuous duties of the present, as Turkey is today, seems to be utterly beyond the ability of a man whose virile strength has been sapped by the indulgences of a luxurious and idle life. The new Sultan never was endowed with very great mental ability. What he has is not only undeveloped, but corrupted, by the life he has led.

The record of Abdul's reign in the loss of territory as sketched above indicates a moribund empire. Whether the decay can be arrested is exceedingly problematical. The new Sultan is scheduled to play the rôle of a mere figurehead. It is not at all clear yet who is to be the real head of the new government. The installing of parliamentary methods among a people such as the Turks would require the highest ability, the most mellow wisdom and almost infinite patience, under any circumstances. In the conditions of turmoil that prevail in Turkey and with the nominal head of the government an imbecile, the task must be vastly greater.

When we pick up our paper morning by morning and read of the murder, rapine and destruction of property in Asiatic Turkey, consider the stupidity and ignorance of the mass of the Mohammedan population, their intense religious bigotry and their natural racial ferocity, the future of the old empire certainly looks gloomy in the extreme.

THE NEEDED EDUCATION.

Comment on the issue before the jury in the Mitchell-Thayer case now on trial would be out of order at this time, but how can one help speaking of the squalid picture of distressing family life presented to the court? It gives the morally sane reader a heartache and causes many a parent to shudder. We bespeak the attention of the Mothers' Congress and the Fathers' Duma (if there be such an institution) to this case. If it suggests anything but pity and wonderment, 'tis this—that a course of education in the training of children is more urgently needed as an addition to our curricula than are lectures on the philosophy of Nietzsche and the beauties of Oscar Wilde. But the question is, where shall we find our professors? Maiden ladies need not apply.

MOTHER.

They tell us that in many places the next blessed Sabbath day that dawns is to be set aside entirely in honor of mother. It is a good thought to make a day like that, and still a better thought to select the Sabbath day. "Remember the day, to keep it holy," said the Lord. To keep the day for mother—that's to keep it holy. Blessed be the day, as mother is blessed; and blessed be the name of the Lord.

We trust that it will prove a great day for mother. The children should gather around her—the little children and the grown-up children as well, if it be that she is old. And if there be a day for mothers at all, it should be mostly for the mothers who are old.

It should be a happy day for mother, as it doubtless will, and yet she will be lonely. Oh, the loneliness of mothers! Only the good God knows about that. How little he thinks of it who goes wandering over the hills and far away, with the pipes of the morning singing at his lips. We go as we will, following our rainbows, eager-eyed for the luring world that lies without, but mother stays. She stays with the ache in her heart.

We go, jauntily and singing, and we leave her behind. But there comes a day when we would give all the world, were it ours to give, had we but stayed with her. The world that we went to find makes hard pillows, and the songs it sings are not the songs that mother sang to us, soft and low, in the happy twilights. Other arms have been 'round us, but never arms like hers; we learn to know that in the end when it is too late.

God grant the day may be the happiest that mother has ever known. Let it be the greatest day we have ever made—Mothers' Day, with roses for her hair and lilies for her feet.

PROSPERITY ON THE WING.

In every quarter all the signs point to the return of better business conditions. As the pagan priests in old times used to say, the auspices are favorable. Now, the word "auspices" comes from the exercise of the priestly functions. In its root it signifies "bird appearance." The priest stood upon an elevation and scanned the sky. As the birds of the air came into his field of vision he construed the auspices to be favorable or unfavorable. As the prophet of prosperity stands upon the high places in these days he sees promises of better business conditions for the immediate future.

Immigration is increasing at a rapid pace. More foreign people came into the United States in March, by three times, this year than last. The news quickly goes abroad that the demand for labor is better than it was, and immediately the idle people of Europe come across to secure the waiting jobs.

These immigrants bring more than their labor with them. Most of them have a little loose change in their pockets, and some of them bring quite considerable sums of money. They put this at once into circulation and thus help in creating better conditions in which they find an opportunity of selling their labor or going into business. With thousands of new people set to work, the demand for all the necessaries of life is enlarged and the wheels of enterprise are set in motion.

Another auspice of the highest significance is the increased importation of raw materials for use in our manufactures. The month of March showed an immense gain in these imports, which amounted to one-third of all the goods brought into the country. If we consider the nine months of the fiscal year with the month of March, the value was $325,306,947, and this was $42,000,000 greater than for the same period in the previous year and only $20,000,000 less than for the most prosperous of all years in our history, 1907.

Another good sign is the slackness in the imports of finished materials ready for consumption. This means that we are keeping our money at home and leaving a place to be filled with home-made articles. For the nine months under consideration the value of all finished products imported amounted to $221,113,376. This was the smallest total for three years for a similar period, being about $50,000,000 less than the average of the two preceding years. The people are practicing close economy, liquidating their obligations or accumulating capital for further activities.

There is one somewhat discouraging element in the situation. Exports of all kinds for the nine months of the fiscal year, which we have been considering, amount to $1,297,000,000, or $177,000,000 less than the average of the two preceding years. But for the large exportation of cotton at very high prices the showing would be worse. Raw cotton is bringing into the country $30,000,000 to $40,000,000 a month.

HOW GREAT BRITAIN RAISES REVENUE.

The discussion going on in the Senate at Washington over the tariff bill, touching the imposition of inheritance and income taxes, makes the raising of revenue in England peculiarly interesting at this time.

The Department of Commerce and Labor has recently published a report on the revenues derived by the British government, from which it appears that the inheritance taxes return $90,000,000 to $95,000,000, or about 20 per cent. of all the internal revenue. According to this report, during the last year the receipts from internal revenue were as follows: Inheritance tax, $94,230,039; excise duties, $180,220,094; income tax, $168,668,023; total internal receipts, $443,119,156.

By this British system of taxation a tax on estates yields 75 per cent. of the whole. This is levied on legacies, succession, probate and many minor classifications. To escape taxation, estates must be valued under $500. On those between $500 and $2500 valuation the tax is 1 per cent.; then, to $5000, 2 per cent. So the rate increases in proportion to the value of the estate until a tax of 10 per cent. is levied upon all estates between $3,750,000 and $5,000,000 value. Over the top figure the rate is still further increased. For instance, an estate valued at $15,000,000 or more would pay 10 per cent. on $5,000,000 valuation and 15 on all the remainder.

It seems that under the exempt clause 18,138 estates are not taxed at all. Under the first classification above there are 6374 estates in the United Kingdom, in the second classification 10,782, and between the $5000 and the $50,000 class there are 17,356 estates. Small estates seem to be few in number in the United Kingdom, as there is a larger number valued at from $5000 to $50,000 than those worth $500 and less. There were only 2 estates in the $15,000,000 class and only 274 worth over half a million. In the valuation, real and personal property go together. Of the total number of estates taxed during the last year, 67,533, the total valuation reached $1,373,784,550. Of these $1,000,000,000 and more represented personal property, and half of this property was included in "proprietary shares or debentures of public companies."

On legacies the taxes amounted to $20,000,000, on valuations reaching $400,000,000. The rate is 1 per cent. on a legacy to a child or grandchild, a father or a mother, or other lineal ancestor of the deceased. On a legacy going to one not a blood relation the tax is 10 per cent. To a brother or a sister it is 3, and to an uncle or an aunt 5. The report states that "about 4000 estates each year are above $50,000 and pay the bulk of the inheritance taxes."

There has been too much talk about the English in the world's affairs. It is better to say "Britishers." The civil government, the army and the navy of Great Britain and Ireland are all in the hands of Britishers and Irish—or, more properly, in the hands of Welsh, Irish and Scotch Celts. Read the names.

"So the heart be right, it is no matter which way the head lies," said Sir Walter Raleigh. No; it is the way the tongue lies that makes most of the trouble.

EUROPEAN TAXATION.

We often lose sight of one inevitable effect of the excessive taxation imposed upon the peoples of Europe. In Belgium, for example, the taxes on investments of every kind are so multitudinous and onerous that the capitalists of Belgium go abroad to Russia, Switzerland and over the wide world seeking opportunities to loan their money or establish enterprises which will not be touched by the assessors of their own country.

Taxation in Germany and England is piling up at such a colossal rate that capitalists in these countries are following the example set for years past by the Belgians. Germany is in great need of money to develop her own resources, but the weight of taxation imposed upon every enterprise and upon all incomes in the empire is so heavy that the funds so much needed at home are driven abroad to seek opportunities of earning revenues which will not be eaten up.

England is less in need of capital than Germany, as indicated by the much lower rate of interest prevailing at the Bank of England than at the Reichsbank in Berlin. But the enormous burden of building at least four Dreadnoughts a year, added to the maintenance of the great fleet already existing, and the latest effort of the British government to pay old-age pensions, which must be raised by taxation, are having the same effects in England as in Germany and Belgium.

The capital driven away from home investment comes largely to the United States. Of course Australia gets a good deal of English capital, and much German capital is going into Brazil. But all these countries are sending their funds to the United States, where taxation is so much lighter, while interest is generally higher, than in Europe. We are benefiting from the taxation under which Europe groans.

HOROSCOPE.

BY COZETTE.

Three royal stars this day shine true and bright
On hearts courageous and on honor bright.

Jupiter, in square with the moon, on this 127th day of the year is a fortunate planet, influencing happily the ways of men who combine high reason with scrupulous honor. It rules money and wealth, but inclines its subjects to extravagance.

Venus, in parallel with Mars, promises success to lovers of resolute character and courage. Weddings or engagements between high-minded, calm and strong people are under an excellent sign.

These twenty-four hours are indicated as being exceptionally favorable for engaging men for any work, whether clerical, manual or domestic.

Jupiter's power in today's position has always been held highly favorable for commerce, especially for new business undertakings or the opening of new shops and offices.

Venus and Mars are fortunate for milliners, drapers, dressmakers, caterers, perfumers, painters, florists, chemists, doctors, surgeons, physicians, and all whose professions or trades make necessary the use of pointed or sharp instruments or tools.

Quarrel and fickleness must be avoided by women with this birthdate. Men and women both should succeed in business and social affairs during the twelvemonth.

Children are born this day under a sign promising commercial and engineering faculties, but also indicating emotional passions and stubborn adherence to real or fancied rights. They should be trained to exact fairness and justice and to generosity and forbearance.

Pulpit Vaudeville.

The Chicago pastor who sent out letters to a number of young men and women asking their opinions of "the ideal wife" and "the ideal husband," in order to base sermons on the answers, must have some exceptionally patient individuals in his congregation if they are willing to stand for such nonsense. The subject of matrimony offers a legitimate opportunity for sensible and instructive and helpful sermons, but it is not necessary to introduce the methods of cheap vaudeville, though these latter will certainly draw the crowds. Nine questions were sent to young women, and they are about as senseless as can be imagined. This may be the kind of a church service to attract a certain class of silly young persons, but what good will it do them? Might they not just as well be spending their time in the nearest nickelodeon? The dignity and sacredness of matrimony are not enhanced by such exhibitions in the pulpit. But, as we have been told before, "everything goes in Chicago."—[Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

MEN OF NOTE IN DAILY LIFE.

One of Taft's Rebukes.

When Mr. Taft became Secretary of War a case of egregious negligence came to his attention. He summoned the offending clerk. By the time the delinquent reached the Secretary's office Mr. Taft's face was flushed with irritation, and, as he entered, a very solid and powerful fist descended upon the Secretarial table in emphasis of the impending rebuke. The clerk flushed in swift responsiveness with his chief's angry eye upon him.

For a moment Mr. Taft hesitated; the earthquake seemed to dread doing more damage than was needed to produce a stable equilibrium. Then the familiar, friendly Taft smile resumed its ordinary position, and the Secretary, putting a kindly hand upon his subordinate's shoulder, asked him, in most friendly fashion, why the dickens he couldn't profit to give himself, his department and his chief a square and honest deal. The War Department ever since has had a clerk who is a paragon for industry.

Must Be Something Wrong.

Admiral Robley Evans tells the following story against himself. He had a Congressman for a guest, and having run out of his favorite brand of whisky, made up with some he could not guarantee. He explained this, and added:

"Here, however, is some brandy that I've kept untouched for a good deal more than twenty years."

"Hand me over the whisky decanter," was the rejoinder.

"Why?" asked the admiral. "What's the matter with the brandy?"

"That's what I want to know, Bob," said the guest; "but if you have had it untouched in your possession for more than twenty years, there must be something pretty bad the matter with it."

Looks Were Against Him.

An erratic Memphis editor was a great admirer of John Sharp Williams, though he had never met him. This editor in blind faith printed column after column in praise of the "gentleman from Yazoo." There was not an edition that didn't have something exalting Williams, and one day "John Sharp," on his way home from Washington, dropped off at Memphis to get something to eat in the railroad restaurant. It was early in the morning, and the editor was eating at the same place, after a night of work. The proprietor called the Congressman's attention to the editor.

"John," said the restaurant manager, "that fellow over there has been saying some pretty nice things about you."

"I'd like to meet him," said Williams. So the editor was brought over and introduced. He rubbed his hands across his face wearily several times and said:

"Williams? Williams? What? The Congressman?"

"Yes," modestly assented that gentleman, "the same."

"You're not John Sharp Williams?"

"There's no question about my identity," began the somewhat exasperated Williams, rather angrily.

"Well, all I can say is," muttered the editor as he shook hands with the statesman, "you're a sight brighter than you look."

Called Too Early.

"The vindication of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley is a great triumph," said a diplomat, "for pure food." Dr. Wiley tells the truth, and the truth is poison to certain types of food producers."

"Dr. Wiley was talking the other day about the painfulness of truth," he resumed. "He said truth-minded him of a morning call that he once made on a young lady in his youth.

"In answer to his ring a tiny tot of a girl opened the door, and Dr. Wiley said to her as he went into the hall:

"'Where is your auntie, Mabel?'

"'Upstairs in her nightie,' chirped the child, 'a-lookin' over the balustrade.'"

MUSIC AND THE STAGE

Those who attend the benefit performance to be given at the Belasco Theater this afternoon for the building fund of the Los Angeles Theatre will be treated to a programme of variety and excellence. The usual benefit drags through nearly four hours, many minutes of which are interesting, but the makers of this

Mrs. Le Grand Reed, who will sing in the Los Angeles Orphans' Home benefit at the Belasco this afternoon.

We endeavored to make novelty an exemptness their aim, rather than quantity and length.

The sale of seats indicates a crowded house.

One of the strong features of the programme will be the first local appearance of Mrs. Mary Reed of Toronto, Can., who is visiting friends here. Mrs. Reed, who is better known as Mrs. LeGrand Reed, is one of the principal pupils of Jean de Reszke and has recently been soloist with Paur, Damrosch and Herbert orchestras. Her voice is a dramatic soprano of great warmth and brilliancy. The Belasco Theater orchestra will accompany her in an aria from "Boheme," and Mrs. M. Hennion Robinson will play for her in several smaller selections.

The benefit performance will commence promptly at 2 o'clock, and it is suggested that the entire list of numbers will be concluded by 5 o'clock. The music for the occasion will be furnished by the combined orchestras of the Belasco and Grand Operahouses. The gross receipts of the performance will be turned over, intact, to the Orphanage committee.

The Woman's Orchestra, under the direction of Harley Hamilton, will open the bill.

Other numbers, in order, are a Von Tilzer character song, in costume, by Miss Adele Farrington; the Gounod number, "Ave Maria," by Mrs. Albert Carlos Jones; Norworth's "Take Me Down to the Ball Game," Fay Bainter; three Irish songs, sung by Mrs. Reed; a concert waltz, played by Mrs. Natalee Loeb-Jones; the third act of "A Night on Broadway," by the Murray and Mack company; an excerpt from "Boheme," by Mrs. Reed; Florence Reed and the Belasco Theater company in the fourth act of Jerome K. Jerome's comedy, "Miss Hobbs," and the Newsboys' band, under the direction of George Hicks.

The patronesses of the benefit this afternoon will be: Mrs. Allan C. Balch, Mrs. H. E. Andrews, Mrs. John Bicknell, Mrs. Guy Barham, Mrs. Ernest A. Grant, Mrs. Harry Chandler, Mrs. Frank S. Chapman, Mrs. Sam T. Clover, Mrs. Kaspare Cohn, Mrs. A. J. Cosby, Mrs. J. W. Dawson, Mrs. E. I. Dewey, Mrs. W. E. Dunn, Mrs. T. E. Gibbon, Mrs. Albert Carlos Jones, Mrs. William G. Kerckhoff, Mrs. Charles Lockwood, Mrs. Albert Moore, Mrs. Richard Neisser, Mrs. E. N. Neustadt, Mrs. Joseph D. Radford, Mrs. Willoughby Rodman, Mrs. Albert Solano and Mrs. I. N. Van Nuys.

The Passmore trio of San Francisco will give two popular concerts in Richard Hall, one this evening and another tomorrow afternoon. The Passmore sisters have won an enviable reputation in the North, and have just returned from Berlin, where they have been studying and concertizing. Though they are not known here, yet by reputation, many people are interested themselves in their forthcoming concerts, and the attendance should be good.

The trio is composed of violin, 'cello and piano.

The programme for this evening will include the Mozart trio in G Major, the Bach Chaconne for violin alone, and the Tschaikowsky "Memoriam" in A Minor, Op. 50.

Harriet Van Pelt, who created the part in "Lonesome Town," and who played that part here with Kolb and Dill last season, has rejoined those players and will appear with them at the Majestic next Sunday night as the Republican mayoralty candidate in "The Politicians," which is announced for a third week. Mr. Van Pelt, whose home is in Los Angeles, has just closed a twenty-six weeks engagement on the Orpheum circuit, playing one of Lillian Burkhardt's parts.

Percy Girard, composer of "The Belle" for which Joseph Blethen wrote the book, and who is now directing rehearsals of "The Circus Girl" at the Burbank Theater, received a telegram from Mr. Blethen yesterday which, after a hurried reading, declares to be far superior to the "Old North" opera.

Frederick Horne is now installed as manager of the Orpheum Theater. Horne is the man who can outdo Houdini in his own tricks, but as a treasurer and job on the Orpheum circuit is a step to better things, he doubtless finds his new place a more pleasant one than possibility of professional dangerous stunts.

Mr. Sonnenberg, former treasurer, left Honolulu for a number of years and is now in the general office of Martin Beck, in Chicago.

Mr. H. Blackwood closed a contract yesterday for the stock rights to "Cat and the Mouse." It is now playing for the first time, and at very good royalty.

Mr. Moore will tender another chamber concert with his band at Central Park this afternoon. This will be one in Mr. Moore's campaign series along the line of the community band project.

An excellent programme of classics and popular selections has been ar-

SUNSHINE OF MOTHER LOVE.

Pervades the Air of "City of the Angels."

Scarlet Heart and White Carnation Rule.

Grand Ball and Card Party This Evening.

The needy mothers of Los Angeles had the town yesterday. With the three-score booths in business houses, the excursion to the beach and the benefit matinée at the Auditorium, the air was everywhere redolent with the memory of God's greatest gift to the world—the hand that rocks the cradle.

The button of the scarlet heart and the white carnation adorn the breast of men and women alike, and many thousands of them were sold during the day. In addition to the hundreds of women connected with the booths where the souvenirs were sold, the headquarters of the Mothers' Congress in the Chamber of Commerce building was filled with a busy throng all day, as it has been for days in advance. All the supplies of every description pass through this clearing-house, and their distribution to those who are to sell them has required a vast amount of labor, all of which has been accomplished without any expense whatever.

The event of yesterday was the matinée at the Auditorium, and the highest hopes of the Mothers' Congress were realized, in the clearing of probably $350, to be added to the Mothers' fund.

The capacious stage of the Auditorium, which has held many benefit performances, was in lively working order, as actors and actresses from the different theaters of the city, together with numerous professional musicians devoted a part of their time to the good cause of Mothers' Day.

There was a large and appreciative audience in front, and the entrance was flanked by numerous flower girls and still other girls who bore the little button of the scarlet heart. The sales of these trophies were flourishing, indeed, for no man and but few women dared to go by without taking one.

QUICK WORK OF ACTORS.

The programme was opened by the entire Belasco Theater Company, presenting the first act of "The Dollar Mark." The Belasco people were hurried over in carriages, and their act prefaced by a bare few minutes their regular performance at the Belasco Theater. The carriages for the service were donated by the Westlake Stables, the Orr & Edwards Company, and by Booth & Boyiston.

The stage manager was Dick Ferris. Mr. Ferris hustled in shirt-sleeved energy most of the afternoon, and when not actually engaged in rounding up the benefit stragglers, was busily studying the role of Armand Duval in "Camille," which he played later in the day.

Another festive company was the Grand Operahouse chorus, who came in their Yama-Yama clown costumes, to support Miss Lillie Sutherland in singing her Yama-Yama song, which was the Murray & Mack contribution to the entertainment.

Other acts followed the first in rapid succession. The Belasco Theater orchestra was split in half, Manager Blackwood sending part over to play for the benefit, while others of the musicians remained to play the regular music for "The Dollar Mark" matinée.

Florence Stone, assisted by Mr. Ferris, William Yerance and Miss Carroll Marshall, gave a scene from "Camille" greatly pleasing the audience.

Other numbers on the programme included Miss Bessie Nielsen, violinist; Walter Berlin, in a monologue; Lidelle Mayne-Windsor, lyric soprano, in several fine selections; Mae Blumway Enderby, in a most striking pantomimic Greek dance; the Stone string quartette, in the adagio of Haydn's "Emperor" quartette; Charles Farwell Edson, basso, in one of his own songs; Miss Lottie Buisseret, in delightfully-executed violin solos, accompanied by her sister, Miss Agnes Buisseret; Harry Girard, composer of "The Alaskan," in songs; Miss Fay Bainter, in songs; Miss MacGowan and Edgar Thompson, in a scene from "Pygmalion and Galatea," and Miss Gertrude Allyn Long, in her own songs.

GO HAPPILY TO SEASIDE.

There was no happier feature of the Mothers' Day festivities, which opened yesterday, than the mothers' excursion to Playa del Rey over the Los Angeles-Pacific Railway. This was not an excursion of indigent mothers, but of mothers who, for various reasons, could not take a day at the beach. Four carloads of them left the Hill-street station under the chaperonage of a number of hostesses appointed by the Mothers' Congress. In order that they might have no trouble whatever over their day's enjoyment, the mothers were furnished with lunch by ladies of the fraternal societies, and were relieved of every possible care for the day. Sixty old ladies from the Hollenbeck Home were brought over to the Los Angeles-Pacific station on special cars of the Los Angeles Railway Company, without charge, and returned to the Home in the same way when they got back from the beach. The cars to the beach were generously furnished by the Los Angeles-Pacific without charge, together with freedom of the pavilion at Playa del Rey.

Today there will be another excursion of the same kind to Long Beach, over the Pacific Electric Railway, leaving the station at Sixth and Main streets promptly at 10 o'clock a.m. The hostesses for the day will be headed by Mrs. Dana Bartlett, and the cars will be furnished without cost by the railway company.

SOUVENIR-SELLING ARMY.

The mothers' fund booths, to the number of fifty or more, scattered through the stores, banks, hotels and public buildings, did a thriving business yesterday, in charge of the ladies of the churches. Today the booths will be in the same places, and will be presided over by ladies representing the fraternal societies.

The Shriners will have charge at the Hotel Angelus, under Mrs. O. H. Zaiser, Queen of the Daughters of Isis, on both Friday and Saturday. She will be assisted by Mrs. W. H. Mead and twenty wives and daughters of Shriners. At the Alexandria the Elks will be represented by Mrs. Leo Youngworth, assisted by Miss Myra Smith, Miss Frankie Wiles and Miss Mabel Wiles. The Royal Court will be at the Hayward, Eastern Star at the Lankershim, Ladies of the Maccabees at the Van Nuys, Fraternal Brotherhood at the Westminster, Tribe of Ben Hur at the Hollenbeck, the Foresters at the Nadeau and the Rebekahs at the Natick and Rosslyn. Some of the above orders will also have several booths in the different business houses, and, in Catholic Order of Foresters, Knights of Columbus and Ladies of Woodcraft.

GAY TIMES AT HOTELS.

At the Alexandria and Angelus hotels magnificent decorations have been put up and fine music programmes will be given each evening. At the former, Mrs. Youngworth and her aids took charge last night, and the Elks turned out in force to make the opening auspicious for their end of the mothers' fund.

A brilliant society event will be the grand ball and card party at the Goldberg-Bosley Assembly Hall, Sixteenth and Flower streets, tonight. It will be under the auspices of the fraternal societies, Mrs. James T. Neighbours, chairman. The Shriners, Elks and all the other societies will be largely represented, and it will be one of the gayest gatherings of the year. The proceeds all go to the mothers' fund. For those who do not care to attend the ball, the hotel concerts have been prepared, and it is to be expected that they will prove popular.

It is remarkable how this movement to help destitute mothers has taken hold of the people of the city, notwithstanding the splendid sentiment that goes with it. It is but a few weeks since Mrs. Lee sprung her idea of a permanent charity fund upon the country, as a practical part of the Mothers' Day celebration, but it has won proclamations from four Governors of States, Mayors without number, and has enveloped Los Angeles like a California sunbeam.

Saturday will be woman's club day for the fund, and then will come the preaching of "Mother" sermons in hundreds of pulpits on Sunday, and the final great mass meeting in the Auditorium on Sunday afternoon.

HOTEL MAN TESTIFIES.

A brief hearing was held before Lynn Helm, referee in bankruptcy, yesterday in regard to some of the accounts of D. M. Linnard, the well-known hotel man, who went into bankruptcy some time ago. Mr. Linnard testified in regard to various transactions between himself and W. G. Johnson, his partner. He told of the enterprises he aided in promoting, including the Maryland Hotel Company, the Pasadena Hotel Company, the Crown City Investment Company and the Casa Grande Hotel Company. The hearing was continued until next week Thursday. It is understood that the hotels are not involved in the personal failure of Mr. Linnard.

GETS TOO MUCH GAS.

Defective Automatic Jet Comes Near Proving Fatal to Midnight Seeker After Light.

A defective automatic gas lighter in the room of William Williams at No. 1801 South Flower street, very nearly caused his death last Wednesday night.

Williams is employed as a gardner by Dr. Walker of No. 1718 South Flower street. At 9 o'clock Wednesday night, he arose and attempted to light the gas by pulling a small string attached to the jet.

The gas was turned on but the spark did not work. Williams went back to bed without noticing the trouble. He was unconscious when found yesterday morning, but was revived at the Receiving Hospital.

LAWLER CAUTIOUS.

Declines to Express Opinion on the Santa Fe Rebate Case at Present.

Oscar Lawler, Assistant Attorney-General, arrived yesterday from Washington, where he went several weeks ago to take up the duties of his new office. He will remain in Los Angeles some time, settling his private affairs and attending to several cases in which the law firm of which he is head is interested.

"Life in Washington is very pleasant," said the former United States District Attorney for this district, "but, after all, there is no State like California and no city like Los Angeles. I naturally miss my old friends and associates." He spoke in warm praise of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger, his official superior, and of Atty.-Gen. Wickersham.

Inasmuch as he tried the famous Santa F rebate case in which Federal Judge Wellborn fined the railroad $230,000, he expressed much interest in the reversal by the Circuit Court of Appeals.

"Until I see a copy of the full decision, I would not care to express any opinion," said he. "If the case ever came back for trial, it would simply mean, I take it, that the defense would have an opportunity to introduce certain evidence that was excluded at the former trial. That evidence, of course, might be controverted by testimony of government witnesses."

Mr. Lawler called upon his successor as United States District Attorney, and wished Mr. McCormick every success in the prosecution of government matters. He passed much of his time yesterday greeting old friends.

LADIES' RECEPTION.

The Southern California Waiters' Association will give an invitation ladies' reception this evening at its club rooms, No. 221½ West Fourth street. There will be orchestra music and entertainment, and refreshments will be served.

FINE ARTS ALUMNI.

A meeting of the alumni of the College of Fine Arts of the University of Southern California is to be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the college building in Garvanza. A general invitation has been extended to graduates. Plans are to be made for the commencement luncheon June 17.

HARRIMAN HAS COMPETITORS.

Phelps-Dodge Company Is Planning Road.

Mapping Surveys Are Not for Southern Pacific.

Town of Jerome May Move Down the Hill.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

PHOENIX, May 5.—Seemingly authentic information has come from Douglas to the effect that the mysterious planning surveys southward from that city are not at all in the interest of the Southern Pacific, as had been supposed, but are the beginning of a raid upon the supremacy that had been secured Harriman in Northwestern Mexico through the construction of the Randolph lines. It is now alleged that the surveys are being made for the Phelps-Dodge Company and are for an extension of the El Paso and Southwestern Railroad system from Douglas southward to Cananea and thence down the valley of the Sonora River, to deep water at Guaymas, where ample water frontage and ground for railroad uses already have been acquired by a discreet agent, sent from Bisbee nearly a year ago.

There is a story that a very favorable concession has been secured from President Diaz, who is eager to secure the highest degree of development for the rich valleys of Sonora. It is told that the great railroad work projected is to be under the charge of James Douglas, son of the head of the Phelps-Dodge Company, who is superintending the management of the company's mines at Nacozari and who is to make his home hereafter in Douglas.

The proposed road would be a tremendous undertaking, about 300 miles long, passing through the Cananea, Moctezuma and Ures districts, through a country rich both in minerals and in agricultural products. It would afford a tidewater outlet for the copper of the Phelps-Dodge smelters and an outlet for the vast quantities of timbers and supplies needed in the operation of the mines. It would mean much to Douglas, in that connection, would be even with the immense ore bodies of the Cananea section, where the consolidating company is one very closely allied with the the Phelps-Dodge corporation, a fact that would probably mean added industry around the Douglas smelters. If this report be true, it would indicate that the proposed extension of the Phelps-Dodge railroad read has been abandoned and the Randolph line has become absorbed in its right of way up the Gila River.

JEROME MAY MOVE.

The Williams News is assured that construction work will be begun this summer on the new broad-gauge road that is to connect Jerome with the main line of the Santa Fé, and states that the line will be built out of Williams, on the old Saginaw Southern right-of-way, secured years ago for a logging railroad. Construction of this road would mean a general overturning of values, as it is probable a smelter would be built at the mouth of a new tunnel lately completed, tapping the lower levels of the United Verde mine. The tunnel mouth is about a mile from the steep hillside on which the town of Jerome has been buit. Still further down, near the bottom of the Verde Valley is a fine townsite that has been utilized, despite the fact that large sums have been spent by United Verde Clark and townspeople in the Jerome city.

Bids have been called for by the Prescott-Arizona Railroad Company for construction of the grade of its proposed railroad from the Shannon mine, below Clifton, to the company's mines, ten miles distant, at the head of Chase Creek Cañon. The bids to be opened May 20. They call for the excavation of 100,000 yards of earth, 100 yards of loose rock, 40,000 cubic yards of earth, for 90 lineal feet of tunneling and for the building of 2000 cubic yards of dry rubble masonry.

Preparations are being made for heavy work on the Southern Pacific line west of Yuma, in straightening out curves and in the elimination of several short and troublesome curves.

NEW TIME CARD.

May 7 a new time card becomes effective on the Santa Fé, Prescott and Eastern Railroad, affecting mainly the trains, which are speeded up somewhat in order to afford better connection at Wickenburg with the train that is to be added on that date to the card of the Arizona and California Railroad, cutting out all layovers that have hereto vexed the traveler.

A Cadillac gasoline motor service is to be given this fall on the Maricopa and Phoenix line between Phoenix, Tempe and Mesa.

The locomotive repair shop, 50x120 feet in size, is to be built at Globe by the Arizona Valley, Globe and Northern Railway Company.

An addition to the daily sleeper now to run between Los Angeles and Phoenix on trains 7 and 8, the Southern Pacific trains 9 and 10, now carry sleepers, leaving this city on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. With the advent of warmer weather, the passenger business already is heavy in Phoenix on both lines.

Large shipments of cattle are being made over the Southern Pacific, mainly from Arizona points, 551 cars having been moved already for Southern Arizona ranches. The Santa Fé is already moving trainloads of mutton sheep from Yuma, billed mainly to Kansas points.

HORTON TO BE ASSISTANT.

Frank Horton, at present a deputy under Chief Dist.-Atty. Fredericks, is slated to become first assistant to United States Dist.-Atty McCormick. The appointment will probably be officially confirmed by Atty-Gen. Wickersham within the next few days. Frank Stewart, who was appointed a deputy by Oscar Lawler, former United States District Attorney, will undoubtedly be retained by Assistant Hennick. Both Horton and Stewart have had considerable experience in the prosecution of criminal cases and are regarded as capable and energetic young attorneys. Horton has been in Capt. Frederick's office for two years. Stewart was recently one of the best postal inspectors in the service when he was given appointment in the United States District Attorney's office. Mr. Lawler declined to discuss the matter, yesterday, stating that he was not in a position to make any announcement of his two assistants until he receives word from Washington.

SAFEST PLACE TO TRADE

FACTS, FEATURES AND FANCIES FOR WOMEN

BY MISS SYDNEY FORD.

Several years ago, in an eastern city, I happened to have a little interview with Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, who is just now taking a prominent part in the Woman's Suffrage Alliance in session in London. I recollect I asked her at that time the question: "Mrs. Catt, when are we women going to vote?" and the response came prompt and clear: "Ten years after England declares for equal suffrage."

"Why behind England?" I queried.

"Because she will settle by parliament what we must by popular vote," replied the apostle of equal suffrage. "The eighteen religious denominations which have ordained women are, in every case, those that require only a few votes to do it. The reason why the Presbyterian and Methodist churches are behind in this matter is because permission must be had from the general conference or presbytery."

If Mrs. Catt's prophecy was correct then we have some time yet to wait before we cast our first votes, even if the English women win in their fight for political recognition.

Housework and Politics.

"The patent bread-mixer affects national politics," observes a Wyoming woman voter, as quoted by Sarah Comstock in her latest installment of a series of articles on the woman who votes, as appearing now in Collier's Weekly.

This Wyoming voter was vigorously shampooing her little son's head as she talked. "We women don't do all we ought to do," she continued. "We don't organize here in Wyoming as I wish we did. Housework seems to bind us so; but when we understand better how to lighten it, then you'll see that our influence will be felt more in politics. The bread-mixer, the carpet-sweeper, all those labor-saving devices are emancipating us from drudgery," and she put the shaggy little head closer to the register and was absorbed in the drying process for some seconds before she resumed.

"If women only knew that a mixture of one cake of soap, three tablespoonfuls of gasoline, and three buckets of water will save them from rubbing clothes on washday, we'd feel their influence more in government," she said with emphasis.

"Our women don't desert the biscuits for the polls," declares Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, speaking for the women voters of Colorado. "Occasionally though, they reverse the matter. A thing no greater than a pan of biscuits has kept women from casting a vote more than once. There was a meeting once which was a rare event in the country town where it was held. Afterward I met a woman who had not been present, and she told me how starved she was for a broader life, some outside interest.

"'I wanted so much to come to that meeting,' she said. 'If it only hadn't been on Friday. I always wash windows on Friday.'"

That meeting was the event of the year in her town. But her window washing had her under its thumb.

The Eternal Feminine.

Do you know, I am convinced that most normal women have a natural craving for homepacking and housekeeping. Not long ago I had a chat with a brilliant woman who was connected with a certain college for ten years. She now has classes in Anglo-Saxon and Middle English and carries on beside the correspondence work in English literature in the great university where her husband and herself are members of the faculty. Naturally I expected to talk Chaucer and Anglo-Saxon to so learned and accomplished a lady, and what was my astonishment when she announced: "My real hobby is cooking."

I was surprised into silence. "Yes," she went on, "I keep house and I have four little children. Of course, I do not actually perform the work myself, but I know how it should be done and I never daily with incompetent servants. My stenographer comes to me from 9 in the morning till noon, four days in the week. I have my afternoons clear for my children and my home duties, and I have time to see my friends, too."

"Then you think it possible for a literary woman to be a home and housekeeper, too?" I queried.

"I certainly do," said the professor of Anglo-Saxon.

I know another woman, whose marvelous voice holds captive night after night great audiences which fill the largest opera house in New York. This artist has an old school friend who, with her husband and babies, live in a snug flat up Harlem way. Frequently, in the midst of her annual New York engagement, this great opera singer flees from her sumptuous suite in the big hotel to the cosy but unpretentious flat of her old-time friend.

"Just let me go out in the kitchen and fuss around," is her plea, and she dons a big gingham apron, rolls up her sleeves and in the happiest and most homey way, proceeds to concoct her favorite dishes, pausing now and then to sing a lullaby to the baby of the household.

"I'd rather have a dear little kitchen to work in than to own the Waldorf-Astoria," she says as, with a sigh, at a given hour she must needs doff her big apron, get into her sables and drive back to the Fifth-avenue hotel and make ready for the evening engagement.

That is what I call the "eternal feminine" coming to the surface in the nature of woman.

Hops Are Helpful.

I met a friend on Broadway the other day whom I had not seen for some time. I commented on her healthy appearance. Her cheeks were rosy and her complexion clear and eyes bright. She laughed as she listened to my complimentary remarks and then said: "Well, I'm just out for the first time after a siege with grippe and neuralgia in my face. Wouldn't think it from my looks, would you? I think I have discovered a remedy, not only for neuralgia, but for a muddy complexion. An old lady happened to call at our house and she prescribed steaming my face with hops. So mother made a bag of cheesecloth, filled it with hops, wrung it out of hot water and vinegar and applied it to my face, using a hot water bag to hold the heat. The aromatic steam soothed the pain and for one whole day we kept it up, filling the hot water bag and moistening the hops as often as necessary. Next morning I discovered that not only the neuralgia was gone, but the constant steaming had also cleared my complexion wonderfully. We all know that steaming and massage is excellent for the face and whether the hops had anything to do with it I leave to you—anyway, in my case it answered a double purpose."

Fashionable Fads.

Colored net or tulle sleeves have a lining of gold net. This gives just a charming shimmer through the outer mesh.

Spanish lace scarfs, scarcely seen since the days of their popularity twenty years ago, have again made an appearance.

Pendants most elaborate in workmanship have as their chief ornament a tiny watch, not larger than a ten-cent piece.

A great many gold chatelaine bags and straps are being introduced, particularly as a finish for jumper gowns worn over guimpes.

Suede or glace leather is used for trimming smart traveling coats. Up-to-date tailors call these garments voyaging wraps.

Bands of velvet, heavily embroidered, either in the metal tinsels or colors, are worn with many of the Grecian coiffures.

Among the new brooches are tiny straw hats of finely woven gold, with wreaths of enamel daisies or sprays of seed-pearl flowers.

Belts of plain white linen may be made very fetchy by adding the blue Dutch landscapes of embroidery in the coarse darning stitch.

An exceedingly attractive frock shows a combination of eyelet embroidery with plain net, an unusual notion, but very effective.

Very dainty are the linen card cases, rich in drawn work and other dainty needlework. They are mounted over

MOTHER LOSES FIGHT FOR BOY.

Santa Barbara Court Gives Lad to Father.

But Traction Magnate May Be Stung After All.

Eldridge to Carry Grandson Back to Boston.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SANTA BARBARA, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Will Senator James F. Shaw, the Boston traction magnate, get the custody of his eleven-year-old son, Eldridge, whose mother, Mrs. Nettie E. Shaw, eloped with her husband's chauffeur, H. Keno Marble? If the order issued by Judge Crow this afternoon is compiled with the youngster will land in the arms of his father, but from hints and other indications, there seems to be considerable ground for belief that Shaw has been "stung" as the result of the legal skirmish in court today. In other wards, he may get his boy and he may not. It is believed here that the local court's order is not binding outside this State.

Conferences between attorneys and the principals today resulted in an understanding, apparently satisfactory to both sides. Attorney Booth, representing Mrs. Shaw, and Mr. Eldridge, and Attorney Lewis F. Smith of Fresno, for Senator Shaw, faced Judge Crow at 2 o'clock. Eldridge and his daughter came in after the proceedings opened. Police Chief Ross brought the boy into court. They sat apart from Mrs. Shaw.

ATTORNEYS JOIN HANDS.

Both attorneys assured Judge Crow that an agreement had been reached by which they joined in requesting the appointment of H. Fisher Eldridge as guardian to take the boy to Boston and deliver him to his father. Judge Crow was reluctant to do this, and both lawyers argued at length.

Judge Crow finally called Eldridge to the stand. The millionaire promised to take Eldridge back to Boston. The traction roads of Senator Shaw, he said, were in the hands of a receiver, but he believed Shaw able to provide ample for his son. Asked as to the Senator's moral fitness to govern a child, Eldridge hesitated, and then expressed his doubts. Senator Shaw, he said, would send the boy to boarding-school. If the boy's father was not prepared, he himself would provide for him.

Judge Crow finally granted the order.

ELDRIDGE PLAYS BALL.

While the document was being prepared, young Eldridge caressed his mother, teased his grandpa, and ended by playing "catch" with the reporters.

It is believed Mr. Eldridge and his ward will leave here eastward bound, late tonight or early tomorrow morning. Mrs. Shaw said she would not return East with them. Mr. Eldridge and the boy spent this afternoon shopping.

After the legal battle those who had witnessed it were not quite sure whether the result was entirely satisfactory. It was figured that with the habeas-corpus proceedings still operative, possible kidnaping of the boy could be frustrated. Once outside the State, however, Mr. Eldridge could go to Kalamazoo, and remain there if he so chose. But it is believed that he will take his grandson into Massachusetts, and let Senator Shaw take him by legal process if he can.

AGREEMENT FOR BOY'S SAKE.

Attorney Smith said tonight:

"I feel that the best results possible under the circumstances have been accomplished. The boy is a fine, manly little fellow, and I have endeavored throughout the entire matter to steer my course so that he may have the brightest possible future with the least amount of reflection on the past when he grows up.

"I have endeavored to do my best for him, and in so doing may have assumed some unwarranted authority. I have complete confidence in the integrity of Mr. Eldridge, his grandfather, and feel that I have done my full duty toward the boy, whose interests and future I consider of vastly more importance than that of personal desires.

"I have no wish to achieve any notoriety in this matter, but will be more than fully satisfied if my connection with the matter may have helped in any way to redound to the best future welfare of the boy."

The order giving the care of young Eldridge Shaw to his father was made a week ago, immediately after the commencement of the habeas corpus proceedings instituted in Santa Barbara by Mrs. Shaw, but was not signed until this afternoon, when Judge Crow had had an opportunity to acquaint himself with the case.

The order substantially sums up the agreement between the two parties contending for the possession of the lad. This, it is understood, was made by the boy's grandfather and father before the former left Boston on his way out here. Mr. Shaw, it has been learned, accompanied his father-in-law as far as New York, and had at first intended coming all the way when the agreement was reached and such a course rendered unnecessary.

RAPS SON-IN-LAW.

Under the cross-examination of the court today, Mr. Eldridge, whose face shows the pain and anxiety through which he has been passing, stated that his opinion of his son-in-law's moral and financial condition is anything but good. Shaw's moral reputation, said the old man, is bad.

This statement aroused the court, and Judge Crow asked: "In case the father is not able to care for Eldridge, are you able to do so?" was asked.

"That I am," answered the witness.

Both attorneys pointed out that, as all parties to the action are residents of Massachusetts, the proper place for the settlement of the dispute is in the courts of that State. Judge Crow called attention to the fact that any order which he might issue could have weight in California only, and that carrying it out would be entirely a matter of good faith.

HER LIFE CHANGES.

A great change has come over the life of Mrs. Nettie F. Shaw. Two weeks ago she was living with H. Keno Marble, cooking her own meals or eating at cheap restaurants; today she is registered at the Potter, Santa Barbara's most exclusive hotel, and everything she wants is done for her.

In spite of the fact that Mrs. Shaw gave out a statement when her escapade were here last winter, that they were aware of her interest in La Petite Theater, managed by Marble, it has been learned that such was not the case. At the time of their visit, Mrs. Shaw, while known about town as Mrs. Marble, went to the Potter Hotel, where she registered as Mrs. [illegible]

Barbara for Los Angeles in a private automobile, and in that way evaded notice. He is said to have made the trip to that city in four hours twenty minutes.

SHAW SURPRISED.

NO FORGIVENESS FOR WIFE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] State Senator Shaw said this afternoon that he was greatly surprised to receive word that H. Fisher Eldridge, his father-in-law, had forgiven Mrs. Shaw. He declared this was entirely contrary to an understanding they had just before Mr. Eldridge left for California.

Mr. Shaw said that every cent he possesses will be used, if necessary, to get his son. Under no condition will he quit the fight. He supposed that his father-in-law was going West to get the boy to bring back to him.

"When Mr. Eldridge left here," said the Senator, "we were in perfect accord as to the future of the boy. Mr. Eldridge is a tender-hearted man, and it may be that a daughter's arms about his neck, her tears and pleadings for forgiveness, and her begging him to take her back to her old home may have had the effect."

Mr. Shaw was emphatic in asserting his intention to seek a divorce from Mrs. Shaw, and declared that he will spare no expense to win his boy, "no matter what stand Millionaire Eldridge may take."

CLOSE REASONING.

HE FINDS BLIND PIGS ARE MANY.

COUNSEL FOR MODEL LICENSE LEAGUE ASSERTS.

Declares Number of Federal Permits Granted Here Out of All Proportion to Those Issued by City. Says Saloon in Politics Is Cause of Trouble.

"The number of Federal liquor licenses issued for Los Angeles is altogether out of proportion to the number of municipal licenses issued."

This statement was made in a most positive tone at the Angelus yesterday by Capt. D. M. Smith of Louisville, Ky., general counsel for the Model License League.

"Blind tigers?" hazarded the reporter.

"Blind pigs," corrected the captain.

The captain was discussing the liquor problem. He has been busy in Los Angeles, securing new members of the league, which already has a membership of 10,000 throughout the United States. He is to address the City Club tomorrow afternoon.

"It may be that I will give the City Club several hard jolts before I am through with my address," he said. "My views do not coincide in every respect with those held at the City Club.

"It is, however, not to be disputed that the liquor traffic is woefully in need of regulation. I am, and every member of the Model License League is, as much in favor of regulation as any member of the City Club might be, or could be.

"I have been looking into the liquor situation in Los Angeles—that is what I came here for. I have found that, as a rule, the liquor dealers are disposed to obey the law, but I also have found that the number of Federal liquor licenses issued for this district is wholly disproportionate to the number of municipal licenses.

"Yes, I mean that blind pigs are being conducted here.

"I have not located any of them—don't know where they are, but I did look up the number of licenses issued, and that told the story when I compared the issuance of Federal and municipal licenses.

"Right there is where you have the keynote of the trouble with the liquor traffic. It is a fact that it has paid the liquor dealers better to violate the law than to obey it. That is not right. The trouble is that politicians have forced the saloon into politics. They have held out immunity to their friends and threats to the men who would not do their bidding. 'I'll speak to the judge and make it all right for you,' they said to the one; 'if you keep open after hours, I'll see that you are pinched,' they said to the other, and there is the reason why the friend of the politicians was given a handicap over his competitor.

"I urged the wholesalers to see that all the members of their association lived up to the law. In doing this they will not only be working for the respectability of the business, but they will be acting in their own defense, for it is the violator of the law who has brought the business into disrepute.

"Put the saloon business out of politics, and put the lawbreakers out of the saloon business.

"There is no safety for anybody, either in or out of the business, in these extreme swings of the pendulum, first to a wide-open town, then to a strict, puritanical community. The liquor business should not be affected by change of political administration."

A GODSEND.

CLAIM TESTED BY LOCAL MAN.

Suffered Seven Years, Now in Good Health.

Half-Sick People Possess Half-Sick Stomachs.

New Theory Which Inspired Many With Faith.

During his recent visit in Los Angeles, thousands called upon L. T. Cooper at his headquarters in the Owl Drug Store, No. 625 South Broadway. The crowds were made up not alone of Los Angeles residents, but contained hundreds from out of the city, many coming from miles away to see and hear the man who promulgated a new doctrine in the treatment of disease. His theory met with ready acceptance, and inspired his hearers with faith in his medicines to such an extent that they are now being sold at the Owl Drug Stores almost to the exclusion of other proprietary preparations.

Cooper's theory is based upon common-sense reasoning. When asked recently why his medicine is so successful, he replied: "My New Discovery is successful because it corrects the stomach. My theory is that few can be sick if the digestive apparatus is working properly. It naturally follows that few can be well with a poor digestion. I know from experience that most of the tired, half-sick people that are so common nowadays have half-sick stomachs. Put the stomach in shape, and nature does the rest. The result is general good health. My medicine does this."

Among the thousands of Los Angeles people who have tested and proved Cooper's claims is Charles H. Dyer, living at No. 1415 East Fiftieth street. Mr. Dyer says:

"I had catarrh of the stomach for seven years. Words cannot express the suffering I endured. Everything I ate hurt me. Often I have sat for hours bent double with pain. I tried in every possible way to get relief, but neither doctors nor medicine did me any good.

"I began taking Cooper's New Discovery like a drowning man grabbing at a straw, and was greatly surprised when I found that it was helping me. Since taking a full treatment of this remedy I am a well man—eat anything I like without experiencing pain or discomfort of any kind afterward. I owe my recovery entirely to Cooper's New Discovery. The coming of Mr. Cooper to Los Angeles has proven a Godsend to me."—[Adv.

SHOOTS INSANITY SUSPECT.

Patrolman's Revolver Jounces from His Pocket, Explodes and Bullet Hits His Prisoner's Heel.

Sherwood Gibson, a ranchman, arrested on a charge of insanity was accidentally shot in the foot by a bullet from Patrolman R. B. Harris's revolver, early yesterday morning.

Gibson was loafing in the neighborhood of Main street and Fortieth Place, when approached by the officer. Harris, convinced that Gibson was mentally unbalanced, decided to take him to the police station. They ran for the last car and the officer's revolver slipped from its holster and struck the paving. It exploded and the bullet struck Gibson in the heel. The wounded man ran until he fell to the ground from the pain.

Harris hurried him to the Receiving Hospital. He will be taken before the lunacy commission as soon as his injury permits.

An elaborate programme was given in the main hall. It included: Organ prelude, W. C. Stone; "Nearer, My God, to Thee," Elks' Quartette; dedicatory services, Exalted Ruler Leo Tungworth and officers; opening ode and presentation of keys to the custodian. After another selection by the quartette, M. J. McGarry, Past Exalted Ruler, delivered the oration. This was followed by music.

TO ABSENT BROTHERS.

At the close of the programme the members adjourned to the dining hall, where light refreshments were served and a short entertainment was furnished. This consisted of music, a monologue by George Goldsmith and a song by Walter Goldsmith. The 11 o'clock toast was proposed by W. O. Bates.

The beautiful new quarters of the lodge covers a large lot bounded by Olive, Third and Clay streets. It is two stories high in the rear and four stories on the Olive-street side. The total cost for land, building and furnishings approximates $200,000.

The lodge room is furnished with massive leather-covered settees which will seat 300 persons. The ceremonial furniture is of carved mahogany. The dining apartments are furnished in a style that is not surpassed by any hotel in the State. Facing on Olive street are the card rooms, reading room and parlor. To the rear is a large hall suitable for a dining-room or a ballroom. There is also a large room to be used by the drill corps.

BIG BONES EASILY BROKEN.

Brother of Prominent St. Louis Family, Study to Physicans, Injured at San Pedro.

Harry W. Givens, a member of the wealthy and well-known Givens family of St. Louis, who own, among other properties, the famous Southern Hotel in that city, slipped and fell on the wharf at San Pedro last evening, sustaining serious injury. His right leg was broken in two places and his left arm broken twice between the wrist and elbow. He was brought to the city on an electric car and taken to the Clara Barton Hospital, where he was treated by Dr. Garrett.

Mr. Givens, who has made his home in Los Angeles for about a year, had gone to San Pedro with a party of friends who were taking a steamer trip North. As Givens strolled along the wharf he stepped on a roller, and was pitched to the planking heavily. He is a study to physicians. His bones are so brittle that the slightest collision will cause a fracture. Almost every bone of any size in his body has been broken in his 40 years of life. Both legs, both hips and both arms have been broken several times. Shortly after coming to Los Angeles, a year ago, he fell and broke his left leg. California for his health. His brother, Joseph B. Givens, who is manager of the Southern Hotel, is one of the best known men in St. Louis.

Women in Whom Interest Centered.

Mrs. C. C. Thayer (standing,) mother of Cecil Thayer, who was killed by William C. Mitchell; to the left, seated, are Miss May Mitchell, who was an important witness for her brother, and Mrs. H. E. Hart, a neighbor, who gave interesting testimony.

MITCHELL TRIAL.

and her daughter. She also told of the locket and chain, containing his and her portraits, given to Ethel by her sweetheart. She said she did not open the locket to see if there were pictures in it, because it was a "cheap affair."

THAYER'S MOTHER ENTERS.

It was in the course of the examination of Mrs. Mitchell that Mrs. C. C. Thayer, mother of the dead boy, came into court for the first time. She was dressed in black, and several times broke down when her son's death was told of, especially when the revolver which was used to kill him was produced for identification. Mrs. Thayer has not testified in the trial yet, but may be a witness in rebuttal.

The principal witness for the day was Miss May Mitchell, sister of Ethel and the defendant. She is 20 years old and a youthful replica of her mother. Her testimony was sensational, but merely corroborative of that given by her mother on Wednesday, with a few exceptions.

Her direct examination was conducted by Attorney Walter, assisted by Attorneys Dehm and Pratt. This and the cross-examination lasted many hours, an ordeal she withstood in a remarkable manner.

"When did you get acquainted with Guy Luther?"

"It was before June, about May, 1907."

"Did Ethel know him then?"

"No. I made them acquainted."

"Did you know Cecil Thayer?"

"Well, Guy Luther brought him around to the house and introduced him to me after he had introduced him to Ethel. This was in June or early July, 1907."

"Did you ever see Cecil after this—in June, 1907."

"Well, I saw him at Chutes Park on the day before the Fourth of July."

"How often did Cecil call at your house?"

"Almost every night, and he would stay until 10 o'clock."

"Who did he come to see?"

"He came to see Ethel."

"Did you see Cecil the day before the Fourth of July?"

"Yes. We five girls, Marion and Ethel Carmichle, Mamie Wright, Ethel and I, we went to Chutes Park and Cecil was there and Ethel went away with him. I went home alone."

"What time did Ethel reach home?"

"About midnight. She said she had been with Cecil."

The witness then told in detail of the various nights when Ethel had been out late or all night with Cecil, following closely the testimony given by her mother the day before. She repeated the contents of the letter written to Ethel by Cecil and which the latter destroyed, which was proof of their relations.

She told of the time Ethel slapped her mother's face, of the effect the troubles had on her brother and that he would grow white as a sheet, despondent and melancholy.

VISIT CAVE IN CANYON.

New evidence was in regard to a trip to Rubio Cañon with Ethel and William when Cecil joined them and took Ethel away and they went to a cave in the cañon.

The cross-examination of Miss Mitchell was long and searching. Deputy District Attorney North inquired minutely into the relations between the witness and Guy Luther, who strangely never returned to the house after introducing Cecil to Ethel. Later he went to Yuma. Especially as to the appearance of William during the wayward actions of Ethel was the examination strict.

"How many times did William grow pale in the face, despondent and melancholy?" asked North repeatedly, in various ways.

"Lots of times," was the usual answer.

May failed to identify the revolver with which her brother shot Thayer and later her father stated he had never seen it until it was produced in court.

At the afternoon session of court all the degrees of paleness of the defendant and whether he would pale suddenly or gradually were harped upon, but the girl stuck to his "pale, despondent and melancholy" aspect.

"Did Ethel have a conversation with her mother last Christmas about running away from the Door of Hope?" was asked.

"Yes. She said if she were made to stay there another six months she would run away and go to the Thayers."

"What did her mother say?"

WHEN WILLIAM PALED.

"She said: 'Ethel, if you run away be sure and come right home.'"

Then she told of the time when the message came that Ethel had actually run away from the home, how William had suddenly grown pale and grabbed his overcoat and gone out and shot Cecil.

Ansel J. Mitchel, 54 years old, father of the defendant, gave brief testimony. He said he saw Cecil at the house, but paid little more attention to him than to other young folks. He suffered from asthma and went to bed early.

The witness testified that it was only in the winter of 1908 that his wife confided to him the relations between Ethel and Cecil.

"What did you say then?" asked North on cross-examination.

"I asked her if Ethel was all right now, and she said she was."

He told in direct examination of the discovery of the letter from Cecil to Ethel and it was then that his wife came to him with the news of his daughter's shame.

"When did you see Cecil again?" asked Attorney Walter.

"In May, 1908. Cecil drove up in a buggy with another boy and whistled for Ethel. I heard him and went out and ordered him away. As they drove off I heard Cecil say, 'Well, the old man fooled us this time, but he won't do it again.'"

ETHEL AWAY ALL NIGHT.

As a matter of fact the boys drove to the back of the house in an alley and Ethel joined them and was gone all night.

The witness testified that he ordered Cecil a number of times to stay away from Ethel, but apparently with little effect.

"I almost always scolded Ethel when she went out with Cecil and stayed late," said the father.

He told of the trip with his wife in June, 1908, to see Judge Wilbur, and stated that he asked the judge to have something done with Cecil and Cecil's mother, "who had a lot to do with what was done," added the witness. He said that at this time William seemed to be brooding over something.

"What was his condition after Christmas?"

"He seemed to be downcast and didn't eat."

"What did he do at night? Did he read?"

"He would go into his room and sit with his head down as if in a study."

"Do you remember what happened on New Year's Day last?"

"Yes. When the message came of the girl's running away from the Door of Hope, and maybe Ethel going with Cecil, I made the remark that if I was able I'd get him in an hour."

"What did Willie do then?"

"He turned about without a word and got his overcoat and went out."

"WITHIN AN HOUR."

At this point Mr. Mitchell's voice broke and it was several minutes before he secured a grip on his emotions and answered to the cross-examination. For it was "within an hour" after William went out that he shot and killed young Thayer.

Deputy Dist.-Atty. North led the witness over the time in February, 1908, when his wife told him of the relations between his daughter and Cecil Thayer, and led up to the effect his sister's shame had on her brother.

"Was he an excitable boy?" asked North.

"No, I can't say he was. Generally very quiet."

"Have you ever seen him out of his head?"

"Yes, when he was crazy."

"Crazy! When was that?"

"When he had typhoid fever," and there was a laugh by the spectators in the reserved seats.

The effect of speaking about Ethel was dwelt upon.

"When Ethel was spoken of he would flush up," said the witness.

"Did his face get pale?" asked North.

"Yes, his face would get pale after it flushed."

"Any pistols in your house?"

"Why, I've got an armory."

"What does your armory consist of?"

"Of a 44-caliber Winchester, a double-barreled shotgun, a 38-caliber Smith & Wesson revolver, and a Colt."

But the witness asserted positively that he never saw the revolver used by his son, which firearm was shown to him.

The last witness of the day, and an interesting one, was rs. H. E. Hart of No. 238 South Gless street, a near neighbor of the Mitchells, and an intimate friend of the family. She told of having known William Mitchell for years, and said he was always very quiet and peaceable and never took a drink.

TELLS OF ETHEL'S TANTRUM.

Mrs. Hart told of the night she was called to the Mitchells to quiet Ethel in a "tantrum."

"I saw Willie standing outside the house, and I said to Mrs. Mitchell, 'It's pretty chilly; what's Willie doing?' and she said that he was watching Ethel's window so she wouldn't get out."

"Did you see Ethel?" asked Mr. Walter on direct examination.

"Yes. She was very mad because her mother would not let her go out, and said she would kill herself—smother herself in the closet, and I had to pull her out. She said it would be all right if it was not for that 'old fool.'"

"Whom did she mean by the 'old fool?'"

"She meant her brother, William."

After telling of the changed looks of William before the shooting of Cecil the cross-examination began.

"Was Ethel in the habit of having tantrums?"

"I've seen her pretty bad, sometimes."

"Ever see her slap her mother?"

"No, I never did."

Mrs. Hart told of seeing Cecil and Ethel together, and told of conditions at the Mitchell home.

"Did you ever see Ethel spanked?"

"No, I never seen 'em spank Ethel or any of the children."

"They spared the rod, did they?"

"Well, they was pretty forceful in their talk," was the significant answer, and there was a titter in court.

JURORS APPLAUD JUDGE.

When court adjourned Judge Willis sprung a surprise on the jurors, this time a pleasant one. He informed them that they would be allowed to go home as jurors usually do.

"Thank you," said some of the jurors as they filed into the jury-room. But in the room just off the court their applause was loud and long, and Judge Willis grinned.

Before dismissing the jury for the night, the judge gave that body special instructions and ordered that if any one spoke to any one in the panel about the case he must report it at once to the court.

Today will largely be given up to character witnesses for the defense and an adjournment will be taken tonight until Monday. Ethel Mitchell will not go on the witness stand until then, and will be the most sensational witness of the trial. The defense will close with Ethel, and then the prosecution will introduce its rebuttal.

It is expected that the case will not go to the jury before next Thursday or Friday.

WOMAN CONFESSES THEFT.

Miss Marie Donahue, 17 years old, was arrested last evening on complaint of Mrs. Mary Farrell of No. 903 Alpine street, who charged that Miss Donahue had robbed her of $60. Miss Donahue came to Los Angeles several days ago to visit at the Farrell home. Yesterday morning Mrs. Farrell missed $60, which she kept in the bureau in her room, and accused her guest of the theft. The girl at first denied she had stolen the money, but when taken to the Police Station confessed to the crime.

FORT SCOTT (Kan.) May 6.—Fred D. Warren, business manager of the "Appeal to Reason," a socialist publication charged by the government with sending scurrilous and defamatory matter through the mails, was this afternoon found guilty by a jury in the Federal Court here. An appeal will be taken.

testimony of Tom Savage, he said. Earl's testimony, he continued, pertained to most all the persons under investigation.

"Isn't it a fact " asked Appel, resuming the examination, "that you were exceedingly bitter toward these defendants from the time you were sworn as a juror until you were discharged?"

Objection to this question was sustained.

In answer to a question by Dist.-Atty. Fredericks, the witness said that Earl did not appear before the grand jury after Oswald returned.

"You did not consider the testimony of Earl in finding these indictments, did you?" asked Fredericks.

Appel's objection sustained.

MANY POINTS RAISED.

At the opening of the hearing Attorneys Shenck and Appel filed several documents for the consideration of the court. There were three motions to set aside, on behalf of Broadhead, the same number for Shenck; challenges of the grand jury, individually and collectively, in behalf of each defendant; an affidavit from Broadhead, alleging bias on the part of the jurors, and a special motion to set aside the Schenck indictment because of alleged faults due to interlineations.

These interlineations were made in writing by Dist.-Atty. Fredericks and the chirography of the prosecutor was held up to ridicule. As a matter of fact, hardly any one in the courtroom could read it, though the captain himself tossed off the words as if they had been typewritten.

Just before adjournment of court last evening, Attorney Appel consented to the absence of several witnesses today. He indicated that he wished especially to question those who live in the city of Los Angeles, his apparent purpose being to show bias on their part.

As to the state of mind of the grand jurors, it is contended by the prosecution that such jurors are not disqualified by reason of any opinions they may have formed through rumor or from reports in the public prints. The prosecution also urges that it is necessary for the names of material witnesses only to appear on particular indictments.

It is believed the arguments on the motions to set aside will consume several days. Then the defense will have an opportunity to demur, after which will come the time for pleading. These various stages of the process will drag the cases along for several months in the event, of course, that the court declines to set aside the indictments.

PRESIDENT'S GIFT SEIZED.

Sword With Hilt of Gold Taken from Russians Who Brought It Ashore.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, May 6.—A finely-wrought sword, with a hilt of gold, said to have been brought to this country as a gift for President Taft, was one of several hundred oriental-art objects seized tonight by special treasury agents here.

The articles were found in the possession of two Russians. The men admitted having brought them ashore, but insisted they did not know they were breaking any law.

The sword, they said, was intended as a present to the President, from "many Russian friends," and was to have been presented by an official of the Russian embassy.

BULLET COMES FROM BLANKET.

DD ACCIDENT HAPPENS UPON BUSY STREET.

Bullet and Cloth from Khaki Trousers Lodge in Angler's Leg. Dr. Ritchey Returns from Europe. Lesmis Boy Returned to Long Beach Home—Minstrel Show.

ffice of The Times, No. 38 E. Raymond Ave
PASADENA, May 7.—Clarence A. Austin of the real estate firm of Grable & Austin, was accidentally shot, the bullet of a 32-caliber revolver entering the top of the lower part of his leg and lodging below the knee cap yesterday, at the corner of Colorado street and Fair Oaks avenue.

The accident was peculiar in that the revolver was wrapped up in a bundle of blankets. Austin came from his home at No. 629 South Grand avenue in his automobile, with fishing basket, rod and supplies necessary for a trip up the San Gabriel with T. H. McCoy, Jr., of the William R. Staats company.

In front of the office of the Pacific Electric Railway Company he hurriedly took his effects from the automobile, dropping his role of blankets on the sidewalk. A muffled report was heard, and Austin announced that he had been shot. An ambulance was called and he was taken to the Pasadena hospital, and was later removed to the home of Dr. Adalbert Fenyes, where an X-ray of the injured leg was taken by Dr. Condit, disclosing a serious wound, showing the bone splintered and foreign substance, probably cloth from his khaki trousers, and the bullet lodged in the bone itself. The task of dislodging it was a difficult and painful one, and it is not known to what extent the injury may result. Austin is the son of Frederick W. Austin, cashier of the Home Telephone Company, and is a popular man here.

USE SIGNPOST FOR BONFIRE.

Joe Freelick, George Sawyer, and Harry Cruger, three youths, will receive sentence by Justice McDonald this morning on two counts, to which they pleaded guilty yesterday afternoon.

The three boys left Pasadena Sunday morning at 1 o'clock and walked to the corner of Hill avenue and New York street, Altadena, where they camped until daylight. They made their campfire out of the street sign post at the corner. Failing to see any jack rabbits in the morning, they turned their firearms on the corn planter belonging to Francis Beckwith on Maiden Lane, shooting off the handle and riddling the seed box.

C. L. Mills, road overseer for the Alhambra Park district, swore to a complaint, charging them with the destruction of the signpost, and Francis Beckwith swore to another complaint, charging them with the damaging of the corn planter.

RITCHEY RETURNS.

Dr. George W. Ritchey of the Mt. Wilson Solar Observatory, who has arranged with the St. Gobain Plate Glass Works in France for the casting of the 60-inch Hooker lens for the Mt. Wilson Observatory, has landed in New York, and will leave for Pasadena next week.

In personal letters to Pasadena friends, Dr. Ritchey has stated that the trip was more successful than he had hoped for. The St. Gobain company agreed to build a special furnace at a cost of $10,000 to cast this lens, and it is believed that the feat will be accomplished within ninety days. A former attempt of this company to manufacture the lens proved a failure, the glass was allowed to cool in layers, and upon its arrival here it was fused. Dr. Ritchey is of the opinion that the additional equipment will enable the company to do in three months what it took them practically three years to do before, and that this time they will be successful.

MITCHELL LEAVES FOR CHICAGO.

John J. Mitchell, president of the Illinois Trust and Savings Company, one of the most prominent bankers of the West, will leave today for Chicago. "I have spent three happy months here and am now ready for business," said Mr. Mitchell last night. "I cannot discuss the financial situation because I am just a granger," he added, laughing. "I have spent most of my time in the mountains, automobiling." Mr. Mitchell will leave in his private car, "Mayflower," via the Southern Pacific, and will be accompanied by his wife, and four little children.

BANQUET DATE SET.

A week from this evening the annual banquet of the Board of Trade will be held at the Hotel Maryland. The speakers of the evening have not been fully decided upon, but the affair is to be elaborate. A request is made by Secretary Bertonneau that members desiring invitations for themselves or friends make their needs known not later than Wednesday.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH OFFICERS.

At the annual meeting of the members of the First Christian Church these officers were elected: Trustees, J. Meacham, T. M. Lancaster, N. H. Pierce, J. H. Byrom, T. J. DeHuff; elders, A. Meacham, C. H. Wood, W. J. McAuley and A. H. Garrett; deacons, Paul Stewart, John Plank, Godfrey Christianson, W. T. Davies, T. M. Lancaster, John McLin, G. T. Boyd, Harry Semple, Benjamin Baker.

The treasurer's statement showed that $585 had been taken into the general fund and $10,222 for the building fund. Other reports show the church to be in splendid condition in its various departments.

LOOMIS BOY LOCATED.

Ralph Loomis, the 12-year-old boy who broke and ran from Walter Harris of Alhambra, near Raymond Hill, night before last, was yesterday located as being a runaway from the Linton Home for Boys at Long Beach. Early yesterday morning he was found by officers near the Southern Pacific roundhouse and was taken into custody. He had spent the night in the bushes at Raymond Hill.

It was learned at the Linton home that the boy had run away on Monday. Attention was called to him by the fact that Harris had befriended him Tuesday night, buying him a loaf of bread and a parcel of canned goods, because the boy told a pitiful tale of having been deserted by his mother. He has been returned to Long Beach.

Little Tot Escapes Unharmed When Auto Rolls Over Steep Embankment.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

MONROVIA, May 6.—Plunging over a steep embankment on North Charlotte avenue this afternoon, an automobile belonging to the Pottenger Sanatorium carried with it the baby daughter of Dr. F. M. Pottenger. In some mysterious way the child escaped unhurt, although the heavy car turned over and over as it rolled down the hill.

The child with two sisters, had been taken by its mother and grandmother for a ride. The power gave out and the chauffeur left the machine after putting on the brakes, to secure another in which the party could return to the garage.

The brakes failed to hold. The heavy car slipped down the incline of the avenue, which, at that point is lined by steep banks. The women terrified, attempted to rescue the children and succeeded in getting two of them out. As the mother reached for her third child, the automobile veered and rolled down the embankment.

Earl Flanders sang, "You'll Never Miss the Water Till the Well Runs Dry," and J. E. Thorneburgh's ballad, "She Was a Grand Old Lady," were two popular numbers. Otis Mercer was responsible for an ethiopian oddity, "You Must Think I'm Santa Claus." Fred Vreeland, assisted by Messrs. Jones, Rawls and Laws, sang, "Somewhere." "Liza," a darktown serenade, was given by J. E. Chapin. Mercer also played some splendid harmonica solos, and H. G. Thomas sang, "Roses." "Hang Out the Front Door Key," was an end song given by A. K. Wyatt.

Other numbers included gymnastic exhibitions of calesthenic drills; tumblers; gymnastic dance; baton spinning by George H. Swartout; and pyramids by the senior class, under the direction of Herbert Shutt. A laughable skit, "A Manager's Troubles," was given by William Thompson, who took the part of a theatrical promoter; Otis Mercer, who played Edwin Booth (stranded;) A. K. SOCIETY FUNCTIONS.

One of the prettiest affairs of yesterday was the bridge luncheon given at Annandale Country Club by Mrs. Henry H. Trowbridge of Palmetto Drive in honor of Mrs. T. P. Phillips. Covers were laid for nine, the guests being Mmes. W. S. McCay, Clayton H. Garvey, J. R. Mothershead, Henry H. Sherk, Joseph D. Condit, Misses Meech and Nash. Maman cochet roses and maiden hair ferns were used in adorning the table and after luncheon bridge was enjoyed in the assembly room.

Mrs. L. W. Nelmes gave a large five hundred party yesterday afternoon at the Shakespere Clubhouse, where ten tables were arranged for cards, and later a number of friends came in for tea. Duchess roses were used in profusion in the decoration of the room and in the tea room, where white roses and ferns were effectively combined in ornamentation of the table. Assisting Mrs. Nelmes were Mmes. Fred Nash, Neal K. Taylor, Misses Earley, Ellen Lowry and Abbie McHenry.

Mrs. Walter S. Wright of North Orange Grove avenue entertained twenty friends yesterday afternoon at bridge. Old-fashioned garden flowers made the rooms attractive, and Sweet Williams ornamented the tea table in the dining-room, where a collation was served after the games.

Mrs. Herman Randolph Hertel of East California street has issued invitations for a bridge party Thursday afternoon, the 13th inst.

Mrs. Emil Kayser will entertain on Wednesday afternoon, May 12, at her home on South Madison avenue with a bridge party, for which invitations are out.

ARTESIA.

ARTESIA, May 6.—A stranger, claiming to represent an advertising firm in Los Angeles, has disappeared with a horse and rig belonging to the Artesia livery barn, and to date no trace of the thief can be found. He hired a rig from McCann & Son, saying he wanted to call on ranchers along the line of the Pacific Electric Railway for the purpose of securing permission to erect billboards on their lands adjacent to the track. He was well dressed. He said he would return in two hours. The horse was one of the finest in the local barn, the buggy was nearly new and the harness had

STUDENTS OF LONG BEACH HIGH SCHOOL IN TROUBLE.

Defeated Faction in Election Duck and Ignominiously Crop Hair of the Victorious Leaders, But Faculty Disposed to Be Lenient—Lawyer Airs Family Skelton.

LONG BEACH, May 6.—Almost on the eve of the close of school several students of the High School are "on the carpet" for participation in the near-hazing of three other students. About thirty of the boys are implicated in the affair, but the ringleaders are said to be Enloe, the crack baseball pitcher; Fred Trude, Clement Nadeau, the tennis player, and Walter Horne.

The affair was the outcome of the annual election yesterday of the student body. After the result was announced last night, Russell Stark and Alan Montgomery, members of the good government party and judges of the election, were seized by thirty members of the students' party, and after some preliminaries were ducked in the aquarium at the High School building. Glenn Stone, another student, was caught earlier in the evening, and given a partial and not an artistic hair cut. While the students were in the hands of their tormentors some one telephoned Prof. Burcham, and his arrival checked any further trouble.

An investigation was held this morning, but after both sides had been heard the faculty continued the hearing, and intimated that it might turn out that the guilty parties would be let off with a reprimand, as the occurrence savored more of a lark by both sides than anything else. Harsher punishment would also seriously cripple the various athletic teams. It is the opinion, however, that it will be necessary to change the laws of the student body so that in future less of the students' time and attention will be diverted from their regular work to the excitement of politics.

The election yesterday resulted in a victory for the good government party, and it was generally conceded that the votes of the girls were responsible for this. The officers elected are: President, Harry Riley; vice-president, Tom Davis; secretary, Mabel Scott; treasurer, Howard Berryman. Managers: Baseball, Lary Darby; girls' basketball, Lilly Kingcade; boys' basketball, Rhea Enloe; football, Fred Trude; tennis, Lloyd Shafer; track, Lorne Middough; debating, Elmer Higgins; Carrulea, Albert Morosco and Guy Bartow; editors, Julia Howell and Earl McDermott.

BURNING MISTAKE.

Mrs. Mary Shafer, wife of Leonard Shafer, this morning, shortly after breakfast, swallowed a tablespoonful of what she thought was her regular medicine, but which proved to be carbolic acid. Physicians hastily summoned, saved the young woman's life, but she was badly burned.

Frank Lotz, a shell polisher, today caught his sleeve in a spindle, revolving 2000 times a minute, and before the machinery could be stopped, half of his sleeve was torn off and an ugly hole half an inch deep burred into his forearm, barely missing one of the large veins.

Attorney Denio of this city today filed letters of administration in Riverside county, action on which will display an ugly family skeleton. The papers were filed on behalf of Mrs. Lyman Newton, who lives at Workman, to secure possession of the estate of her husband, who died not long ago.

Newton was formerly in the city employ, acting as janitor of the old pavilion. He removed to Riverside and married there, claiming to have a divorce from his first wife. Attorney Denio says he has court records to show that a divorce action Newton started in the East was dismissed by the court and an action started in Los Angeles county later met the same fate. The divorce Newton claimed he had. Before his death Newton transferred his property, valued at $10,000, to his second wife, and it is this which the first wife seeks to recover.

WOULD LICENSE QUACKS.

At this morning's session of the Southern California Medical Society, Dr. T. A. Stoddard of Santa Barbara, in an address, denounced the so-called medical frauds and quacks who travel about the country telling startling stories of wonderful instantaneous cures, and fleecing the people. He advised a license of $100 a day. This sentiment was vigorously applauded. Another matter discussed and denounced was the practice of scattering sample medicines around the residences, where children can get hold of them, and numerous cases of severe illness of little ones were noted.

The convention closed tonight with a banquet at Frank's Pike Café, at which covers were laid for 100. Dr. E. B. Burnman of San Diego presided. Toasts given were by Mayor Windham, "Welcome;" Dr. F. C. E. Mattison, "The Society;" Dr. O. O. Weatherbee, "The Physicians;" Dr. W. T. Burke, "The Middle States Physicians;" Dr. Willis Mills, "As a Citizen;" W. T. McArthur, "The Ladies."

SCHOOL CENSUS ENDS.

Census Marshal Enloe and his deputies today finished the tabulation of the school census of the district. The total number of children is 3621, a falling off from last year's figures of 201. This is accounted for by the separation of the Belmont district from the city. The enumerators found that because of the enforcement of the compulsory vaccination law parents of 250 children have removed to other cities.

BOOST CLEAN-UP DAY.

Monrovia Citizens Hold Meeting to Crystallize Movement—Espee May Install Gasoline Motors.

MONROVIA, May 6.—The general interest in "clean-up day" took tangible form last night in a well attended meeting. By unanimous vote it was resolved that at least one day each year as proximate the city's birthday as possible be devoted wholly to communal housecleaning.

In preparation for Saturday, the 15th inst., E. E. Knepper, principal of the city schools and president of the civics committee will give each pupil a circular letter for their parents requesting that yards, terraces and parkways be cleaned of weeds and rubbish by or on the 15th inst. The city will cooperate, and furnish teams to remove the debris.

ESPEE MAY COMPETE.

The Southern Pacific Company is considering the advisability of opening a line between Los Angeles and Monrovia for passenger traffic by placing two of its new gasoline motor cars on this line. Before the opening of the Pacific Electric system between this point and Los Angeles, the Southern Pacific did a heavy passenger business, but for some years only freight trains have been run on the line. The time of the motor cars would be much faster than that of the electric, as it is stated the run could be made with ease in twenty-five minutes.

H. Zerrell has let a contract to M. C. Halsey for a two-story brick building with a frontage on Myrtle avenue for $7500. Two storerooms will occupy the ground floor with office rooms above.

OBJECT LESSON.

Santa Monica Man Shows What Can Be Done With Vegetables on City Lot.

SANTA MONICA, May 6.—As demonstrating the possibilities of Southern California soil and climate, W. K. Cowan comes forward with an object lesson in intensified agriculture. From a city lot of nine-tenths of an acre he has marketed $88 worth of Irish potatoes, since January. They were grown between rows of blackberry bushes, and already the ground has been cleared and planted to corn, which has attained a height of six inches. The experience of Mr. Cowan warrants him in the belief that there is a good living for a family on every five-acre tract upon which water is carried, provided the soil is tilled carefully and with proper rotation and intensification of crops. Even one acre is full of possibilities, but with five acres there is an opportunity for fruit trees of all kinds, to say nothing of berries, chickens, and other stock in limited numbers.

William W. Pulliam, engineer at the local manufacturing plant of the Los Angeles Pressed Brick Company, was painfully but not seriously injured this morning by an explosion of oil. The burns were to his face, but fortunately he will not be disfigured.

The home of Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Coffman was thrown open last night to the members of the local parlor of Native Sons. The occasion was a reception tendered to Nathan P. Bundy, the newly-elected grand trustee, and to A. M. Montgomery, who has just returned from the session of the Grand Parlor, in which he sat as a delegate.

FOR ONE CITY.

Another Meeting Called to Forward Ocean Park-Santa Monica Consolidation Movement.

OCEAN PARK, May 6.—The promoters of the movement having for its object the consolidation of Ocean Park and Santa Monica announce that a meeting of citizens is to be held in the City Hall in Santa Monica on the evening of the 12th inst. There will be able speakers to explain the benefits to follow consolidation. Signatures will be solicited to the petitions asking that an election be called. The desire is to submit these just as soon as the requisite 20 per cent. of signers is secured in the two cities. The Council will then call the eleciton at the earliest possible date.

Ruy Gaskell was today given his freedom, on bail of $1000, and will appear before City Recorder Rogers, the 13th inst., to answer to a charge of resisting an officer. The officer is Patrolman Barton, who shows rough usage at the hands of the as yet unidentified persons who endeavored to rescue Gaskell. The accused has employed counsel.

After having been held in jail for three days under suspicion of being in wrongful possession of a bag of gems, Excell Harris, a colored youth, walked out of the City Jail this morning. His release followed quickly the service of papers in habeas corpus proceedings brought in the Superior Court.

Togo Fred, a Japanese janitor, lost his balance this morning, while washing windows at the ocean front auditorium, and fell from the second story to the ground. He alighted on his feet. He sustained painful bruises and lacerations, but no bones were broken nor internal injuries sustained.

CONTRACT AWARDED.

Sixteen-Thousand-Dollar House to Be Built at Clifton-by-the-Sea for Mrs. Burdette.

REDONDO BEACH, May 6.—The contract was awarded this afternoon to L. J. Norman for a handsome seaside residence to be built for Mrs. Robert J. Burdette of Pasadena, at Clifton-by-the-Sea. The contract price is $16,380. Mr. Norman will start work Monday and expects to have the house ready for occupancy by July 4. The plans which call for a house, larger and handsomer than any now in Redondo Beach were drawn by Arthur B. Benton.

The site for the residence at the extreme south-end of Clifton, includes three lots facing on the Esplanade, and overlooks the ocean from a point where the view of the bay is magnificent.

The house will be artistic. Built in the form of a hollow square, it will surround a patio 25x50 feet. The material will be rough finished, split shakes and there will be twelve rooms.

At the annual meeting of the Redondo Beach Volunteer Fire Department, last night, these officers were elected: Chief, W. F. Goble to succeed himself; assistant chiefs, Edwin Shaw and A. C. Hewlett; secretary, C. C. Mangold; treasurer, W. F. Coleman.

OPERATION HER ONLY CHANCE

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Adrian, Ga.—"I suffered untold misery from a female weakness and disease, and I could not stand more than a minute at a time. My doctor said an operation was the only chance I had, and I dreaded it almost as much as death. One day I was reading how other women had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it. Before I had taken one bottle I was better, and now I am completely cured."—LENA V. HENRY, Route No. 3, Adrian, Ga.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be absolutely confidential, and the advice free.

HEROINE.

GRITTY WOMAN FIGHTS OFF MASKED RUFFIAN.

Opens Door of Home and in Instant Is Struggling Desperately to Keep from Being Chloroformed by Unknown Assailant.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN BERNARDINO, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Roused from her first sleep shortly before 11 o'clock last night, Mrs. A. M. Olsen of No. 326 West street, went to her front door, and in a second was fighting desperately with a masked man.

The front porch of the house cast a deep shadow about the door, and there was no light in the hallway, so the struggle of the woman was unobserved from the street. The intruder without a word threw his right arm about Mrs. Olsen's neck and, with his left hand attempted to thrust a handkerchief saturated with chloroform against her face.

Although taken wholly by surprise, Mrs. Olsen struggled fiercely, and tried to cry out. The grasp on her throat choked her and the hand bearing the deadening drug moved closer. Her clothing was ripped, her face scratched and cut, but the gritty little woman fought on with the courage born of despair.

After a fight lasting she does not know how long, she managed to escape for a moment from the grip of the ruffian, ran to the railing of the porch and screamed for assistance. That is the last she remembers for some time. A brutal blow dealt with some heavy blunted weight, struck her on the back of the head, and knocked her to the ground.

Frightened by her cries and the movements of the neighbors, who clustered at their windows and doors, and then began running to the Olsen home, the assailant darted off. Several of the neighbors met and passed him on their way to answer Mrs. Olsen's cry for aid.

Mrs. Olsen was found lying on the boards of the porch, unconscious, bleeding from the wound in the back of her head. She was taken up and carried to her room and medical assistance sent for at once. For a time it was feared that the injury she had received would prove fatal, but the exertions of the physicians succeeded in reviving her shortly after 2 o'clock this morning. She is now a nervous wreck, crying hysterically at the least sound. Her husband, who was not at home at the time of the struggle, is standing guard over his home with a loaded shotgun. He vows to kill any one who comes prowling about after dark. There is no clew to the woman's assailant, though the police are working on the case. His object in attacking Mrs. Olsen is not believed to have been robbery.

Carriage Maker Begins Action for Nearly Eleven Thousand Dollars Damages Against Owner of Motor Car—Church Will Use Autos to Gather Congregation.

RIVERSIDE, May 6.—For the loss of one of his fingers, which prevents him from attending to his business as a violin maker and carriage maker, William J. Mills began an action for $10,500 damage in the Superior Court today against John T. Jarvis, who ran over him in his automobile two months ago.

Mills was riding his bicycle north on Market street, near Eighth street, when the accident occurred. The complaint alleges that Jarvis, in his automobile, turned south on Market street from Eighth, at a high rate of speed, without sounding his horn. Mills was struck by the machine and dragged under it for fifty feet, the complaint avers, the auto crushing his left hand and tearing off the middle finger. M. Estudillo is attorney for the plaintiff.

Riverside churches will generally observe next Sunday as Mothers' Day, with fitting exercises. At the Universalist Church the pastor will preach a special sermon in honor of mothers, and the parsonage will be transformed into a nursery, where mothers may leave their babies during the service. Every one who attends the service is expected to wear a white flower, in recognition of the day. From Calvary Presbyterian Church, automobiles will be sent to the homes of those who are dependent upon a conveyance.

BANISH RACE SUICIDE.

Anaheim Census of School Children Shows Satisfactory Increase of the Little Ones.

ANAHEIM, May 6.—The census marshal has completed the school census in the Anaheim district, and reports 646 children of school age, a gain of 107 over the 1906 census. He found a total of 1619 children under 17, which is a decrease of fifty-one from last year. This increase in children of school age will give the district two new teachers, which will bring the number up to twenty.

Postmaster Duckworth has received official notification from Washington of the advancement of the postoffice here to the second class. This means an increase in salary for the postmaster. It is believed Anaheim will get free city delivery next year.

Couple, Both Under Age, Who Ran Away from Colton Last Month Found at Nogales, Ariz.

COLTON, May 6.—Belle Malone, and Emmett Smith, both under age, who eloped from this city on the 10th inst., have been located in Nogales, Ariz. They were married in Tucson by Probate Judge Cooper on April 14 and then went to Nogales, where they expect to reside for the present. Mrs. J. J. Malone, the girl's mother, has received a letter from Mrs. Smith telling of her marriage and whereabouts.

A resolution of intention to close the east forty-seven feet of Sixth street, between I and J streets, and the west one-third of the alley way between the Gregory Fruit Company's building and the proposed site for the raisin seeding plant, was passed by the Trustees last evening.

BAD BOY PUNISHED.

Upland Lad Tries to Break up Evening Entertainments and Goes to Detention Home.

UPLAND, May 6.—Otto Gates has proved himself a most remarkably bad boy, and has been sent to the Detention Home in San Bernardino, pending his further commitment in the Reform School at Whittier. Several times of late he has been found at the bottom of an attempt to break up the evening entertainments at the grammar school, and the patience of the authorities finally gave out.

Through the shrewdness of the City Marshal today the Chinese who have been selling tobacco to boys have been trapped. The official sent one of the street urchins to the store of Qo Quong Wong and the boy bought two packages of tobacco. The chink was promptly arrested, and paid a fine of $50.

HUNTINGTON BEACH.

HUNTINGTON BEACH, May 6.—Nearly 300 Mexicans in charge of James McCabe, superintendent of construction of the Pacific Electric Railway, and another gang under Foreman Priddy of the Sherer company, are grading and laying track here on the Santa Ana-Huntington Beach electric line.

Mothers' Day will be observed in the schools tomorrow and in the churches on Sunday. Special services will be held in the latter.

The Trustees have accepted the services of H. A. Livernash as band leader, and throughout the summer concerts will be given every afternoon and evening in the pavilion.

Rollin W. Dole, secretary of the Huntington Beach cannery, was last night nominated as president of the Board of Trade. The election will occur Wednesday.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES, ss.:

Harry Chandler, Assistant General Manager of the Los Angeles Times, being duly sworn, declares upon his oath that the following is a true and correct office record of the circulation of said newspaper for the month of April, 1909:

APRIL, 1909.

HARRY CHANDLER, Assistant General Manager, The Times.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of May, 1909.

[Seal] T. L. CHAPIN, Notary Public in and for the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

A. L. Dennis, being duly sworn, declares that he is and has been for ten years Superintendent of Circulation of the Los Angeles Times; that the above detailed statement of circulation for the month of April, 1909, is correct, and shows the actual number of papers printed for each day of the month named.

A. L. DENNIS, Superintendent of Circulation, The Times.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of May, 1909.

[Seal] T. L. CHAPIN, Notary Public in and for the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

NOTE—The loss in April circulation for this year, compared with the same month of 1908, is attributable to the fact that many thousands of extra copies of The Times were sold and distributed on account of the fleet being here during April of last year. At that time an enormous gain over 1907 was shown. The Times did not hope to this year equal its April, 1908, record, because the extra sale both before the warships arrived and during their stay here was phenomenal, and, with the exception of the time of the earthquake in San Francisco, the largest in the history of the paper.

SAN DIEGO.

PAIN CAUSED BY "JOY" RIDERS.

SEVEN HURT WHEN AUTOS BUMP LATE AT NIGHT.

Society Folk Victims of Speed Maniacs Whose Machine Runs Into Their Motor Car—"Temperance Joints" Wiped Out by the New Administration—Elks Float.

SAN DIEGO, May 6.—Miss Julia Dent Grant, daughter of U. S. Grant, Jr., Miss Isabel Ingle and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wetzell, all prominent in society, were hurled to the ground with terrific force in a collision between automobiles while returning from Point Loma late last night. They were bruised and shaken up, although it is denied by members of their families that there will be no serious results. The young women were with Mr. and Mrs. Wetzell, when, on a steep grade, their automobile was run into by another going at terrific pace. The latter is said to have contained a party of "joy" riders and their identity has not been learned. No one of the "joy" party was injured.

JOINTS WIPED OUT.

The so-called "temperance joints," which have flourished in the "red-light" district for several years, have been wiped out by a single order of the new city administration. The new City Attorney was instructed to close the joints by law, and before proceedings could be started the proprietors voluntarily shut down.

SULLIVAN DENIES STORY.

Absolute denial is made by John L. Sullivan of a story emanating from San Francisco to the effect that he secretly married Mrs. Cal F. Johnston, wife of his former business manager. Sullivan is staying at Hotel del Coronado and there is no woman with him. "I have no intention of being married; I'm happy enough as I am," said Sullivan last night.

GOOD TOURIST YEAR.

Redlands Reports the Best Season in Half a Decade—Hotels Contemplate Improvements.

REDLANDS, May 6.—"This is the best tourist season we have had for years," said Palmer P. Day, one of the managers of La Casa Loma hotel. "On account of the heavy rains in the winter the travel was a little backward at first, but those who came were so well pleased that they told their friends, with the result that the latter part of the season turned out most sanguine expectations. Last year at this time the hotel had been closed two weeks, now we have nearly 100 people in the house. We attribute this year's success to the excellent service and splendid table, and the delightful social atmosphere that has permeated the hotel. We have a bigger season than ever next year. We will keep open all summer and look for a fairly good season."

Edward S. Graham, president of the Point Loma Hotel Company said: "We expend in the neighborhood of $25,000 this summer in improving the hotel. The opening of the University of Redlands, the improved railroad facilities and the general success of the town are positive assurances of a great season for Redlands, and La Casa proposes to keep abreast of the times."

A. Morgan of the Hill Crest Inn says the season has been 50 per cent. better and better than any heretofore and the outlook for next season is better still. A number of improvements will be made about the inn this summer.

F. B. Johnson of the Wissahickon Inn, says this is the best season the inn has ever had, the house being filled to its utmost capacity many times.

CHAUTAUQUA IN TENT.

Novel Gathering Will Be Held Under the Canvas—Lima Bean Growers Form Association.

VENTURA, May 6.—The Chautauqua held this summer in Ventura will be held in a tent. Next year a pavilion will be built on the tract in the east end of town presented to the association by the Ventura County Chamber of Commerce. The Ventura County Chautauqua Federation has appointed a committee, of which D. W. Huffman of Santa Paula is chairman and Rev. Mr. Fulford, secretary, to have entire charge of the Chautauqua.

The Lima Bean Growers' Association has filed its articles of incorporation with the County Clerk. There has been some slight change in the directorate of the association as first announced, the board consisting of T. G. Gabbert of Oxnard, Charles Donlon of Oxnard, R. G. Edwards of Saticoy, G. C. Power of Saticoy, Joseph McGrath of Oxnard, F. A. Snyder of Somis, John Darling of Saticoy, A. Camarillo of Camarillo. The association proposes to control the market, the purposes of the incorporation being set forth as the growing, producing, shipping, marketing, buying and selling lima beans. The capital stock is $500,000, the shares being valued at $50 each and each director has taken one share for the purposes of the incorporation. It is proposed to have the stock all held by producers, and as widely as possible.

A new building to be used as a manual training school is to be erected on the school lot at the rear of the Plaza schoolhouse.

The delinquent tax list of Ventura county this year foots up only $676, the smallest since 1901.

Indications are that the county hay crop will be much heavier than was anticipated early in the season. The heads of the grain have filled well, and the growth has been helped by the late fogs.

Lima bean planting is in progress all over the county, but is slow owing to cold weather.

B. Frank Robbins, a barber, has been fined $25 for keeping liquor in his place of business, in violation of the town ordinance.

All the land owners in the district which it is proposed to bond for a petrolithic boulevard from Ventura to the entrance to the Casitas Pass have signed the petition to the Supervisors for permission to issue the bonds.

The boys of the Ventura Y.M.C.A. will have a summer camp in June on the Fish ranch in Carpenteria Valley.

PALO VERDE VALLEY.

Colorado River Rising Steadily a Month Ahead of Time—Neighbours Notes.

NEIGHBORS, May 6.—The Colorado River shows evidence of the hot days and south winds on the distant mountains. It is making a steady rise in the lagoons and lowlands in the south end of the Palo Verde. It is a month ahead of time.

The oldest inhabitant declares there has never been so much wind as this spring. Fierce gales have made life miserable for the settlers, who are compelled to dwell in temporary habitations.

Next to a water system the greatest need of the Palo Verde Valley is a correct government survey. It is due the people, many of whom are making good improvements, building better houses, etc., that the work should be done.

The Todd brothers are putting down a big well on the mesa in township 4. At forty-six feet they struck rock formation, which retarded progress. They succeeded in going through it, but have not yet reached the desired result. The well is being put down for Mr. Graham and Mr. Pierson, formerly of Corona.

Mr. Patterson and his son are putting down a big well on their land under the shadow of Black Mountain, on the Mesa, in township 7-21. They dug one well almost to water, but found that it was on another person's land, and had to change location. There is quite a group of homesteaders in this part of the valley, who look for a big government water system. Great difficulty is experienced in making any satisfactory surveys, as the old stakes are few and far between, and none at all are found on the mesa.

Hay baling has been taxing the energy of the ranchers for some time. The crop is light. Baled alfalfa is held at $20, and barley hay is expected to bring $25 a ton. On the Blythe ranch there is a great acreage out to barley, and there is every prospect of plenty of feed for the coming season.

School closed here for the summer with a pleasant social time and dinner for the scholars, prepared by the patrons. Miss Margaret Sanderson, teacher, and Miss Florence Bodkin left the valley last Friday for the summer. Miss Sanderson went to her home in Whittier, and Miss Bodkin will spend the hot months in Los Angeles and vicinity.

So many have left this central part of the valley already that there is a decided lonesomeness. Some have gone because of disappointment in getting water, others to get away from the rise of the river, and still others to avoid the approaching hot days.

Miss Fritz' Demonstration On Underwood Typewriter

The World's Champion Appears at a Public Demonstration at the Y.W.C.A.

Last night at the Y.W.C.A., Miss Rose L. Fritz, who holds the world's record for rapid and correct typewriting, gave a demonstration of her abilities on the Underwood Standard Typewriter. Her records appear unbelievable, but the facts are incontrovertible, as her daily demonstrations during the last week have proven. Last night she wrote from new copy with which she was unfamiliar, as well as from copy she was familiar with. She also wrote from dictation and part of the time was blindfolded. Her record for one hour is over five thousand words, correctly written, and she holds the American typewriting championship trophy, the Penman's Art Journal trophy, the International Championship trophy, as well as a gold medal. Miss Fritz will give another demonstration tonight at the Y.M.C.A. The public is invited to this event.

Principals in Tragedy.
Frank Woods and Annie Lyons. He shot himself because the girl refused to remain away from a party where beer was to be served.

SHOOTING AT CHUTES.

tieth street, Grace Thompson of No. 822 Ceres avenue, and George Hollinghead, the gate-keeper at the park, were standing but a few feet away when the shot rang out, and all hurried to the side of the wounded man, who was carried to the drug store across Main street, where he was given first aid by Dr. N. J. Brown, while a hurry call was sent in to police headquarters.

"I put it just a little too high to make a good job of it, doctor," said Woods with a wan smile, as the surgeon bent over him in the drug store.

"Take my rings; I give them to you" he said, when the girl knelt by him, and he insisted that she pull from his fingers four gold rings, one of them set with a small diamond.

At the Emergency Hospital it was found that the bullet had entered the breast so close to the heart that it was impossible to say whether that organ had been penetrated.

"If the heart was inflated at the moment, it may be that the left ventricle was perforated," said the surgeon in charge. "Otherwise, the bullet only went through the pericardium. At any rate, the man is fatally wounded; he is certainly shot through the lung."

"I'm going; got to make a go of it this time," murmured Woods as the girl smoothed his hair while he lay on the hospital cot.

"Don't say that, Frank, don't go," she pleaded.

"Yes, I must go this time."

From Billie Lyons it was learned that the wounded man had made several attempts to commit suicide recently, at one time being found by members of the Lyons family when he had a gas jet between his teeth and had just turned on the deadly fumes.

Last Sunday, when Woods went with Horace Wild from Fiesta Park to Schuetzen Park in a balloon, Wild restrained him with difficulty from jumping out of the car.

GIRL STRANGLY UNMOVED.

Annie Lyons, standing near the deathbed of the man who had shot himself for love of her, was strangely unmoved last night. She was quite sympathetic when speaking to him, but away, from his side she seemed to fail to realize what had happened and smiled like a child as she discussed with the reporters the pleasures of parachute leaping.

Woods was in fairly comfortable circumstances. He recently sold a lot in Chicago for $12,000, and it is understood that he purchased a small tract of farm land near San Luis Obispo. He exhibited at the recent aëro show two balloons, which he had constructed for himself at his own expense, saying that if he could not make money with them, he would make ascensions for his own pleasure.

"He was a good man, I don't know how we will replace him," was the tribute paid to Frank Woods last night by Manager J. B. Lehigh of Chutes Park.

SEVERS CONNECTION.

Fresno Man Cuts Adrift from Canners' Association and Will Start New Plants.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FRESNO, May 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] C. H. West, district manager of the California Fruit Canners' Association, with headquarters in this city, today severed his connections with the company. It is announced he will go into business for himself.

Mr. West will, without delay, begin the erection of at least one large fruit house and in all probability two. The new plants will be located at Fowler and Reedley, and dried and green fruit and probably raisins will be handled.

It is also rumored that other big shake-ups may be expected at the big canning plant here.

E. V. Kelley is manager of the dried fruit and raisin department, while Richard Garibotti is manager of the canning department. The retiring district manager has been connected with the Canners' Association for the past eight years, and is well known throughout the San Joaquin Valley. His successor has not been chosen.

we have to make provision for it. Fireworks and other displays in the air might be stopped also. Property owners no doubt have rights for a certain distance above their holdings provided no injury is done them, but it is unjust to suppose they own the air and ether above them to the very outside of the universe. I believe litigation would determine that the air is a public highway, for the use of the property owner so far as he needs it, but no farther."

The assistant City Attorney abides by the statutes, but suggests that it would be pretty hard for any one property holder to prove that a balloon had passed through his strip of air, and in that way the salvation of ballooning might be worked out.

CLUB FAVORS PERMIT PLAN.

The Aëro Club wants to make provisions requiring all balloonists to have permits, either from the Aëro Club or the city officials, as a protection against unskilled aëronauts; that sand taken up in a balloon be of a certain quality and sifted; that certain limitations be made regarding captive balloons; that airships and flying machines be required to keep away from buildings and wires except where landing places are provided, etc.

President J. S. Zerbe, Secretary H. LaV. Twining, and Manager Leonard are drafting provisions for the ordinance.
